'Friendliness' was the keynote of the first Y. W. C. A. vespers held Tuesday afternoon at Ellen Smith Hall.

'Here in the University probably everyone else is as lonesome as you are,' concluded Dorothy. 'Be friendly, and in thinking of others' lonesomeness you'll forget your own.'

'I want you to remember that my office is never a closed one,' said Miss Erma Appelly, secretary of the University Y. W. C. A. 'If the door is shut, open it and let me know you are waiting. I am lonesome too, and I expect you girls to save me from it.'

Miss Appelly explained the work of the social service and Americanization committees. She advised only girls who are sure of their time and who have had experience or training along those lines to apply for such work.

PLAN TO CORRECT BAD PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT

Dawson and Dr. Clapp to Install Novel Feature in University.

Physical training for the correction of uneven or sub-normal development will be a feature of the campaign planned by Dean F. T. Dawson and Dr. Clapp.

'We have in mind the freshman particularly,' said Dr. Clapp, 'although the work is open to any man in the University.'

Nebraska is one of the few larger schools where physical training is not compulsory, and in the opinion of Dr. Clapp some system of exercises for the under-developed is necessary.

Classes will be started in about two weeks—as soon as the examination of students is finished.

BRITISH NOTABLES TO VISIT CAMPUS

Delegation Touring United States Will Arrive Here Saturday Morning.

A delegation of British notables will visit the University of Nebraska campus Saturday, on their educational tour of the United States.

The agricultural college campus is one of the main points of interest in the Lincoln visit. They will also visit the city campus, but will go over the farm campus more in detail.

To found good feeling and to prevent any misunderstanding among English speaking people everywhere, is the object of the visit of the delegation to this country.

Sixteen cities will be visited on the tour, including Omaha, Lincoln, Topeka, Kansas City and Sioux Falls.

While in Lincoln the entertainment of the delegation will be sponsored by the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce.

LETTERS ENCLOSED IN LAUNDRY BOXES BREAK POSTAL LAWS

Letter Found in Package of Student's Laundry Causes Investigation.

PARENTS IGNORE LAW

To Impose Hundred Dollar Fine on Next Culprit Who Forgets.

'I'm going to beat Uncle Sam out of some postage.' But it didn't work. Uncle Sam's gaze pierced through a University of Nebraska student's laundry box and read that innocent-sounding message to home, and therein was the beginning of a serious time.

It isn't all ignorance of the law. That's quite certain from the text of the one note made public. Dean Engberg has received complaints that several students here in this University have overstepped the traces and are sending written matter home in their laundry bags.

Either people don't know, or knowing, don't let it trouble them any, that sending any writing, letters, notebooks or anything of that nature in packages, is contrary to the law.

For the first offense of sending writing in a package the penalty is to pay full class postage. In the case of a laundry bag first-class postage would amount to four dollars, or approximately that amount.

'From College to Penitentiary,' or 'An Inside Survey of State Institutions,' might make a good topic for a theme, but perhaps an second thought students here in the University may not desire such publicity.

Why Blame Men For Being Fresmen?

Will you please tell us why the men 'freshies' of the University are the only ones who have to really suffer because they are fresh?

The agricultural college campus is one of the main points of interest in the Lincoln visit. They will also visit the city campus, but will go over the farm campus more in detail.

Now that we have decided to have green caps for freshman girls in the future it is essential that we persuade Macee's to present them as graciously as they did the little green, red-tipped thimbles that at this moment adorn the heads of Nebraska's youngest men.

Adopt New System in University Notices

A new system will be followed this year in regard to the University notices. Due to the lack of space it will be impossible to run the notices for more than two days.

CITY PLANNING WILL BE FEATURE SUBJECT

Professor Evinger Outlines Work for Coming Year—Inspection Trips Planned.

Propaganda, publicity, the education of the people to appreciate the work—constitutes one of the chief functions of the city planning department of the Conservation and Survey Division of the University of Nebraska, according to Mr. M. I. Evinger, who heads this work in addition to his duties as associate professor in the Civil Engineering department of the College of Engineering.

Basic plans for this work in Kearney, Nebraska, are now near completion. With the coming of the fall months many of the prominent citizens who have been most interested will be able to set to work in earnest and accomplish much.

'We hope to start with the larger cities and work down,' he went on, 'although, of course, smaller places are more progressive and want the same help.'

'Our work is all of an extension character,' he added. The means of obtaining proposed improvements are left entirely to the towns themselves.

As soon as classes are well started, Mr. Evinger hopes to be able to spend his Fridays and Saturdays on inspection trips and in conference with the leaders in towns interested in securing a logical municipal development through comprehensive plans for the future.

SWEZEY TELLS OF NEW EXPERIMENT IN LIGHT

Describes Visit to Mount Wilson Observatory and Tests Made There.

The Mount Wilson observatory, which is about twenty miles from Los Angeles, has the largest telescope in the world. It is of the reflecting type and has a mirror one hundred inches in diameter.

The rally is being sponsored by the innocents with the help of the Iron Sphinx sophomore society. Dean of Men Dawson, Dr. Condra, Chauncey Nelson of the Innocents and Captain Hartley will be among the speakers.

Welcome week tags will be distributed to all the freshmen at this meeting. These tags were to have been handed out at the meeting scheduled for Tuesday but conflicts forced a postponement of the meeting until Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Every fraternity should see that all of its freshmen attend the rally. The meeting is of vital importance to the new men and every newly enrolled man should attend.

The freshman convocation each year is one of the big events. The innocents have in the past conducted the rallies, but this year the Iron Sphinx are helping.
