The Universal Film Company, in order to reproduce these scenes, built an immense set at Point Lobos, near Monterey, California. The ocean side of Monte Carlo's famous casino, the bandstand and the seaside promenades of the Riviera resort were duplicated.

Participation by San Francisco's Four Hundred was obtained by Carl Laemmle, president of Universal, as the result of a handsome contribution to a worthy San Francisco charity. The wealthy Golden Gate blue bloods motored to Monterey for the week-end and devoted Sunday to strolling around the Monte Carlo set.
