Y. W. C. A. TO SERVE PUNCH TO STUDENTS

Hail all you tired exam-takers! Hail all you who are thirsty from rapid and excessive brain work! Next Wednesday afternoon the Y. W. C. A. is going to serve punch and everybody is invited to drop in quite unceremoniously and partake. You don't even have to stay and be polite, just come and cool off your fevered brain.

IVY DAY GOWNS GO ON SALE TOMORROW

Seniors Attention! The Ivy Day gowns go on sale tomorrow at 9 o'clock at Ellen Smith hall. Seniors are to come and get white gowns for the Ivy chain and the underclassmen from every house are to get the rainbow gowns necessary for the daisy chain. A $1.00 deposit must be put down but 75 cents will be refunded with the return of the gown. Under classmen are urged to come and help carry out this tradition and then just remember that it is an easy way to get to see the performance.

GRADUATION EXERCISES IN SCHOOL OF MUSIC

The University School of Music will hold its graduation exercises Friday evening, May 26, at the Temple theater. Twenty students will receive diplomas and degrees. Preceding the awarding of diplomas, Mrs. Will Owen Jones, who this year completes her twenty-fifth year as instructor on the faculty, will give a piano recital. Following the recital will be the first appearance of the A Cappella choir of sixty voices, with John Rosborough as conductor.

Amos Ginn and Story Harding motored to Nebraska City Sunday.

J. Willard Green of Omaha visited at the Delta Chi house this week end.

Mary Elder will go to Wahoo today to visit.

Another Radio Wanted Legion Honors Vet

North Bend Determined to Win Prize Given By an Omaha Paper.

NORTH BEND, (Special).—The local post has started a campaign for a radio set and will have one in the next few weeks. A Omaha paper is offering a high grade set as a subscription contest prize. So enthusiastic are the members of the post that they believe they will come out easy victors in this contest.

However, should they not be successful in getting this set, they will install a set and pay for it through various entertainments.

Ladies Give Benefit

SHELTON, (Special).—The ladies of the auxiliary gave a benefit whist party in the Legion hall on the evening of May 9. About one hundred guests were present and following the games of cards everyone spent the balance of the evening in dancing. The auxiliary will have an afternoon

FALLS CITY, (Special).—One hundred citizens including 20 Legion men of this place attended the funeral of Scott MacLeod of White Cloud. The impressive Legion ritual was used in conducting the funeral of the departed comrade. In these days of peace the sight of a military funeral gives the great solemnity of the aftermath. One more comrade who has done his duty has passed to the Great Beyond.

Elma Rodwell of Cambridge is visiting at the Alpha Omicron Pi house.

Better Printing Service For Students

With this issue of the Nebraskan, the Kline Publishing Co., finishes another year of better printing service for the students of the University of Nebraska.

Thru the co-operation of this company the Nebraskan has been delivered on the campus each morning shortly after eight o'clock for the first time in the history of the paper.

The three years this company has printed the "Rag" have been marked by improved service each semester.

Other organizations on the campus, printing college publications, have benefited from a like co-operation in the form of a service that has given them the best printing at lowest prices, and this often under limited time provisions.

Such service the Kline Publishing Co. will always render students of the university. Superior facilities to handle such work enables them to offer the most prompt and effective handling of student publications.

The Kline Publishing Company thank you for your business of the past year, and hope to be able to aid you with improved service next year.

HELLO CONNIE:

There's gonna be a farewell dance at the Lincoln next Wednesday night, May 31. Exams and everything will be over. How about us two going? It's the last chance to hear Ackerman.

Connie:

Sure! I've wanted a date for that for a week.
