sities or the best normal schools of their countries. In general the Committee on Fellowships will give preference to the applicants already prepared to carry on graduate or professional study.

3. They must be at least twenty-one years of age.

4. They must have sufficient knowledge of English to enable them to understand and to profit by lectures, to use English textbooks, to take part in class discussions, and to take examinations.

5. The purpose of their study shall be preparation for some form of public service to their countries in one or more of the fellowship fields:

(a) Education, including scientific investigation, teaching, library work, etc.

(b) Social service or any field whose aim is the improvement of the social conditions in the community, or the increase of its economic efficiency.

(c) Public health and sanitation, which may include the hygiene of dependent or delinquent children or adults, or of school children; or of those engaged in the industries.

Gamma Phi Beta Social Service Fellowship.
The Gamma Phi Beta Sorority offers a Fellowship of five hundred dollars available for the year of 1923-1924 to be awarded by the Committee on Fellowships of the A. A. U. W.

This Fellowship shall be devoted to preparation for the profession of social service, and is open to women graduates of colleges of recognized rank, who have done at least one year of graduate work, including some courses in the department of social science.

It is understood that the Fellow will devote herself entirely to preparation for social service in a graduate school of recognized standing.

Boston Alumnae Fellowship.
The Boston Branch of the American Association of University Women aided by the Radcliffe Alumnae Association, the Boston Alumnae Clubs of Smith College, Bryn Mawr College, Vassar College, Wellesley College, Boston University, Mount Holyoke College, and Tufts College offers a graduate fellowship of five hundred dollars, for the purpose of stimulating scholarship among women.

The holder of this Fellowship must be a graduate of an approved college, and must have good health, excellent character, ability, and initiative. The Fellowship may, however, at the discretion of the Committee of Award, be given to an applicant who submits reports of a limited amount of investigation, provided the work is of high quality and shows exceptional promise. The award will be postponed unless the conditions are fully met. The Fellowship must be used in Europe or in America for one year of constructive work, and not merely for the purpose of general culture. Applications for the fellowship should be made to the Chairman of the Committee on Fellowships of the American Association of University Women, which is the Committee on Award.

Inquiries may be addressed either to the Chairman of this Committee, or to Dean Mina Kerr, Wheaton College, Norton, Mass.

Rose Sidgwick Memorial Fellowship.
This Fellowship of one thousand dollars has been established by Americans and the American Association of University Women in memory of Rose Sidgwick, a member of the British Educational Mission which visited the United States in 1918, and in recognition of her services to the cause of Anglo-American friendship.

The Fellowship is open to British women of graduate standing and is to be held for the purpose of graduate study in American college or universities.

The award of this Fellowship will be made by a committee of the British Federation of University Women. Further information may be obtained from Miss Theodora Bosanquet, 92 Victoria Street, London, S. W. 1, England.

A. A. U. W. International Fellowship.
The American Association of University Women offers a Fellowship of the value of one thousand dollars to enable the holder to carry on a year's research in some other country than her own during the academic year 1923-24.

Regulations.
1. The Fellowship is open to all members of Associations or Federations of University Women forming branches of the International Federation.

2. The Fellowship will be awarded by the Committee on Fellowships of the American Association of University Women, and the award will be announced about March, 1923.

3. The Fellowship will be tenable to any approved university or institution in a country other than that in which the Fellow has received her previous education or habitually resides. Candidates should ascertain in advance whether the university or institution in which they propose to carry on research can provide suitable facilities for their special subject.

4. Applications should be sent in the first instance to the Secretary of the national Association or Federation of University Women to which the candidate belongs and should be forwarded by her to the Chairman of the Committee on Fellowships of the A. A. U. W., to reach her not later than February 1, 1923. Applications from the members of the American Association of University Women should be sent directly to the Chairman of the Committee on Fellowships.

5. Each candidate shall describe a scheme of research and must submit a dissertation or published work in addition to any other evidence which she may desire to offer of her fitness to undertake the proposed research.

6. The tenure of the Fellowship shall be from July 1, 1923, and the stipend shall be paid half-yearly in advance; provided that the Fellow has forwarded a statement before the second installment is paid, satisfying the Committee that she is pursuing the research indicated in her application.

7. At the end of her tenure the Fellow shall send a report of her work, together with a statement of its value from the professor or other authority conversant with her research, to the Chairman of the Committee on Fellowships of the A. A. U. W.

8. All applications for this Fellowship must be received by the Chairman of the Committee on Fellowships of the A. A. U. W., not later than February 1, 1923.
