The conditions in Germany, Miss Stellar explained, are not very favorable. Everything is very cheat and goods can be secured for almost nothing in American money. Mis-Stellar was especially interested in these foreign countries. She saw the great masterpleces of architec made several sketches of the unus ture, 3"p pture and paintings. The Passion play was one of the most wonderful spectacles witnessed and that alone was worth the trip abroad. The men and boys who participated were their hair long, and were adorned in the robes fashloned after those worn in Biblical times

A FEW FUNNY FADE-OUTS

"It's all over; there isn't any more"-is just what "doing a fade HOLDS FIRST MEETING out" means in the parlance of the man in the street. When a chap does a fade-out, it's his final curtain. This is just what happens to in a Hole: careless individuals who do not observe safety first rules. Some people think that their way is the right way and that this entitles them to the right of way. But, poor mor tals, they are often sadly disulluunforseen by these "wise guys" spring up suddenly and put them out for the count. Papers frequently en lighten their readers with little safety first warnings. They are written in semi-humorous vein but with a good underlying moral like "Acsop's Film Fables." These verses register effectively on the screen in "Topics of the Day" Films. A word or two of warning may save you from a sud-A new policy of the organization den fade-out. FORMER HUSKER WRITES ABOUT NEW STADIUM

hattan, a town one-eighth the size of Lincoln, pledged $50,000.

"You're expecting a per graduate subscription of $15. We expect our loyal graduates who have been out long enough to have taken root to contribute $100 each. Maybe they will and maybe they won't, but I believe a large number will each of them pay this amount or more. A number of our alumni, and not the rich ones either, have already pledged several hundred dollars each.

"K. U. is raising a million dollars for her combined project of memorial building and stadium. The Kansas Aggies will probably spend $400,000 before they complete their memorial stadium. Will my Alma Mater, which is Nebraska's counterpart of K. U. and Kansas Aggies combined, be content with a 20,000 capacity, $400,000 stadium? I sincerely hope not.
