1922 Play of Kosmet Klub
is Tomorrow

MUSICAL HITS OF SHOW ANNOUNCED

Many Frat Meetings Postponed and Monday Evening Declared Open

Pronounced as the cleverest Kosmet Klub comedy of recent years, "The Knight of the Nymphs" will be presented at the Orpheum theater tomorrow afternoon and evening by a cast and chorus of over fifty Nebraska students.

At 2:00 Monday, the first performance of the 1922 show will be given under the auspices of the Klub. J. Manley Phelps, director, announces that the finishing touches will be put on today and promises the snappiest show of the spring to students and people of Lincoln who have been responding to the ticket sales campaign put on by the Kosmet men during the week. The business management has announced that tickets for both performances may be had in limited numbers at the box office at the Orpheum before both performances. No announcement has yet been made whether or not the Klub will take the show to Omaha before the close of school.

The Kosmet play committee has announced that a Kansas City musical house has offered $250.00 for the song "Lonesome and Blue," written by William Ackerman for the 1922 show and to be sung in the third act of the play tomorrow. Other musical hits which will be produced for the first time at the showing of "The Knight of the Nymphs" include, "Sometimes Fairy Tales Come True," "Just One Girl," and, "There's always Sunshine After Rain."

Ruth Kadel, AS3, of Genoa, is the accompanist of the Kosmet show this year. She acted in the same capacity for "The Most Prime Minister" the 1921 play of the Kosmet Klub, and is in a large measure responsible for the success of the musical numbers of the program. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

The orchestrations of the 1922 production have been arranged by Oswald B. Wilson, of Lincoln, Mr. Wilson aided in the play given last year and consented to give his time and talent again this spring to the Klub members.

Many of the fraternities and sororities have announced that the regular Monday evening meetings will be postponed on account of "The Knight of the Nymphs." A large number have reserved blocks of thirty or more seats for the evening performance and the business manager announced that opportunity for other organizations to sit together at the show is still open.

With Monday evening declared an open night by University authorities for the annual production, it is expected by the Klub members that a large majority of the student body will come to the play at the Orpheum. A greater advance seat sale than for any other Kosmet show is reported by the play committee.

Ag. Pep Meeting.

The peppiest pep meeting of the year will be held at the Ag. Campus at 7:30 o'clock, Wednesday evening, May 3rd. All Ag. men and women out.

According to the present plans the convention will be entertained at Lincoln next year.

ARTS COLLEGE TO ORGANIZE ON THURSDAY

Dinner at Lincoln Chamber of Commerce Will Be Feature Event

TICKETS ARE ON SALE
MONDAY AT TEMPLE

Nature of Program for Evening Kept Secret—Demand for Plates Heavy

The Arts and Science college the oldest and largest college in the university will take the first steps toward a permanent organization at an Arts College dinner Thursday evening, May 4, at 6 o'clock at the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce. Men and women in the college are expected to get their tickets for the dinner Monday at the Temple. Tickets are 85 cents a piece.

Tickets for the dinner for men and women will be sold Monday at the Temple, the plan of disposing of them being the same as was used for the University Night tickets. The demand for them is expected to rival that for the University Night tickets because of the excellence of the program arranged and the limited accommodation.

To add to the interest in the occasion the nature of the program is to be kept secret until Thursday evening. Special music and novel entertainment are to feature the surprise in store for those who attend the dinner.

In arranging the dinner for the Arts and Science students, those in this college should realize that the initial step toward a permanent organization is being taken and the success in this move as well as the continuance of it must rest largely on the Arts and Science students. Besides being assured of a rare treat in entertainment on May 4 every Arts and Science student will consider it the proper loyalty to his college to make the dinner a success.

At one time the Arts and Science college was the whole university. It was the source from which all the other colleges sprang, and now, though the largest in numbers and activities, it is loosely organized. Festivities of the other colleges have interested the Arts students and have led them to desire the same unity that makes such entertainment possible. The Arts and Science dinner next Thursday is planned for the purpose of taking the first step in this desired and needed organization.

A portion of the convocation hour will be taken up with Farmers Fair discussion and pep meeting. All Ags be sure and be there.

History Of Theta Sigma Phi Womens' Journalistic Fraternity

In 1910, at the Kansas University, the first chapter of Theta Sigma Phi was formed for the main purpose of providing opportunity and inspiration for women wishing to make journalism their life work. The chosen members from the University were those who had distinguished themselves in the field, and others who were interested in opening up a

There are now twenty-five chapters of Theta Sigma Phi, the newest one being California. All chapters are very active in all school affairs. They are doing big things, trying to establish a name for the organization. Although only six years old, the professional sorority is nationally known and it stands out through the splendor of work accomplished by some of its members. Such women as Fanny Hurst, Mrs. Humphrey Ward, Bess Streeter Aldrich and others are the ones to whom Theta Sigma Phi owes thanks for making it the high standard organization that it is.

The aims of the Nebraska chapter, as well as all others, are: to create a better type of college journalism; to assist in a development of a college of journalism at the University of Nebraska; to provide help for the members in the study and pursuit of their chosen profession and to extend such opportunity also, whenever possible to all other women students of journalism; and last, to develop a spirit of friendship among women who are following similar fields of work.

Other chapters have done many fine things. The one in Chicago has established a sorority house, where Theta Sigma Phis, either in college or in active work, may live. The house is a large home, beautifully decorated and outfitted. Large rooms for social activities are reserved and libraries for study have been installed. It is the aim of many chapters to have houses elsewhere to promote enthusiastic co-operation.

new world for college women.

The University of Nebraska was admitted to the organization in 1916. With the assistance of Prof. M. M. Fogg, seven energetic journalism students procured the charter for Lambda chapter. The seven charter members are Eva Miller (Mrs. George (Mrs. Adrian Brian); Vivienne Holland (Mrs. Brian O'Brian); Mollie Gilmartin, Gertrude McGee; Ethel Arnold and Clara Dodds.

Lambda chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, at the University of Nebraska, holds meetings every other Wednesday at Ellen Smith Hall. These are merely the regular meetings. Literary programs, social gatherings and special lectures intervene with the regular meetings. The chapter was represented University Skit Night, presenting a playlet, "The Rag Office in 1922." Some of the issues of Aw-gwan were assisted by the sorority members. In 1918, "girls' year" in the University, Theta Sigma Phi published a book, "The Whiskbroom," presenting all kinds of college life during a war year. The publication was very successful and the proceeds were used to send a delegate to the biennial convention of the Fraternity at Lawrence, Kansas. It is hoped that the book may be put out again in the near future with more success than before. The last convention was held at Madison, Wisconsin. The one to have been held this year was postponed until next spring.

The active members of Theta Sigma Phi at Nebraska are: Katherine Brenke, Margaret Black, Mildred Doyle, Belle Farman, Lois Hartman, Nellie Lee Holt, Valora Hullinger, Dorothy Huse, Nora Livingston, Carita Herzog, Gertrude Patterson, Florence Miller, Sue Stille, Mary Thomas, Jessie Watson and Irma Whitse. Jessie Watson is the president of the fraternity. All of these women have distinguished themselves in journalistic work and are continuing to do so to a greater degree. Belonging to the chapter has helped them find a way to make good use of their knowledge and has also helped Theta Sigma Phi.

DELEGATES BACK FROM CONVENTION

Nebraska Representatives at National Y. W. C. A. Convention Return

The National Convention of Y. W. C. A., was held at Hot Springs, Arkansas, April 26-27. The Nebraska delegates, Dorothy Williams and Miss Erma Appleby returned yesterday morning with an enthusiastic recital of events.

Topics of national interest were discussed at this meeting and many promising reports made by delegates from the various fields. Co-operation with rural Y. W. C. A. units is to be the goal of the Y. W. C. A. for the coming year. In years past, a successful effort to co-ordinate with the industrial unite has been made and this movement is to be continued, although special attention will be given to the development of the rural community Y. W. C. A. A parallel movement urging girls to return to their home communities after college to their Y. W. C. A. work instead of remaining in the cities, was also initiated.

In connection with the uniting of the industrial and student organizations, was discussed the success of the plan of interchanging members. Last summer, groups of industrial workers attended summer school at Bryn Mawr while college girls did industrial work in the larger cities. Other methods employed in working out this co-ordination were classes attended by members of both units, open forum discussion, and exchange of house guests.

One very interesting report was that of the growth of the personal (Continued on Page 4)

THETA SIGMA PHI GIRL EDITOR OF PAPER

Naomi Buck, a member of Theta Sigma Phi who was in the University last year has had some very interesting experiences this year in the capacity of editor of the Harvard Courier, owned by her father, Ole Buck. Miss Buck had complete charge of the paper. She had a helper in the composing room, but she was solely responsible for the editorial, advertising and circulation departments and the general management. The paper was recently sold, and Miss Buck plans to be in school next year.

ORGANIZATIONS TO BOOST UNI OVER STATE

Students to Assemble in Rooms
Designated After Town's
Name

OBJECT IS TO PUT UNI
ACROSS IN HOME TOWN

Temporary Chairman to Take Charge of Meetings Held
Noon May 3, 4, 5

A brand new organization is now on foot in the University of Nebraska, its purpose being to bring together one student from each town in the state into one student organization, representative of Nebraska. The prime object of the organization is to "put across" the University in the home town, and discourage any rumor that may have arisen, that the University is a playground.

Chancellor Avery and members of the faculty have expressed themselves highly in favor of the organization stating that such an organization could do a great work both in the home town and in the University.

As loyal sons and daughters of the Scarlet and Cream let's rise up and boost our Mater by forming an organization to put the Scarlet and Cream across in our home towns. We want every town in Nebraska to know the high standard of the University of Nebraska and the principles for which it stands.

With the co-operation of every Nebraskan, man and woman, this organization will be the foremost in the University.

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday during the noon hour from 12 to 1 o'clock the students of certain towns are to assemble in the room designated opposite their town. On assembling the person whose last name begins with or nearest to the first letter of the alphabet, will act as the temporary chairman. The temporary chairman will take charge and after conducting the election, he will report the name of the person selected to room 201.

On Friday evening May 5, at five o'clock members will assemble in the social science auditorium for the purpose of organizing.

No senior is eligible for membership.
