Former Instructor Returns to Nebraska From Washington Uni

Professor Spafford, who was an instructor in the Department of Rural Economics in the Agriculture College for several years has for the past two years been connected with the Department of Agriculture at Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Spafford and their two sons recently moved to Falls City where they have purchased an interest in a floral establishment. Mrs. Spafford is at present visiting with friends and relatives in this city. Mr. Spafford may come to Lincoln Saturday for a short visit.

SPEIERS FOR QUALITY

"Home Coming" Is Overcoat Time

For the Alumni as well as every University man.

The phrase is rich in suggestions, but one's Overcoat is the most obvious—one no man can escape.

Indeed, the man who wishes to eschew our Overcoats is difficult to please! We've an attractive section of Chesterfields, Clavicles, Ulsters and Ulsterettes in all the wanted fabrics and patterns.
