NEBR.-S. D. DEBATE TONIGHT, TEMPLE THEATER

LINCOLN FANS GRAB VARIETY SHOW TICKETS

Nine "Peppy" Acts of Drama, Music and Comedy to Feature First Annual Vaudeville.

ALL TALENT FROM UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

"Hints to the Heavy," "Comme-ci, Comme-ca," "The Crystal Gazer" Some of High Spots

For the first time since the organization of the University, Lincoln people will have a chance to see an entire show put on from talent secured from the ranks of the students when the Variety show is presented at the Orpheum theatre, Friday evening.
Starting at 8:20, the show will run through nine "peppy" acts of drama, music and comedy.

Tickets for the Variety show have been in big demand by Lincoln fans and university students ever since they went on sale Monday morning and prospects Wednesday evening were that the entire house would be grabbed up before the doors open for the program at 8:20 Friday evening.
A one-night performance seems to be far from being enough to accommodate the demand for tickets.

Every one of the nine acts making up the Friday night program is of character rarely seen in amateur productions. Several of the actors have had chautauqua experience and the leading man in "Hints to the Heavy" is a former performer with the Ringling Brothers circus.

All Feature Acts
All of the acts are high class features of music, comedy, drama or unusual dance numbers. Some of the best talent in the University has been secured to play in the show and a program never excelled in Lincoln amateur theatrical performances is looked for.

Leading acts are "Hints to the Heavy," "Comme-ci, Comme-ca," entertainers, "The Crystal Gazer," "The Mystic aza," "The Violin Girls" and a special dance and musical number by two pretty co-eds. A particular feature of the "Comme-ci, Comme-ca" entertainers is the fact that they will lay emphasis on songs of Wilbur Chenoweth, long a favorite among Lincoln fans.

"Hints to the Heavy" is a scream.
Glenn Preston, 1921 varsity football quarterback and formerly a performer with the Ringling Brothers circus, plays one of the leading roles and is ably assisted by Floyd Reed, wrestling captain, and Frank Adkins, a well known athlete of the university.

"The Crystal Gazer" and "The Mystic aza" are both acts of a mysterious nature. The unknown man playing the lead with Floyd Johnson in "The Crystal Gazer" has been the talk of the campus since his picture appeared in the Daily Nebraskan before the spring vacation. The other act of mystery is expected to show scenes accomplishing the impossible in peculiar lines.

"The Violin Girls" are well-known musicians and have been leading features on the White-Meyers chautauqua circuit.

The dance numbers to be presented by the Phyllis Unthank, Mildred Johnson, John Costello and "Polly" Butler rank up well with any artistic Orpheum performance. The actors have all become popular with Lincoln theatre goers and will be an important feature of the show.

Besides these acts there are three others by Zylophone artists, the university band and a quartet of picked men from the university

ANSEL CLAYBURN WILL HAVE CHARGE OF WORK AT PERU STATE COLLEGE

Mr. Ansel Clayburn, a former graduate student in Geography, and assistant in the teachers College, has been elected to take charge of the Geography work and summer session at the Peru State Teachers College.

TRACK MEN WORK HARD FOR ALL-COLLEGE MEET

Team Captains Lining Men Up For Various Events—Meet
Comes April 15

The inter-college track meet, which is to be held a week from Saturday, April 15, is arousing an unusual amount of interest and rivalry among the tracksters and all signs point toward a keenly-contested struggle on the cinder paths on the fifteenth. The captains of the various college teams are busy rounding up their men and the men have begun to report in large numbers.

The Bizad team, under the leadership of Coats, promises to present a strong lineup. Fifteen pen-pushers have already reported. Peterson, Biz-ad distance runner, is expected to be among the winners in the half mile dash and mile run. The Bizads are somewhat handicapped because of the large number of their men who are on the varsity team.

Riddlesbarger, captain of the Arts and Science squad, declares that the academy cinder path artists will cop the honors. Douglas Meyers, Bloodgood, Crecellius and a number of other stellar athletes are on the Arts team, and are expected to make a good showing. Meyers will run the hurdles and heave the shot. Cre-cellius will run the high and low hurdles. Bloodgood will take part in the sprints.

BIG WRESTLING MEET PLANNED

All Men Who Have Not Won Letters Eligible to Compete For Honors

MEET TO BE HELD
WEDNESDAY APRIL 12

Handicap Meet to Follow in Which All Wrestlers May Enter

An open wrestling meet, in which any Husker except those who have won letters in wrestling may compete, will be held next Wednesday, April 12, Dr. Clapp announced yesterday.
A large number of mat men have signified their intention of entering the meet, and a closely-contested meet is expected. Dr. Clapp and coach Troendley are in charge of the meet. Numeral sweaters will be awarded to the winners in this meet.

Following the open meet, a handicap contest will be held in which all wrestlers may compete. The handicaps will be determined in such a manner that every mat artist entering the meet will have an equal opportunity of winning the honors.

These two meets are expected to help keep up the interest in the mat game. The varsity wrestling squad will also work thruout the spring under the direction of Coach Troendley, and any man who is expecting to go out for the team next year is invited to join the squad and get the benefit of the workouts.

Nebraska captured one first place and one third place in the championship western inter-collegiate wrestling meet held at Wisconsin March 17 and 18. Troutman won first honors in the 175-pound class, while Thomas copped third honors in the 145-pound

GRACE COPPOCK DRIVE STARTED

Every Girl in University Given Opportunity to Support Drive —Goal is $1500

LUNCHEONS SERVED TODAY
AND TOMORROW FOR FUND

Drive Will Close Friday Afternoon—Team Captains to Meet Both Days.

The drive which started yesterday for funds for the support of a Y. W.
C. A. Secretary in China is well underway. The goal is $1,500 and it is to be given to Miss Maude Klatte the secretary who has taken over the work of Miss Grace Coppock. This amount to be raised represents Miss Klatte's salary for the year and it is very necessary that this amount be given.

Every girl in the university will have an opportunity to support this campaign and have a real part in carrying on the Y. W. C. A. work in China. The canvassing will be completed Friday afternoon. Luncheons are served Thursday and Friday noon at Ellen Smith Hall to the captains and team members. Short talks will be given and every canvasser should be present to receive all the help possible in the work of soliciting support from the students.

The greatest obstacle to Christianity in China and progress in educational and social lines is the insistence that duty and obedience to older people is the first and greatest virtue. Many men and women of China who are really Christians at heart are prevented from taking any public stand by the parents or grand parents who say that they cannot worship at their graves, the greatest calamity conceivable to them. The authority of the old people over all the

PROF. BENGSTON WILL SPEAK AT ALPHA ZETA BANQUET THIS EVENING

Professor Bengston of the University will speak at the banquet and open meeting of the Alpha Zeta Agriculture Fraternity at the School of Agriculture Thursday evening. His subject will be "Agricultural Practices in Central America."

TWO NEW FRATERNITIES ADDED TO SONG LIST

Total of Fourteen Greek Letter Organization Will Have Songs in New Song Book

With the addition Wednesday of songs from the Phi Kappa Psi and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon, a total of fourteen fraternities will be represented in the second edition of the Nebraska song book which will be published soon by the Alumni Association. A list of twelve fraternities which had submitted songs for publication was published in the Wednesday Nebraskan. Each of the two songs which were submitted Wednesday will cover one page in the book.

The fourteen fraternity songs to be published in the new book will use up twenty-three pages in the new book. With the substitution of more Nebraska songs and those from other large universities in place of some songs worthless in a university song book, the second edition of the Nebraska Song Book promises to be excellent.

The campaign for subscriptions which is to be conducted by girls on the campus will start Monday and last until Friday evening. A prize of a $40 seal cowhide traveling bag is to be awarded to the individual girl outside a sorority who turns in the largest number of subscriptions and the cost of a $75 vacuum sweeper or Sheffield Tea Service will go to the sorority turning in the most subscriptions. The sorority contest is to be run on a percentage basis according to the number of girls they have enrolled in school.

BACHELOR DAYS WILL BE FEATURE OF SHOW

Musical Revue is Added to Already Long List of Attractive Numbers.

"Bachelor Days," a short, snappy musical revue directed by Irma Mc-Gowan and Dorothy Sprague has been added as an extra feature to the already long list of acts to be presented at the University Variety Show Friday evening at the Orpheum Theatre.
The act is an exceptionally "peppy" number filled with music and a lot of pretty girls.

The cast of "Bachelor Days" is as follows:

Paul, Ward Ray.
Jack, Alfred Parks.
Garden Girl, Ethel Wild.
Athletic Girl, Lois Butler.
Greenwich Village Girl, Isabel Per-sall.

Cabaret Girl, Ruth North.
Southern Girl, Madge Morrison.
Gingham Girl, Marcia Pollmer.
Bride, Dorothy Sprague.

Tickets for the Variety Show are on sale at the Orpheum box office. In the first two days of sale the tickets have been going fast and prospects point to a full house at the Friday evening performance.

Yesterday's game between the Huskies and the University of Missouri at Columbia was postponed on account of rain. A doubleheader will probably be played this afternoon if the weather permits.

HUSKER-COYOTE DEBATE COMES THIS EVENING

Governor McKelvie to Preside at Inter-Collegiate Contest on Subject of Importance

CORNHUSKER BAND TO GIVE CONCERT FIRST

Open-Forum Discussion to Follow Formal Debate With Questions From Audience

Go to the Nebraska-South Dakota debate this evening if you want to hear what intercollegiate debating is like after the picked representatives have studied a question for weeks intensively, and if you want to get more boiled-down information, within two hours, than you could get through miscellaneous reading in weeks, on a big troublesome international question that a college man or woman ought to be informed on—the question of whether the United States should cancel the 11,000,000,000 which it advanced to the Allies during the World War.

Governor McKelvie will preside at this annual inter-state contest in thinking and in platform expression of thinking.

An open-forum discussion (which lively innovation last year ran far over an hour) will follow the formal debate—rapid-fire questions to team members from the audience. Since Nebraska's affirmative case for cancellation is not the popular side, the Cornhusker representatives are likely to have plenty to do in this give-and-take meeting of emergencies.

The Cadet Band will play before the debate, which opens at 8 o'clock.
A dozen or more professors yesterday urged their classes to attend.

The members of English 10 (Argumentative Composition) are going to use the debate as a "clinic" in the study of evidence and its presentation and submit criticism of the workmanship.

The members of the News Writing class (English 82) are going to attend and write "stories" of it as if for the State Journal or the Lincoln Daily Star.

Nebraska's case will be opened by Wendell Berge of Lincoln president of the Freshmen class, the second Freshman in twenty years who has won his way to Nebraska intercollegiate debate team honors.

The middle of Nebraska's case will be handled by Harold M. Hinkle, '23, of Lincoln, and the case will be concluded by Welch Pogue, '23, of Grant, Iowa. Each of the six speakers will be allowed ten minutes. Then will come the hand-grenade-throwing rebuttal arguments for which four speakers will have five minutes each and the two final speakers seven speakers.

Nebraska's negative team that battles with Iowa at Iowa City Friday evening will leave today at 1:20 on the Rock Island, staying at Des Moines tonight. Nebraska's representatives are Ford C. Campbell, Law '23; Bernard Gradwohl '23, Law '23, Lincoln; and Sheldon Tefft, '24, Weeping Water.

braska students, Miss Esther McClell-the University Medical College. The
