

Sealock Nominated For Presidency of District Teachers

Dean W. E. Sealock of the Teachers' College, was nominated for president of the State Teachers' Association at the opening session of the association held Thursday morning in St. Paul's church. Dean Sealock was also nominated for a position on the executive committee of the association.

At the Thursday morning session, Dr. A. L. Wallquist, professor of secondary education at the University of Cincinnati, spoke on "Selling the Goods." He was followed by H. B. Wilson, superintendent of schools at Berkeley, Cal., whose subject was "Checking Up on Ourselves."

In this free and glorious country, every man has a chance to advance except the one who thinks the boss is an enemy.

TICKETS SALE OPENS FRIDAY FOR PLAYERS

faculty members should be the ones to be considered first and the Players on the other hand should receive a certain amount of first hand loyalty from the students.

In attempting to carry this idea out, the Players have hit upon this Saturday matinee with its reduced prices as a means to make it a reality. Commencing with today's sale the students will have their opportunity to register their feeling upon the subject by taking advantage of the Player's offer.

The list of plays which is being offered should cause any one who loves the best of American and English drama to want to see the plays. The Players will open their season October 26, 27 and 28 at the Temple theater with a scenic production of Bayard Veiller's great drama of mystery and love, "The Thirteenth Chair." To those who did not see the road show of this splendid bill, an excellent chance to enjoy its two hours of excitement and fun will be offered by the Players. Following this bill up with a still greater success, the play which held Broadway with its beautiful story for nearly two seasons, "East Is West," should insure capacity houses. "Turn To the Right" is the third offering of the season and nothing need be said of this show except that it is the original play by that name and is splendid. A more recent success, "Beyond the Horizon," comes next. The author is Eugene O'Neill, probably America's leading dramatist. The fifth production will be Barrie's tremendous success of 1920 season, "Dear Brutus." Too much cannot be said concerning this truly wonderful drama in Barrie's best style. The Players will close their season with a complete production of Shakespeare's "Merry Wives of Windsor." Several of the shows to be produced this season have never been seen in Lincoln before. The road shows of "East Is West" and "Beyond the Horizon" have not reached this far west and probably will not during this season. So the Players are offering the very latest plays available. The price of the season tickets is most reasonable, averaging only a little over 50 cents a performance. The matinee tickets will lower the cost to not quite 40 cents a performance.

The tickets will be on sale all next week, beginning today at the different booths, and the Players sincerely hope that the students will avail themselves of the opportunity and give them the support they rightly deserve.
