LUNCHEON AT 1 P. M. TODAY

Dr. McLean Entertained by Mrs. Avery Wednesday Evening

Ex-chancellor George McLean, guest of the University for two days, will speak at convocation at 11 o'clock this morning in the Temple. A large crowd of students and faculty as well as old friends of Dr. McLean from over the city is expected.

All faculty members who served under the ex-chancellor during his term here from 1895 to 1899 will be seated on the stage. The members of the Board of Regents have been invited to sit on the stage also. Prof. Paul Gromann will introduce the speaker whose topic has not been announced in advance. The University orchestra will open the program.

Other festivities for Dr. McLean today include a breakfast with Mrs. A. S. Raymond, a luncheon at 1 o'clock by Mr. and Mrs. Will Hardy and a tea at 4:30 given by Dr. F. M. Flinz. At 6:30, the Faculty Men's club will hold a dinner at the Grand hotel with Mr. McLean as guest of honor. The ex-chancellor will leave at midnight tonight for the Homecoming celebration at Iowa University of which he was chancellor after he left Nebraska twenty-three years ago.

Mrs. Samuel Avery was hostess at a reception at Ellen Smith hall Wednesday evening in honor of the former chancellor. A large number of his friends called during the evening.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. James T. Lees and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Teeters. Mrs. C. E. Bessey, Mrs. Herbert Brownell and Miss Muriel Gere assisted.

Mrs. Avery, Dr. McLean and Prof. and Mrs. E. H. Harbour were in the receiving line. The guests were invited to the dining-room by Dean Amanda Heppner, Dr. Winifred Hyde, Dr. Louise Pound, Miss Alice Howell, Miss Ellen Gere, Miss Frances Gere, Mrs. A. E. Davison and Mrs. E. A. Burnett.

During the first hour Mrs. E. W. Davis and Mrs. P. L. Hall presided at the table, and Mrs. S. H. McKelvie and Mrs. H. H. Wilson during the second hour.

Mrs. Lillian Helms Rolley sang a group of songs as the program for the reception.

Decorations in Ellen Smith hall for the reception were especially attractive. The fireplace and corners of the rooms were banked with yellow chrysanthemums and ferns and palms, while pale lavender chrysanthemums and palms and ferns were used on the landing of the stairs. Bouquets of red roses were on the tables.

Wednesday noon W. G. Langworthy Taylor entertained a group of men at luncheon at the Lincolnshire, with Dr. McLean as honor guest in the evening Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wilson gave a dinner in his honor.

Omaha Club Banquet Postponed One Week

The Omaha club dinner has been postponed to Wednesday, November 15, because of conflicting dates. Every Omaha student is expected to attend the next club dinner.

Tickets dated for this week may be used on the next affair, and other tickets may be purchased at the desk of the Grand hotel, or from any member of the committee.

Elwood to Give Third Y. M. Industrial Speech

The third of a series of industrial addresses will be given Friday, November 10, at the Grand hotel at 7 o'clock, by H. L. Elwood, president of the Carpenters Labor Union. His subject will be "The Fundamental Aim of Organized Labor."

After each address a discussion is held when everyone may ask questions.

Dear Dad:

Just a few lines to let you know that you are invited to be here for "Dad's Day" and the Kansas Aggie football game. They're both next Saturday, November 18. The fathers are to be the guests of the students and if you can arrange things so as to be here you'll honor a proud son.

A big luncheon in the Armory will keep us busy around noon, and among the speakers are Governor McKelvie, Mayor Zehrung of Lincoln, Chancellor Avery, Coach Dawson, and Captain "Chick" Hartley of the football team.

This is the first time old "U. of N." has ever honored the men's fathers, but it's going to be an annual event from now on.

Right after the luncheon we're all going to the football field to see the 1922 Cornhuskers in action. The game will be good from the start—maybe it'll decide the Valley championship,—and the athletic department has reserved one side of the field just for us.

Think this over, Dad, and if there is a possible chance of your coming down, try to be here. Just finished my mid-semester and believe I passed in all of them. Let me hear from you soon and come down to see me the eighteenth.

Your son, JOHN.

RIFLE SHOOTING RECOGNIZED AS A MINOR SPORT

Athletic Eligibility Committee Agrees to Award Letters for Team

IS POPULAR ELSEWHERE

First Match to be Held in January With Arkansas and Coe College

Rifle shooting as a minor sport has been sanctioned by the Athletic Eligibility Committee. Under the auspices of the Military Department, this sport has become more and more popular, until the University of Nebraska has now accepted it as one in which letters can be awarded. Practice begins at once, and the range is open from 8 to 12 and from 1 to 5. Saturdays the range is open mornings only.

The same eligibility rules shall apply to govern other sports in the University. Six letters shall be granted to those men taking part in at least three-fourths of the intercollegiate competitions held during the year, and having the highest average score for these competitions. The regular minor sports jersey will be presented, with the letter "N" flanked by the letters RT indicating rifle team.

Competition for places on the team promised to be very keen, as a great deal of interest is evidenced by the numerous inquiries at the range and the fact that hundreds of men are practicing regularly on the gallery range, 3d floor, Nebraska hall. All upperclassmen are allowed to practice as much as they like, ammunition being furnished by the R. O. T. C. department.

A number of intercollegiate competitions were held last year and are booked for this school year. The first will be held during the first week in January, against the University of Kansas and Coe college. Applicants to the team not already practicing, should begin work at once. The range is open on all week days from 8 to 12 a. m. and 1 to 5 p. m. On Saturday it is open for practice from 8 to 12 a. m. only.

Major Sidney Erickson, acting P. M. S. & T. of the Nebraska R. O. T. C. has been enthusiastic about shooting, which is already popular among the larger schools. The major made careful inquiries from 195 institutions as to whether or not rifle shooting was classified as a minor sport and of ninety-five of these schools, thirty-two colleges reported affirmatively and one university reported it as a major sport. Two schools stated that membership on the rifle team gave points toward honor keys. Five schools did not have facilities for rifle shooting. The replies to the questionnaire showed the following schools to classify rifle shooting as a minor sport in which letters are awarded.

Pennsylvania College, University of Michigan, West Maryland College, Missouri A. & M., University of Delaware, Rutgers College, Georgetown University, Indiana University, Iowa A. & M., Columbia University, Lafayette College, Culver Military Academy (major sport).

University of Tennessee, Boston University, University of Washington, Princeton University, University of Nevada, New York University, West Virginia University, Norwich University, University of Maryland (tentatively), Johns Hopkins University, Drexel Institute, Iowa University, Georgia School of Tech., Emory University, University of Pennsylvania, Yale University, Oklahoma A. & M., Ripon College, Syracuse University.

Prof. G. O. Virtue, who was called to Iowa on account of the death of his sister, will meet his classes today. Assistants in the department had charge of his classes during his absence and examinations will be held Friday instead of Wednesday.

HON. HARRY D. LANDIS.

H. D. Landis of Seward, president of the board of regents, who was re-elected to the Board for another term on the face of returns late last night.

Dean Heppner Demands Closer Observance of Closing Hour

Due to the laxity of student organizations in observing the rule in regard to closing dances, Miss Amanda Heppner, dean of women, wishes to warn both organizations and orchestras that music for dances must stop at 11:30. When downtown musicians are employed, the music is stopped promptly, since the union requires that a double charge shall be made for time over three hours. A fine of $25 is exacted for violation of this rule. It is in the case of student players that complaint has been made. Instances have been reported where they have played overtime simply to please their friends. Miss Heppner requests the co-operation of these individuals in enforcing the party rules.

Secondly, Miss Heppner reminds members of fraternities and sororities that the responsibility lies with them. It is their duty to see that the rules are not violated.

Criticism and complaint of this practice has been aroused on the campus and in the city. Unless the condition is remedied at once, Miss Heppner warns organizations that they will be reported to the faculty committee on student organizations, and that orchestras will be reported to the union officials.

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR DAD'S DAY

November 18 is Date Set for Entertainment for Fathers of Students

Dad's Day luncheon, with both the Kansas Aggie and Nebraska football squads present, will be at noon, Saturday, November 18. Governor McKelvie, Mayor Zehrung, Chancellor Avery, Coach Dawson and Captain "Chick" Hartley are listed among the speakers. The toastmaster will be Chaucey Nelson, president of the Innocents.

The University quartet, and the "Serenaadors" why entertain the fathers and their sons with lively music during the luncheon. The meal will last, with the toasts, until 2 o'clock when it will be time to adjourn in a body to the football field.

Dads are expected to register at the main entrance of the Armory and receive recognition badges. The Armory will be headquarters for Dad's Day. Accommodation for rooms can be arranged for when entering the building. Tickets for the game may also be secured when the Dads register.

This is Nebraska's first "Dads Day", but it is to be a strong tradition if the committee in charge realizes its hopes. Free copies of this issue of the Nebraska containing the preceding letter to "Dad" are being distributed to all University men today, with the injunction that the letter be mailed home immediately. The committee believes that a point greatly in favor of such a day is the excellent opportunity it offers for fathers to gain a better understanding of their son's college life. Similar days are celebrated by other universities, among them the University of Kansas.

The official program of the day ends, with the final whistle of the football game, but many fraternities are laying plans for the evening entertainment of their fathers. Original plans contemplated a banquet at 6 o'clock, with fraternities giving noon luncheons. It seemed more probable to the committee, however, that fathers would be better able to attend a noon gathering than one in the evening. The military carnival in the evening might have interfered somewhat with the success of a banquet, too, so plans were shifted and the evening left open.

Pastors Are to Speak At "Fellowship Feed"

Disciples club members will have a "fellowship feed" tonight at 6 o'clock at the First Christian church. The meeting will be opened with a speech from President Norman Cramb on the purpose of the club. Miss Martha Curtis will give an appreciation of Miss Harriet Bogges of Scandea, Kas.

Four pastors will greet the club members with short speeches. They are H. H. Harmon, Jack Leonard, A. J. Hollingsworth, and C. F. Stevens. J. W. Hilton, Christian student pastor will give the closing talk on "What of the Future?" Tickets may still be secured from the Reverend Hilton at his office in the Temple building at any time before 2 o'clock today.

LOCAL FIRMS PLACE FLOATS IN PARADE

Lincoln Business Houses to Place Floats in "Bizad" Day Celebration

Floats for Lincoln business houses will form an interesting feature of the parade of Business Administration students which will be held the morning of "Bizad" day. Several Lincoln business houses have already arranged to place floats in the parade and it is expected that before November 17, more than ten floats will be promised.

The parade will be the first thing in the day full of events. The procession will start from in front of the Social Science hall and will go through the main streets of the city before winding toward Antelope park for the day's entertainment.

A band will lead the parade. Cheering and singing will go on during the entire march of the paraders. Horns and whistles will be supplied to the "Bizad" paraders by the committee. Last year the parade formed one of the principal features of the entire program for the day.

"Bizad" day this year is to be bigger than last year, when the first annual celebration for the college was held. The College of Business Administration is one of the youngest colleges in the University and the spirit which has grown among the students of that college is second to none.

Other events for the day will be a picnic lunch at the park at noon, races, games and contests during the morning and early afternoon, a football game in the afternoon and a big dance in the evening.

Partial Returns Show Landis Re-elected and Perkins of Fremont Leading

RETURNS ARE INCOMPLETE

Former President of Board Carries Ten Out of Eleven Counties Reported

Harry D. Landis of Seward has a 5,000 majority over his opponent, Frank Edgerton in the contest for the Regency, according to late returns. The race between Frank S. Perkins and William P. Warner is very close, with Perkins holding a slight lead.

Hon. Harry D. Landis of Seward and Frank S. Perkins of Fremont appear to have been elected to the Board of Regents of the University according to returns tabulated last night. Complete reports should be received today.

Mr. Landis, present president of the Board, seems to have carried ten out of the eleven counties of the Fourth congressional district in which he was running, only Hamilton county going to his opponent, Hamilton county is the home of Frank Edgerton of Aurora, who opposed Mr. Landis in the election. The pre-election campaigning in the Fourth district was hot and especial significance is seen in the re-election of Regent Landis. The result is taken as an endorsement of the present administration.

Returns on the election in the third district were slow in coming but a result in forty-one precincts out of 354 showed the following:

Perkins, 4,638.
Warner, 3,623.
Reports on the race between Landis and Edgerton showed as follows Wednesday night:

Polk, 6 of 9 precincts, Landis 690 in lead.

Jefferson, partial, Landis 2,046, Edgerton 1,622.

Gage, partial, Landis 3,000, Edgerton 2,000.

Fillmore, partial, Landis 1,985, Edgerton 1,515.

Seward, three to one for Landis.

Thayer, two to one for Landis, Hamilton, majority of 1,200 for Edgerton.

Saunders and Saline counties not reported.

Chancellor Avery is in Baltimore and did not comment before he left on the election. He will be back Monday.

University people were interested in the apparent re-election of Matzen as state superintendent of public instruction.

Charles W. Bryan, newly elected governor, has not expressed his attitude toward University appropriations for the next bi-ennium. He will have a big part to play in the recommendations to the legislature. The completion of the next legislative session has not been definitely determined. University legislation can be given.

Many University alumni were successful in their campaigns for election state and county offices. Results of these contests will be compiled as soon as possible.

Laws Accept "Bizad" Challenge to Inter-College Grid Battle

The Laws, in the following letter, accept the "Bizad" challenge for the football game to be played November 17.

"The Law College acknowledges receipt of an anonymous challenge to play football, which challenge is purported to come from the College of Business Administration. Assuming that 'Bizads' are not thought to have the same regard for signatures and expressions of authority as we in the Law College, the challenge is accepted as it is and the following committee is ready to meet the 'Bizad' committee to arrange details and rules.

THOMAS LUBY,
MALCOLM SMITH,
IRA McDONALD."
