Ag College Holds Mixer in Armory

Two hundred and twenty-five students attended the first Ag mixer of the year held at the armory Friday night.

After a short snappy program consisting of reading and songs by Miss Allice Brown and Miss Diller and a piano solo by Miss Louise Newby the evening was devoted to dancing.

Each year a number of mixers and parties are staged by the Ag and Home Economics clubs. These mixers are held in order to get the men and women students acquainted. This is necessitated by the wide difference in the courses of study taken by each. Chaperones for the evening were Dean Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Pearsons and Dr. L. V. Skidmore.

She was starting for the football rally at the Armory, when the car in which she was riding was struck by another car. Her condition was found to be not as serious as was at first feared.

TWO THOUSAND ATTEND RALLY

More Than Ever Before at Opening Football Rally in Armory Friday

Two thousand students, the largest number ever present at any opening football rally, yelled themselves hoarse in the Armory Friday night. Captain "Chick" Hartley, and Coach Fred Dawson were the main speakers. Fred Richards, head cheerleader for this year, along with Munroe Gleason, his first assistant, led the students in singing and cheering. Chauncey Nelson, president of innocents, presided.

After some snappy yells, the University band opened up with the "Cornhusker" and everybody stood up and sang. Hartley, the first speaker on the program, said that too much confidence was the greatest danger at this time. He said that the team would do the best it could, and even though it should be unable to win, the students should back them in every way possible. The only way the students can show their appreciation of the men is by cheering. "Another thing here," he added, "All men who are wearing sweaters or letters from high school should take them off. This only letter we want worn on this campus is the 'N', and we're mighty proud and envious of those who wear that. So all you freshmen, or any of you who are wearing these sweaters, don't wear them on the campus."

Nelson advised the freshmen to don their green gear or take the consequences. A special section for freshmen was reserved at the game Saturday and their green caps set them off.

After yells, songs and more yells, Coach Dawson took the floor. His remarks were much on the same tenor as those made by Nelson and Hartley. He said: "This team is your team and my team. It is not a paid bunch of professionals. It is taken from the warp and woof of the men of the University. You should support it as such, and support it under all conditions, win or lose. The men get out and grind themselves, through the gruelling strains of the practice not for themselves, but for the school and you. Show the proper spirit, and show these men you appreciate them by cheering."

"It has been necessary for me to have the practice of the men private, but on certain days I shall allow the student body to visit the field and see the men at work. Don't think that what you see is an exhibition; it is what the men go through every day. There were quite a few out last time I led the field, but I want you to show your spirit here too by turning out in larger numbers. And don't just sit there and watch them; it is your duty, if nothing else, to cheer those men if it only shows your respect for them. When a good play is made, cheer—give the fellows encouragement. And if you keep on turning out in such large numbers as we have here tonight along with the 'each man bring a man' idea you will be doing fine."

All the speeches were heard with interest and all were loudly applauded. About one-third of those in the audience were girls and they sat in a front section all by themselves. The balconies and seats were all filled and nearly half of those present were standing. The scaffolding which is still up for construction work was covered with students who desired to see it all. Two or three boys slipped in and caused more or less humor during the evening.

The cheers were given with a lot of vim and pep and made the old building echo and re-echo. The current remark was: "If only we can get as good cheering at the game, all will be well." On the last cheer, the loudest of all, Coach Dawson nodded his head with approval and the assembly broke up.

Night Class Roll Over One Hundred

The exact number of students enrolled in the night classes of the Arts and Science college is not yet known. The best estimate that can be made at this time places the enrollment in the neighborhood of one hundred and fifty.

Mr. Reed of the extension department wishes it made clear that these night classes are not exclusively business administration. Courses in economics, history and other subjects are also offered.

Postpone Stadium Committee Meeting

The meeting of the Stadium Committee scheduled for this morning at ten, has been postponed until seven-fifteen Monday evening. Fred T. Dawson, Dean of Men and Director of Athletics, Alumni Secretary Harold Holtz, Dr. G. E. Condra, and members of the innocents will be present Monday evening to help the organization of the committees which will take charge of the work during the week October 16 to 20.

Students who were elected to serve on the Stadium committee but were not placed on the committees of the college in which they were registered should come to the committee meeting Monday night when they will be placed on their proper college committee at that time.

STUDENT COUNCIL TO REGULATE ALL DRIVES

Campaigns of all Descriptions to be in Hands of Student Body

Complete regulation of all campus drives in the future be in the hands of the student council according to the decision of the council made at the regular meeting in Faculty hall Thursday evening. Considerable comment has been made concerning the many demands for money from the student body and this action taken by the student council will be a precaution against unnecessary drives. The action has been approved by the deans. It will be necessary hereafter for any organization before it is allowed to stage any kind of a campaign on the campus to appear before the student council at one of its regular meetings to secure authority for its campaign. The council meets at 5 o'clock in Faculty hall every Thursday. This ruling will be strictly enforced and until a drive is authorized and the council has announced its approval no student should subscribe to a drive.

A committee of the council will meet with the convocation committee in the near future to discuss the possibilities of compulsory attendance at convocation for the whole school. The council voted that it would offer its services as a body to do any work necessary to make general convocations possible. The general convocation would be of the greatest aid in promoting the school spirit, is the opinion of the council.

General convocation is an institution in most colleges and in taking this action the members of the council feel that the compulsory feature would not be a great disadvantage after the students had given the convocations a trial. The council invites expressions of opinion from the student body on this matter.

By a unanimous vote of the council the combined efforts of its members were pledged to Harold Holtz, chairman of the stadium campaign. Upon being informed of the action of the council, Mr. Holtz expressed himself as highly pleased with it, as he believed that it was a clear indication of the interest the school was showing in the coming campaign.

The council passed unanimously the resolution on student spirit which appeared in the editorial columns of Friday's paper and it urges every student to maintain at all times the spirit shown at the games.

New University Unit of Legion Auxiliary

A unit of the American Legion Auxiliary for University girls and women is to be organized at the home of Mrs. Samuel Avery, 1319 R street, Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock. Sisters and daughters of men who were in the service during the World War and who now attend the university will largely make up the membership of this unit.

Activities of this organization will include: making articles for the sick and disabled ex-service men, packing boxes of goodies for them, assisting with a canteen in Armistice Day, and similar undertakings.

The American Legion needs no introduction to University students. The state organization of its auxiliary, although only a little over one year old, already boasts of 190 units, and a membership of nearly seven thousand. The state secretary, Mrs. H. R. Ball, and the president of the local unit, Mrs. C. E. McGlasson, will assist in the details of organization and give the girls a good start, so that in a short time this will, it is hoped be one of the most prominent organizations on the campus.

Engineers Hold Big Stag Party

Four hundred men of the Engineering Colleges met in one grand stag party at the M. E. Building Friday night. The party was sponsored by the A. A. E. and came off in fine shape. Smokes, eats, and drinks were abundant. Exhibitions of fencing, boxing, and wrestling were put on by different men in the colleges. A few of the men played piddle poker. Others gathered in groups and talked of the wonders they had done in the past, and those they expected to do in the future. All the members of the faculty spoke.

The freshmen not in the M. E. college, delved around in the different rooms of the building trying to increase their meagre knowledge. Punch with a real punch made the whole meeting a joyful melody.

All the men are good and the competition promises to be keen.

The Wednesday evening party will be held in Faculty hall in the Temple. Committees made up from the reportorial staff are preparing the dinner and program of games and dancing. House reporters and members of the staff who do not regularly visit the office have been urged by those in charge of the affair to visit the Nebraska office before Monday and sign up for the party so that the committee may know just how many to expect.

UNIVERSITY Y.W.C.A. STARTS FINANCE DRIVE

Wednesday is Date Set for Opening of Campaign for Christian Association Funds

The University Y. W. C. A. will begin its finance campaign Wednesday. It is the desire of the management that no one contribute without knowing something of the purposes for which the money is used. Attention is called to the following outline of work carried on by the Y. W. C. A.

There are now twenty-five girls training for girl reserve work. They work in co-operation with the city association under the direction of Miss Marian Wymann, girls' work secretary. Work is done among the girls of the seventh and eighth grades and is a force in the community. There are fifty girls training to become camp fire guardians.

Each year the association subscribes for a number of magazines for use in Ellen Smith hall. At the end of the year, they are sent to a minister in Kentucky who distributes them in a county where there are only two college men and but one high school graduate. Last year the Sunday school papers left in St. Paul's church were collected and sent with the magazines.

The social service committee last year visited institutions in and near Lincoln and provided entertainments for the inmates on several occasions. The vesper choir sang several times at the City Mission. Twenty-five girls co-operated with the public schools in Americanization work. They taught in the night school and in the homes and did some survey work.

A rummage sale scheduled for October 13 will be among the first projects along welfare lines to be taken up this year. The purpose of it is to provide clothing for needy people at low prices. The clothing will be collected by the association. Further announcements concerning it will be made later.

Benefit Mixer for Band Huge Success

The benefit mixer in the Armory Saturday night was a success from all points of view. The band will benefit financially as a result of the large attendance.

A concert by the University band proceeded the evening's entertainment. Leo Beck's orchestra furnished the music for the dance. Captain and Mrs. Forbes, Major and Mrs. Erickson, and Professor and Mrs. Marten were the chaperones.

The members of the band will soon appear in their new uniforms, which are of the same pattern as those worn by the cadet officers of the R. O. T. C. The uniforms were not here for yesterday's game, but they are expected soon.

Beautiful Vesper Service Observed

The annual candle-lighting vespers of the Y. W. C. A. will be held Tuesday at five o'clock at Ellen Smith hall. This service is a tradition in college associations all over the country. Each old and new member is given a small candle which is lighted from a large candle as a symbol of the light of Jesus in the heart of the girl. Special music will be given by the choir. Mrs. Roy Green, a member of the advisory board and a former secretary, will speak on "Following Jesus Christ."

Miss Erma Appleby, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. requests that all girls be there promptly at five o'clock as the service must start on time.

SOUTH DAKOTA IS OUTCLASSED BY NEBRASKANS

First Touchdown Scored in Three Plays in Opening Two Minutes of Game

USE TWO COMPLETE TEAMS

Dakotans Never Threaten Cornhusker Goal—Students Show Spirit

Scoring the first touchdown within two minutes of play, the powerful 1922 Cornhusker eleven inaugurated the season auspiciously yesterday when they overwhelmed the South Dakota Coyotes by the one-sided score of 66-0. The Coyotes were unable to check the fierce offensive of the Huskers, who continually swept the ends and bucked the line for long gains. The Coyotes never seriously threatened to score, the strong Scarlet and Cream forward wall holding the Dakotans to two first downs. The Husker second team went in during the second quarter, and again in the fourth quarter.

The weather was ideal for a football game, a cold north wind keeping the players on their toes all the time. The grandstands began to fill rapidly at two o'clock, and before the game began, it was estimated there were over 5,600 people in the stands, the largest crowd that ever attended the opening game at Nebraska. When Jimmy Best veteran trainer, came on the field at 2:15, the crowd rose and gave him several cheers.

The South Dakota team trotted on the field at 2:25. The Huskers, led by Captain Hartley, and outfitted in blue jerseys, followed the Coyotes on the field.

The Nebraska team played in mid-season form, making but very few fumbles and completely outclassing the Dakotans in every department of the game. The playing of the speedy Husker backfield was little short of spectacular. Hartley played a fine game, carrying the ball for long gains, and running excellent interference. Noble skirted the ends with unflinching success and Herb DeWitz lugged the pigskin for numerous long gains. The Husker line was invincible. The South Dakota backs fumbled miserably in their attempt to pierce the Scarlet and Cream line, while, when Nebraska was on the offense (as it was practically all the time) the Husker line made huge gaps for the backs to charge thru.

Story of the game: First Quarter

South Dakota won the toss and chose to defend the west goal. Horkey kicked off fifty yards to Noble, who returned twenty-three yards to the Nebraska 43-yard line. DeWitz running from punt formation, rammed the South Dakota right end for forty-two yards. Hartley went around the South Dakota right end for fifteen yards and a touchdown. DeWitz muffed the catch on a try for a point.

Score: Nebraska 6; So. Dakota, 0. Horkey kicked off sixty yards across the Nebraska goal line. Nebraska put the ball into play on her 20-yard line. DeWitz drove off tackle for twelve yards. McFry of South Dakota recovered a Nebraska fumble on the Nebraska 33-yard line. Gold lost a yard, Quintal lost another yard and then Gold gained a yard through the line. Dabel tried a place kick from the Nebraska 41-yard line. The ball was short and Preston recovered it on the Nebraska 5-yard line. He ran thirty-three yards to the Nebraska 47-yard line. Noble rammed the South Dakota left end for fifty-three yards across the South Dakota goal, but the play was disallowed and Nebraska penalized fifteen yards. Hartley drove off tackle for six yards. He added six more yards through the line. DeWitz drove through the right side of the line for seven yards.

He fumbled the ball and Weller recovered and ran fifteen yards to the South Dakota 20-yard line. Noble ran the South Dakota right end for nineteen yards. Noble ran through the line for five yards. DeWitz smashed off tackle for three yards. Noble hit the right side of the line for three yards and a touchdown. DeWitz kicked a place kick on the try for point.

Score: Nebraska 13; So. Dakota 6. Gold kicked off fifty-five yards to Hartley who returned thirty-three yards to the Nebraska thirty-three yard line.
