

SUMMER NEBRASKAN

Published Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week by the University of Nebraska.

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice in Lincoln, Nebraska, under Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

OFFICIAL UNIVERSITY PUBLICATION Under the direction of the Student Publications Board.

Subscription rate, 50c for the summer. Single copy, 5c.

MANAGEMENT: Jack Austin, Manager; Walter Peterson, Editor; Ward Randol, Associate Editor.

REPORTERS: Volva Torrey, Laura Rooney; Ethel Herman, Wesley Tomkinson; Blanche Clemens, C. F. Bowman.

OFFICE HOURS: 3 to 4 Daily. Student Activities Office, Basement, West End Administration Building.

A MATTER OF CASH

This spring the announcements were made that several of the outstanding members of the University of Nebraska faculty will leave for other schools. Their inducement undoubtedly was a more substantial remuneration for their work.

Nebraska has some of the best professors in the country. It wants to keep these professors. But to do this it must make it worthwhile for these men to stay. It must not only pay better salaries but it must equip the school in all departments so as to induce men to stay here because of the facilities which are offered as well as because of personal reward.

It is a matter of cash. Cash for the professors and cash for the students. Better professors mean more students and better graduates. Better professors deserve more cash. Better graduates deserve more cash. Its a matter of cash all around.

Just how this matter of cash is to be settled is the problem hardest to solve. Would it be advisable to raise the incidental fees to $10 rather than $5. Would it pay to charge a $10 matriculation rather than a $5 entrance fee? The difference is not great for the individual student but when that amount is paid by some 6,000 two times a year it provides a neat sum to apply as an inducement to professors to remain at Nebraska rather than go to another school which offers a larger reward for their valuable services.

WARNING NO. 2

But a few days ago through the columns of the Summer Nebraskan, a warning was issued against skipping classes. We are now about to proceed to give a second warning but seeing that the general interest isn't for any such thing you may just resort to the last one and attend classes, regularly and faithfully.

UNMERITED HONORS

Almost every place you go in this hurry-scurrying world, you are bound to bump into the fellow who is looking for honors unmerited. He takes for his own the rewards of the work done by others and bears the title which goes with his position while the work which goes with the title is performed by another.

The tendency is present among university students as well as men of the world. There are many students who willingly use the results of a fellow student to secure a grade for themselves; there are many students who seek a long list of titles to have added to their names but allow the less sparkling, less notoriety-seeking students to do all the work connected with that title.

This kind of actions should be despised by all mankind. No man deserves to reap the rewards of another's labor. No man should be allowed to hold an office unless he is willing to do the work connected with that office. Just because he gets a "drag" from some where in the darkness is no reason why he should be allowed to retain what another deserves.

SUNDAY

Sunday has a different meaning to each of us. To the great majority of college students it is but an opportunity to catch some of that much needed commodity, sleep. To the faithful few it is the duty of church and worship. To some it is extra time for studies, and to others merely a time to relax from the routine of the week.

Sunday always brings to us memories of quiet, sunny mornings, with the church bells ringing through the hushed streets of a village. Scenes swiftly present themselves. Waiting for brother to get his hair combed or his tie tied. Impatiently craning our neck to get away from the despised stiff collar. Starting down the shady street to Sunday school with two pennies tightly clutched in our hand.

And then a big dinner. After that there was usually a long walk down the railroad track or out into the country with dad sauntering leisurely along. Those Sunday afternoon walks with him will never be forgotten. Many truths which have come to play an important part in our lives were learned on those afternoon strolls.

Such times seem a long way off. An hour at Sunday school and an afternoon's walk with dad now would be at least a distinct novelty and a real treat.—Ohio State Lantern.

STILL ROOM FOR A BASEBALL TEAM

Five Teams are Ready to Play But a Sixth is Wanted—Apply to Coach Frank

There is still room for another baseball team to be entered in the Twilight Baseball league. Five teams have already been organized but it is hoped that a sixth will appear before the starting of the schedule early next week. Any group of students who wish to organize a team should see Coach Owen Frank as early as possible and arrange for entering a nine in the league.

Any students who have no particular team with which to play but desire to be entered in the league may also apply for positions on the teams by seeing Coach Frank. The Summer Nebraskan squad has been filled to overflowing but any students who wish to play may turn in their names to the newspaper and they will be given a berth on some one of the six teams.

The Twilight League is the first attempt to provide an athletic program throughout the summer. The popularity which is being shown for the venture promises that the athletic department can safely plan to hold other contests of tennis and possibly golf.

The first games of the Twilight league schedule will be played off this week. The contests will be arranged for each team in the league and some hot battles for the championship are expected.

Probably ninety per cent of the men who are trying to reform the world would be more useful citizens if they would go to work.—Boston Shoe and Leather Reporter.

The movies are the democratic amusement of a democratic people. These people are the best judges of what is good for them. They exercise natural censorship by patronage for good pictures and boycott for bad ones. Any additional censorship is superfluous.—San Francisco Examiner.

LOST—Phi Delta Theta pin. Finder, please leave at Student Activities office. Reward.

LOST—Fountain pen, all but cap, between campus and 410 No. 13th. Emma Mishek, phone B-1166.

BUTLER DRUG CO.

Student Headquarters
We Appreciate Your Patronage

CAPP'S FOUNTAIN

Picnic Lunches

J. G. CAPP

1321 "O"

B1183

DANCING SCHOOL

Learn to Dance for $500 at the Franzmathes School of Dancing, at the Garden Academy, 1018 N St. Call or phone B-6054.

CLEARANCE SALE

IN

ALL DEPARTMENTS

We are offering the best values at the lowest prices.

See our Chic Summer Dresses were 18.75, now 14.75.

Harris Goars
1330 O STREET

GET IN THE SWIM

WOMEN'S BATHING SUITS

All wool suit in black, navy and heather mixtures. Colored band trimmings. Priced 2.95.

All wool suit in purple, green, Copenhagen, mohawk and maroon with contrasting stripe trimmings. Priced 5.00

All wool suit in attractive colors with contrasting band trimmings. Belt. Priced 8.50.

MEN'S BATHING SUITS

All wool suit with Roman stripe trimming on chest and skirt. SPECIAL VALUE 4.00.

Miller & Paine

NOW IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY to have

TOWNSEND

make your

PHOTOGRAPHS

STUDIO—226 So. 11th St.

"PRESERVE THE PRESENT FOR THE FUTURE"

Hot Weather Food That's Good

"The Place Different"

PEKIN CAFE

Served at All Hours

1130 "O"

Upstairs

Look for the Pekin Sign.