SENIORS FIRST TO SUBSCRIBE TO STRUCTURE

Each Member of the Graduating Class to be Asked to Subscribe Minimum of $25

STADIUM WILL BE STARTED IN JUNE

Underclassmen Not to be Asked For Donations Until Starting of Fall Term

The University Stadium is a reality—if the seniors of the university come across according to expectations. The first campaign for funds for the new structure is being started today among the members of the graduating class and it is expected that every member will subscribe the prescribed minimum of $25 which is being asked.

For three days, fifteen captains will work to get subscriptions for the new structure. For three days seniors will be asked to subscribe toward the new stadium. And then a picked committee will be appointed to see all those who may have been missed in the first roundup at the commencement exercises. It is firmly believed that every senior will come across with the amount asked.

The subscriptions being solicited now will not conflict with those secured in the drive for funds for the memorial stadium. Students who subscribed to that structure will be asked to boost their total to $25 and in case they already have subscribed, that much they will not be asked for more.

Captains Meet Monday
A meeting of the captains, each of whom will appoint two lieutenants to assist in the work of soliciting funds, was held Monday and it was agreed that a minimum of $25 would not be too much and possibly it would not be enough. It is but a fraction of the total the university has given each student during the time he has been a resident here and it is only about as much as most any school in the country would ask as fees for one semester. It is a very reasonable amount and every senior should subscribe to it. Coach Fred T. Dawson, Guy Reed and Harold F. Holtz talked to the captains.

The subscriptions may be made in installments. The first payment will be made at the time of making the subscription and the remainder will be paid in two installments coming due September 1, 1922 and January 1, 1923.

Underclassmen will be asked for subscriptions to the new stadium when school starts next fall. The funds which the seniors subscribe now together with the money already on hand will be enough to make a good start on the structure now. The first ground will be broken in June. A celebration will probably be held at the same time. At least some of the football games next fall will probably be played on the new field, only a part of which is to be completed at the present time.

Nebraska must have a stadium if it is to compete with other schools in the country. Every large institution has already built or is building large and appropriate athletic fields and if Nebraska is to hold the high place which it now holds in the "realm of sport" it must have a new stadium within a short while. The present field is many times too small and until a new and larger field is built Nebraska cannot hope to secure bigger schools to play on the home grounds.

Big Seating Capacity
The new stadium as planned will seat 25,000 people. It will run north and south with the entrance gates on the south. It will extend from the south side of the present Nebraska field to the tracks north of the present field. It will be oval in shape and will contain a track with a 220 yard straightaway.

SUBSCRIPTION DRIVE IS WELL UNDER WAY

Pi Phi Lead List For Summer Nebraskan—Randol Is Associate Editor

The subscription drive for the summer Nebraskan has been progressing very well during the past twenty-four hours. Monday night each fraternity and sorority was canvassed. Pi Beta Phi, with twenty-one paid subscriptions and more to come, was the leader in the drive.

The Summer Nebraskan promises to be chock full of items of interest to present students and faculty. Ward Randol, editor-in-chief of the 1922 Cornhusker, is to be Associate Editor of the paper. Randol is an experienced newspaper man and is a decided addition to the staff of the paper.

The Student Activities office is handling subscriptions and students who are not approached by solicitors may pay their money at that office.

To insure the first issue of the paper being mailed to subscribers at once, as soon as names are received by the business staff of the Summer Nebraskan, they are taken to the mailing department so that address plates can be made at once and wrappers printed.

Farmers Coming Saturday For Dual Meet With Husker Track Athletes

The program of dual meets for the University of Nebraska track squad will draw to a close Saturday afternoon when Coach Schulte's Cornhusker exponents of the track sport will meet the Kansas Aggie squad on Nebraska field.

Schulte's proteges have been victorious in dual meets with Kansas and Ames and are expected to add the Kansas Farmers' scalp to their list of trophies before the week is over.

Death Of Uni Student Follows Close Upon Sudden Passing Away Of Wife

An unusual story of thrift and perseverance by two Nebraska students was brought to an untimely close recently with the death at University Place of Alvin L. Hernly, sophomore in the engineering college, just eight days after the death of his wife, Mary Ellen Hernly, who was a student at Nebraska Wesleyan.

The young couple had attracted a great deal of attention in Lincoln, due to their unique and successful methods of providing bread and butter while finishing their education. Hernly was 25 years old. He was the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hartley of University Place and he and his wife had lived there for some time. The funeral was held at the Hartley home and was conducted by Rev. J. F. Robertson of the First M. E. Church of University Place. Mr. Robertson spoke of Mr. Hernly as a fine type of American youth, worthwhile and friendly and manly. Members of the American Legion post acted as pallbearers at the funeral.

Served in Army
Alvin Hernly enlisted in the army during the World War and served at Kelly Aviation Field during the conflict. Before coming west and settling in Nebraska, he was a life guard in New York City. For some time he worked in the automobile business and then decided to com-

Hannah Kuehne Thrown to Pavement and Suffers Concussion of Brain

Hannah Kuehne, 19, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. Kuehne, 540 D street and number of the June graduating class at the University of Nebraska, was painfully injured about 9 a. m., Tuesday at Eleventh and J street, when the car driven by her father was struck at the intersection of 11th and J streets, by a Searl d Chapin company's truck driven by W. J. Colbert, of Bethany. Miss Kuehne was thrown out of the back seat of the car by the force of the collision, as the big truck hit the Kuehne automobile squarely in the middle. She landed on her head on the pavement.

The injured girl was hurried to the office of Dr. W. H. Slattery who upon examination found her to be suffering from a concussion of the brain, a severe concussion on the left side of her head, and a sprained ankle. The girl was taken to her home.

Both the truck and Kuehne car were going south on Eleventh street, according to eye witnesses. As the truck reached J street, the driver swung to go west on J street. The Kuehne car was running behind the truck and according to the truck driver, tried to pass ahead in front of the truck.

"I held out my hand," said Colbert, "but the auto came right on."

"He did not warn me that he was about to turn," Rev. Mr. Kuehne declared. "I would not have tried to pass him, if he had his hand out to indicate he was going to turn."

Miss Frieda Kuehne, sister of the injured girl was also in the car but was not hurt.

ROSENLOF SURVEYS NUCKOLLS SCHOOLS

A complete survey of the Rural schools in Nuckolls county has just been completed by Professor G. W. Rosenlof, who has been carrying on the work of Miss Lida P. Earhart since her illness last winter. There are seventy-five rural schools, attended by over seven hundred and fifty students, included in this survey. Contrary to all expectations the report showed the rural schools to be in very favorable conditions.

Rural school life is not as bad as it has been painted. The teachers are all more or less of a sincere and conscientious type, says Professor Rosenlof. The writing of the general rural student is just on the average in form with the city school student, but the rural student will surpass the city student in speed. The arithmetic test came nearest reaching a satisfactory level of any subject. Complete reports of this survey will be published before long.

SENIOR PICNIC TO BE HELD AT CRETE THURSDAY

Big Day for Upperclassmen Tomorrow—Chancellor Avery To Entertain

FINAL PLANS FOR CELEBRATION MADE

Start to be Made From Administration Hall at Eight O'clock In the Morning

Marcus (Mike) Poteet will be in immediate charge of loading the cars in front of the administration building at eight o'clock Thursday morning. Fill up the unassigned cars as full as safety will permit first with young women not accompanied by escorts, then let cars with parties provided take in an extra one, finally fill up the remaining cars with unattached young men. In case there should not be cars enough some trucks will be in reserve. These may not be as comfortable riding but will probably be the jolliest groups on the trip.

Cars will follow the L. C. D. route starting south on 14th Street, through Crete, west across the river about two miles, turning north with travel to the sign of Horky's Park.

If any are unable to get off at eight o'clock or should happen to miss transportation by auto, take the 10:55 Burlington train for Crete. There will be a car at the station there to meet any late arrivals. Place will be found for your return by auto.

The University Band through the courtesy of Burford B. Gage, has consented to grace the occasion. Mr. Gage will act as master of transportation for the band.

Autos will leave the picnic grounds on the return trip any time after 4:30 as seniors and drivers may arrange.

S. AVERY.

Tomorrow's the big day for Seniors! Every Senior—whether he received an invitation or not is expected to be at the Administration building tomorrow at 8 o'clock promptly, in readiness for the Senior Picnic at Crete.

If it should happen to rain—the picnic will be postponed to the next available date but the weatherman promised a nice day.

Baseball will be one of the chief amusements for both men and girls and all men are requested to bring as much baseball equipment as possible.

The University Band will be one of the big features of the day and one of the plans is to have the entire party go down the river boating while the band also in boats, plays popular songs.

The lunch and entertainment plans are completed and every Senior who attends is assured of a very enjoyable day.
