CORNHUSKERS PREPARE FOR AGGIE GAME

Jayhawk Farmers Are Expected to Spring a Dangerous Aerial Attack on Huskers

MISSOURI COACH RESIGNS
Tom Kelly is Dismissed as a Result of Poor Showing of Tigers This Year

Coach Dawson sent his proteges through a stiff scrimmage yesterday afternoon on the Dirl Field north of Social Science in preparation for the Dad's Day contest with the Kansas Aggies, who will invade the Husker Camp this season for the first time in six years. The Jayhawk Farmers have been perfecting a dangerous aerial attack, upon which they will rely in Saturday's fray, and advance indications are that the Kansas team will furnish the stiffest competition that the Scarlet and Cream eleven has bucked up against this year.

Minus the services of assistant Coach Swanson and Right End Sherer, both of whom are on the hospital list, the Huskers went through a long workout last night which did not finish until it was too dark to see the leather. Thomsen and McAllister were working in Sherer's place at end, and it appears from the performance of these two, that this position will be well taken care of Saturday.

The Aggie camp seems to be all optimism this week, in spite of the fact that they will go up against the Husker "wonder" team on Saturday. It may be that Charley Bachmann, Aggie coach and former Notre Dame star, has a bag of tricks up his sleeve which he plans on springing on the Husker eleven. The Aggie mentor is a smart football coach, and he has a dozen veterans on the team, so it may be possible that the Jayhawk Ag battle will be far from the lead pipe cinch that some Husker fans think it will be.

Kelly Quits at Missouri.
It was announced yesterday at Missouri that Head Coach Kelly of the Missouri grid team had resigned, and that Chuck Lewis, former captain, Henry Gharrit, assistant coach, and Z. G. Clevenger, director of athletics, were in charge of the Tiger football squad. No reasons for Kelly's resignation were given out.

The resignation of Coach Kelly is believed to be a direct result of the overwhelming defeat handed to the Missouri Bengals by the Cornhusker machine four weeks ago. This contest, or rather track meet, which the Cornhuskers won by a 48 to 0 score, brought out the fact that the Tiger team was completely lacking when coaching was considered. The exhibition of the Tiger team in that game was pitiful, the Missourians being completely outclassed in every phase of the gridiron classic.

The Missouri school seems to be having a hard time to obtain a good football coach since Henry Schulte came to Nebraska four years ago. Friction in the Tiger camp was reported last year also.

The little boy in the fourth row will now tell us what great changes have been effected since Bonar Law took the reins.

No Football Rally Planned This Week

No football rally will be held this week on account of the fact that all efforts are being concentrated on the first annual Dads' Day to be held Saturday in connection with the Aggie game.

Although no home game has been played for about three weeks, the committee in charge of rallies thought that a big Dads' Day luncheon and delegation to the game would boost Nebraska more than a Friday night rally. Already students are looking forward to the big annual torchlight parade and rally to be held on the night before the Thanksgiving game with Notre Dame.

Argentine Professor Speaks at Dartmouth

Dr. Alejandro E. Bunge, professor of Commerce and Statistics at the National University of Buenos Aires, will address the college on conditions in the Argentine Republic. Dr. Bunge will speak on "Argentine Economic Development." The talks will be delivered in English and are open to the general public.

These lectures have been arranged through the co-operation of the Pan-American Union, which has secured Dr. Bunge to speak in representative colleges and universities of the United States. Dr. Bunge's talks offer an opportunity to secure information about the conditions prevailing in modern Argentina.—The Dartmouth.

Three Syracuse Players Suspended

Three Syracuse University men were suspended today from further participation in athletics until they have a hearing on charges that they played in Utica November 5 in the game between the Knights of Columbus team and the Y. M. C. A. eleven, both semi-pro combinations.

The three are Roy Martineau, who is a member of the varsity football squad; Fritz Foster, crack shot putter, and Dave Wolper, varsity baseball man.—Star.

Many Alumni Attend Badger Homecoming

Thousands of Badger alumni and students took part in the annual Homecoming of the University of Wisconsin, held last Saturday on the occasion of the Wisconsin-Illinois football game.

Weeks of preparation by the Homecoming committee made one of the biggest Homecoming celebrations ever at Wisconsin. At a "pep" meeting on Friday night in the gymnasium, several professors and members of the team talked to the students and alumni. Later, a bonfire on the lower campus was followed by a five-act vaudeville carnival.

A "Hobo" parade on Saturday morning had a large number of entrants, and a "long beard" contest was a novel feature. An innovation this year was a gathering place in Music hall, to take the place of registration booths.

Decorations of stores, rooming houses, fraternities, and sororities, and thousands of small pennants hung across State street and around the capitol square, gave a "big welcome" to the returning "old grads."

Seven thousand 56-page Homecoming programs combined with the regular issue of the Athletic Review, contained pictures, features, information on various events and the Wisconsin line-up—University of Wisconsin Press Bulletin.

NOTRE DAME FIGHTS HARD AGAINST ODDS

Handicapped This Year by Loss of Good Men But Coach Rockne Keeps on Building

Coach Knute Rockne, of Notre Dame, is one of the dramatic figures of the present football season. After producing great teams at Notre Dame during his four years as head coach—teams which lost but two games in four years and which won three consecutive games from West Point, Nebraska, Indiana and Purdue, when the present season began, Rockne found himself shorn entirely of the masters of the game who made history in 1921. Ten men of that team had been picked for all-American by some expert or other. Paul Castner, who broke into a 50-50 division of the right half position as the season closed, was the only regular who remained.

In the meantime, Rockne, who is also director of athletics, track coach and almost every other thing there is in Notre Dame athletics, had scheduled Georgia Tech, Army, Nebraska, Carnegie Tech, Purdue and Indiana for major games. DePauw and Butler were carded as soft spots. St. Louis and Kazoo as set-ups.

Kazoo acted nobly but St. Louis refused to be walked on. Then DePauw tied Indiana and Butler beat Illinois. Carnegie Tech tied and outplayed W. & J. And beginning with Purdue, Rockne faced eight hard games in a row—faced them with a team composed mostly of sophomores. And during the Purdue game he lost his most valuable lineman for the season—Tom Lieb—who went down with a broken leg.

Did Rockne quit? It was then that the wonderful personality which more than any other factor results in Notre Dame's greatness in football, began to fight. He told his men that he would be hard to satisfy from then on. That they must make up for lack of weight and lack of experience by something else — the something else which had given Notre Dame team the title of Fighting Irish.

"I don't want men who will go in and die gamely," he said. "I want men who will go in there and fight to live."—Wallace in Notre Dame Scholastic.

Nebraska Hens Win Egg-Laying Contest

The extension service of the College of Agriculture conducted an egg-laying contest during the year closing October 31, in which sixty Nebraska hens led the field. These sixty hens will be placed on the national Record of Performance roll of honor. Ohio and Michigan, with eight hens each, tied for second place on the roll. Wyoming and Missouri each had one bird meeting the requirement record of 200 or more eggs a year. Seventy-eight hens were placed, altogether, on the national honor roll.

By breeds, the seventy-eight hens making the grade were: Single-Comb White LeGhorns, 49; Single-Comb Rhode Island Reds, 9; Barred Rocks, Rose-Comb Brown LeGhorns and White Rocks, 4 each; Buff Orpingtons and White Orpingtons, 3 each; Single Comb Dark Brown LeGhorns and White Wyandottes, 1 each.

Seventy-five Attend Soccer Girls "Feed"

The juniors, class soccer champions, were the guests of honor at a "feed" given by the seniors, sophomores and freshmen girls in the Armory Wednesday night. Every girl who had played soccer once was invited. Seventy were present and became acquainted with sixty-nine others.

After dinner the girls danced to good music, provided by Ella Neurenberger, saxophone; Helen Kennedy, piano.

Delians to Conduct Carnival at Meeting

The Delians are making plans for an elaborate carnival as entertainment for their open meeting to be held Friday, November 17, in Faculty Hall. There is no fee of admission. Dolls, dancing girls, confetti and other essentials of a real carnival will be featured. A fish pond promises to be the largest attraction. An article which may be used as a fish will be exacted from each fisher in payment of his hunting license. Opportunity is thus offered for visitors to rid themselves of "junk," but lacking such material, purchases from the
