

WALLACE ALLEN GIVES SENIOR MUSIC RECITAL

Wallace Allen of the School of Music gave a senior recital last evening in the First Christian Church. Mr. Allen's recital consisted of numbers on the pianoforte, in which he is a pupil of Mrs. Lura Schuler Smith, and pipe organ, in which he is in the class of Mrs. Edith Burlington Ross.

The program follows:
 Rensud—Grand Choeur.
 Beethoven—Sonata, E flat.
 Allegro.
 Allegretto vivace.
 Minuetto.
 Presto con fueto.
 Boccherini—Minuet in A.
 Stebbins—At Twilight.
 Frysinger—Festival Prelude.
 Liszt—Liebestraume, A flat.
 Schumann—Whims.
 Sternberg—Poetico.
 Etude in octaves.
 Scharwenka—Concerto, B flat minor.
 Allegro patetico.

In Years Gone By.

Twenty Years Ago Today

Kansas was defeated by Nebraska in the semi-annual tennis meet. The Nebraskans proved themselves better in every branch of the game.

Eighteen Years Ago Today

Cadets went to camp in a soaking rain and were forced to make camp under the most disadvantageous circumstances.

Ten Years Ago Today

A single tax issue of the Daily Nebraskan was presented to the students in preparation for a big rally to be held the next day.

Seven Years Ago Today

Spring football was officially closed without the usual final workout, because of the inclemency of the weather at the time.

Five Years Ago Today

Dean Engberg announced that no more men could withdraw from school, as only one week remained and the emergency calls for the army were over.

TRIBUTE TO WILSON PAID BY STUDENTS

One hundred colleges and more than 5000 college students in this country and in several foreign countries, contributing for the most part in small amounts, have raised a fund of $5000 as their share of the endowment of the Woodrow Wilson award for public service, it was announced yesterday by Professor Stephen P. Duggan of the College of the City of New York.

Dr. Duggan, who is chairman of the educational committee of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, in a statement given out yesterday expressed his appreciation of what the faculties and students of the schools throughout the country have done toward the success of the movement to perpetuate the ideals of the former president.

Dr. Duggan Expresses Appreciation

"In no other quarter," he said, "has such genuine sympathy for the great achievements of Mr. Wilson been found as in the colleges. Out of the hundreds of letter sent out by the educational committee of the Foundation to the presidents or other governing officials of institutions of higher learning, only three of the replies received expressed any opinion but one of hearty cordiality to the plan to honor a great teacher who had become a great president.

"There is no doubt that among former President Wilson's warmest supporters today are the students and teachers in the schools of the nation. The amounts that those living within the walls of our educational institution have been able to contribute have not been large, but this is not the measurement of their devotion to the great cause of peace and democratic government.

"Again and again during the effort to raise a fund of $1,000,000 or more to endow the Woodrow Wilson Awards, I have seen students stand in long lines so as to give a quarter or fifty cents as their small token of appreciation of the work done for humanity by Mr. Wilson. They have left no names, they have asked no certificates designating them founders of the awards, but they have joined the silent electorate of those who give whole hearted approval to that for which Mr. Wilson strove."

VAN HEUSEN
the World's Smartest COLLAR

The VAN HEUSEN Collar is as stylish as it is soft; and as comfortable as it is correct.

Ordinary collars depend upon stiffness for their style, and upon crispness for their comfort.

The VAN HEUSEN Collar tempers its style to the shorn neck.

Ordinary collars have as little consideration for a neck's curves as a round hole has for a square peg.

"Well dressed men take off their hats to the VAN HEUSEN Collar," wrote a leading haberdasher.

But it's even more significant that they bare their necks to it.

Price fifty cents. As easy to launder as a handkerchief. Will outwear half a dozen ordinary collars.

YOU who wear the VAN HEUSEN Collar, can now get this famous collar attached to a shirt that is as superior among ordinary shirts as the VAN HEUSEN is among ordinary collars.

Price $3.00—$4.00
