21. The womens self governing association, assisted by the Mystic Fish and Womens chamber of commerce, will pay the expenses of her trip here.

Miss Bennett is remembered by many students as a woman well informed on all vocational subjects as well as an inspirational talker. There are four talks on this year's program for the general student body of women. The remainder of her time will be given over to individual conferences. It is here that Miss Bennett renders real service to the girl who wishes to be posted on her intended vocation. All girls should register at once with Ruth Lindsay for conferences with Miss Bennett.

Has Written Many Articles. Miss Bennett is known also by her articles on vocational subjects which have been published in some of the late editions of the Womens Home Companion. She is one of the best informed women in the country on vocational subjects.

W. S. G. A. has been staging a series of vocational talks this year by representative people in their various professions. Mr. M. G. Wyer of the university library gave the first talk, Miss Dunning spoke on Institutional Management, and Miss Lisano Duffield told about the Aravellers' Aid. This series of talks have led up to Miss Bennetts stay here.

Letters will be sent to all organized womens houses announcing and explaining Miss Bennetts trip here. The committee in charge is: Ruth Lindsay, chairman; Bernice Scoville, Dera Imig, and Florence Price. Miss Bennett will be the guest of Mrs. E. L. Hinman during her stay in Lincoln.

All girls who attend the talks given by Miss Bennett will be given excuses from their classes, Executive Dean Engberg announces. Miss Bennett will make similar trips to Morningside university, Iowa, and to Kansas university, Lawrence.

Chit Chat.

CHIT CHAT

Dearest Jane:— Not much news, but a lot of topics for conversation have arisen over the week-end—this is the time when all students, good and otherwise talk about mid-semester.

The glad element, I mean the crop of young Nebraska seedlings so overlaid with lettered sweaters has come and went again. Sunday was a blowy day and all the girls who have new spring outfits and men with cars appeared with them so that the public might know where they stand.

Another worry besides mid-semester has have into sight. Every one is trying to figure ways to bolster up their charge accounts so that they can venture one more dress to feed the old social god who dotes on spring parties. The first of them is coming off this week-end; all the girrls are hoping for ring-side seats.

Its a good thing spring vacation is coming soon for so many of us are suffering such pangs of homesickness that I know one's lessons must suffer—the fact is, lessons seem non-essential in the spring when conversation naturally drifts to other things.

There are so many bob-haired flaps among the high-school wimmen who came down to see their heroes throw a mean basket that (one of the local advocates of hand-made beauty was telling me) a rush order for side waves and lengthy switches was made necessary to satisfy her co-ed customers. The Co-ed is nothing if she is not different.

Here comes my room-mate in from a date, I'm in for a session. Why does Heaven spill moonlight during exam week? BANGS.

BLIND MUSICIAN GIVES BEAUTIFUL SELECTION

Miss Leona Jennings, an accomplished blind musician, gave several beautiful piano selections, Friday evening at Faculty hall. Other numbers on the program were a reading by Miss Gard, a song by little Miss Anita Stone, and the song "Welcome Pretty Primrose Flower," by the Dellian quartet.

After the program, and exchange of delegates, some eight or ten in number, with the Luther club, was a feature of the social part of the evening.

Professor Paul H. Grumann, director of the school of fine arts, gave a lecture on "Ibsen" at Blair, Nebr., last week.

A. A. Reed, director of university extension division reports an increased enrollment this semester in the correspondence study work. About seventy-five lessons are sent a daily from all over the state.

Lula Boyce, '19, is an agricultural extension agent at Bridgeport, Neb. Mr. I. G. Wilson, is now connected with the Kansas State Normal Training School, Pittsburg, Kansas.

OMAHA CLUB IS REORGANIZED

Under New President the Students Plan Many New Projects This Week.

Reception Committee. Bob Dodds, chairman; Ruth Miller, Jesse Tucker, Maynard Buchanan, Ralph Keir.

Publicity Committee. Frank Fry and Alice Turvey. Tickets for the dinner Thursday can be secured from the following students or at the office of the Grand hotel:

Wilbur Wolfe, Elton Baker, Adrian Lewis, Mildred Athmer, May Leslie, Leata Markwell, Arvella Johnson, Nathan Greenhouse, Gladys Mickel, Grant Lantz, Pierce Rogers and George Buffett.

The Omaha club under the leadership of the president has undergone a complete reorganization with a view of making the club a more efficient factor in getting Omaha students together in a friendly way. The fact that there are now enrolled in the University over 300 Omaha students shows the great need of some organization which will serve as a means of bringing together this large number of students who have a great many interests in common.

It is no doubt true that half the Omaha students do not know what the other half are doing or perhaps have never met each other. The fact that the Omaha club has not been reaching enough Omaha people and promoting friendship among them has been very evident and in order to accomplish this has started the plan of having an entertainment dinner meeting on the second Wednesday of each month.

The first such dinner will be held at the Grand hotel Thursday at 6 p. m. Dinner will be followed by a short and snappy entertainment and a few minutes will be devoted to getting acquainted in a general social time. In this way the club hopes to bring Omaha students to know each other better, and to cause a greater feeling of friendship and organization among the large representation Omaha has on the campus.

The dinner meeting will close at 7:30 allowing those having other meetings to attend, to do so without interference. Following are the recently elected officers and appointed committees. They are strongly behind this plan and would like to see every loyal Omaha student get back of this program and in showing the rest of the school what a force Omaha students are on the campus, really benefit the school and themselves. The officers are as follows: President, Preece Rogers; vice president, Mildred Athmer; secretary, Leata Markwell; treasurer, Frank Fry.

High school representatives—Central, Gladys Mickel; commercial, Harry La Towsky; south, Gertrude Broadwell; Benson, Glee Gardner; Creighton, Stephen King.

Entertainment committee—Chairman S. Adrain Lewis and Arvella Johnson; Monroe Gleason, Francis Wahl, Helen Cain, Geo. Buffett.

Dinner committee—Chairman, Grant Lantz, Florence Whalen; Nathan Greenhouse, Mary Leslie, Irma Wiltse.

HITTELL TO BE GUEST OF A. S. C. E. TUESDAY

Western Representative of American Asphalt Association Will Visit Here.

Mr. John B. Hittell, western representative of the American Asphalt association, with headquarters in Chicago, will be the guest of the A. S. C. E., University of Nebraska chapter, on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Mr. Hittell is also a member of the national A. S. C. E. and was formerly an assistant city engineer of Chicago.

He is touring this section of the country, lecturing in different places on the importance of the asphalt industry. He will give two lectures during his stay here. One will be given Tuesday evening at 7:30 in Mechanic Arts hall, room 102, and the other on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock in room 110, Nebraska hall. Besides lecturing on asphalt he will also show some moving pictures of impact tests on hard-surfaced roads taken in different parts of the country.

It will be remembered that Mr. Hittell was here two years ago when he gave illustrated talks on the manufacture and production of asphalt, to the Nebraska road institute and to the civil engineering students.

The lectures will be free to the public. Civil engineering students who desire to hear him on Wednesday at 11 o'clock will be excused from their classes at that hour.

JAPANESE STUDENTS PRESENTS PICTURES

George K. Nakagawa, a Japanese student in the college of dentistry, has presented the department of zoology with a number of colored pictures of Hawaiian fish and crabs. They illustrate the remarkable colors and form of those fish that are found among the coral wreaths.

Mr. Nakagawa has also given the department a collection of silk cocoons showing the different varieties of silk worms that are grown in China. Mr. Wolcott, head of the department of zoology, expects to use this collection of cocoons in an exhibit he is preparing which will show the economic value of animals.

USE ULTRA SLOW CAMERA ON TRACK

Moving Pictures to be Used to Show Up the Defects of Trade Men in Work.

All track men are urgently requested by Coach Schulte to appear in their track suits Wednesday, March 15, at 4:00 p. m. sharp on the athletic field.

At this time pictures of all track men will be taken by state officials which are to be shown along with the pictures of the recent basketball tournament held here.

There will also be motion picture men on the field at this time to take pictures of the men in action. These pictures will be shown to the track men in the latter part of the week for the purpose of demonstrating how their work in coming. They will then be shown in ultra slow motion so they can observe their faults and thereby be able to improve their form.

Coach Schulte and Assistant Coach Floyd Wright are expecting at least 200 men to be on the field at this time. The records show there are over 200 men out for track and it is hoped that 100 per cent attendance will be shown.

Other Worlds Than Our Own.

University of Vermont—While academic credit for completion of courses in the R. O. T. C. is not yet given at the University of Vermont, plans are being formulated whereby credit toward degrees will be given. Two representatives from each of the colleges at Vermont have been appointed to make recommendations to the Senate to have a uniform system of academic credit toward degrees. Formerly credit has been given but not counted toward graduation.

University of Minnesota—The managing editor and editor-in-chief of the year book have received threats of bodily violence and of a libel suit for the appropriation of advertising by a man who claims to be the president of the Order of the Iron Croix. The editors gave out hand bills, "We are here, slackers beware." An iron cross and the date 1813 were also printed on the bills. This caused much excitement and mystery on the campus. This was a scheme to be used by the editors to boost the sale of the year books. This man finally offered to settle for $200 out of court. Then the editors became suspicious and they are planning to continue their advertising scheme.

The "fore words" of our Spring Style Story are—

Quality, Style, Value, Fit

CHAPTER 1.
An all-wool tale of the woolly-west, and Australian plains, in which modest price plays an important part, and the sterling qualities of Society Brand suits and top coats are revealed.
(See handsome life-size illustrations in our store.)

CHAPTER 2.
A hare-raising story that comes to a soft, smooth finish in the new debries and soft hats, in which the influence of the master-designer is felt. You'll agree it's topping.

CHAPTER 3.
A colorful yarn, skillfully woven, having its origin in our own Southern States and Egypt and its climax in beautiful shirts that any man will cotton to.

CHAPTER 4.
A week-long voyage in the hold of a Pacific liner! Across a continent in a sealed car! Home ties broken! They must be, for there's none of these handsome new silk ties that bind. Probably after going half way round the world, going around a collar is easy.

CONCLUSION.
Only one conclusion is possible when you see these splendid new Suits, top coats, hats and furnishings—All ready for your choosing.
