CAGE MEN ARE PREPARING FOR KANSAS GAME

Coach Frank Putting Husker Loop Artists Through Daily Workout for Initial Game

MEN STAY HERE HOLIDAYS

Bright Prospects for Winning Team—Freshman Practice Starts After Vacation

Basketball Coach Owen Frank is putting his cagers through a series of strenuous workouts in preparation for the first game of the season, the Kansas U. fray at Lawrence, which is scheduled for January 5. The candidates for the Varsity team have been divided into two squads, which work out at different periods every day. Handling the ball, dribbling, passing the ball, and teamwork are being stressed in the workouts, while basket shooting is receiving a large share of the time.

Letter men who are out for the team this year include Captain Warren, Adam Kohl, "Spec" Carmen, baseball captain; Riddlesberger, and Paul Tipton. The men who were on the team last year who are not out this year are Austin Smith, last year's captain, Munger, guard; Toft, guard, all of whom have graduated. Russell, two-year letter man, is not out for the team this year.

Coach Frank is fortunate in having a wealth of first-class material for the team this year. Besides the five veterans from last year's team, there are a score or more of sterling cage artists of last year's freshmen team competing for places on the team. The freshmen practice this year will not start until after the Christmas vacation.

Coach Frank has been trying out a number of combinations in the daily workouts. The combination which includes Captain Warren at center, Carmen and Tipton or Kohl at forwards, and Riddlesberger and Scott at guards has been going strong in the practices. Klepser and Goodson, outstanding candidates for the team, will not be eligible until the second semester. The twenty-odd cage men who are on the first squad will stay in Lincoln during the holidays and practice in order to be in excellent form for the Jayhawk game on the 5th of next month.

Paddock Declines Indoor Meet Bid

New York, Dec. 18.—Charles W. Paddock, world's champion sprinter, has declined, with thanks, the invitation of the Millrose A. A. to compete in the annual indoor games of the organization. Unfamiliarity with indoor running is given as the reason.

"I hope to come east and run again, but it will not be on the boards," Paddock wrote in declining the invitation.

"On a 300-yard curve track I would no doubt give another circus performance similar to that of 1920, for I know no more of indoor running than I did that night."

Nebraska Graduate Congratulates 1923 Husker Gridiron Men

Dr. Richard Boerker, Ph.D., '15, in a recent letter to Dr. R. J. Pool, of the Botany department, has added the following postscript: "Hats off to the Nebraska football team, no doubt one of the best in the country. Mrs. Boerker and I have followed the work of the team eagerly all season."

Dr. Boerker received his doctor's degree in Botany at the University of Nebraska in 1915. Since then he has been forester for the New York City park commission and forester in connection with other prominent organizations near New York. He has recently published a popular book, "Our National Forests," describing the work of the United States forest service.

JUNIOR GIRLS WIN HOCKEY TOURNAMENT

Defeat Senior Girls in Finals of Inter-class Games in Exciting Contest

The junior girls won the annual interclass hockey tournament last Friday afternoon by defeating the seniors, 1-0. Two extra quarters had to be played because the teams were so evenly matched. Marie Snavely made the winning score in the second extra playing period. The backfield of both teams starred in defense.

Time of quarters—seven minutes. Referee—Miss Marian Baldwin. Time-keeper—Eleanor Snell.

The juniors also won the soccer tourney earlier in the fall.

DR. NELSON TO BE GUEST AT BANQUET

All Dental Students Will Honor Acting Dean Who Leaves After the First of Year

A farewell banquet for all Dental students and faculty will be held Wednesday, December 20 in honor of acting Dean Nelson. Mr. Nelson is leaving the school the first of the year. It is expected that practically the entire Dental School will attend and plates will be set for more than a hundred. Dean Engberg will act as toastmaster.

The students desire particularly to give Mr. Nelson a big send-off. He has done a great deal for the Dental Students Association. It was through his efforts that the Association has been able to function so successfully this semester.

Santa Claus Visits Kindergarten Club Thursday Evening

Santa Claus made his first annual visit of the year at the party given Thursday in Teachers College by the girls of the Kindergarten club for thirty children from the Tabitha Home. Games, a story, and a solo furnished the other entertainment, and the gifts brought by Santa Claus shared honors in popularity with the cookies and sticks of candy passed out by the girls of the hostess society.

Kindergarten club, which is an organization of the girls in that department, each year entertains some poor children who might not otherwise have any celebration. The committee for this year's party was: Helen Huffman, Ruth McFadden, Gladys Wiggins, and Helen Farnsby.

Condemn Unengaged To Chills of Winter

"Now isn't that a mess? Why, it's perfectly cool. And that won't be half of it either, we figger. For the worst of winter ris just commencing to start and how in the name of the Red Flannels are the 'fairrest of the fair' to keep themselves fair and warmer if the young Lotharios aren't allowed to donate? Here's the cause of the wailing and chattering of teeth:

"No one shall wear the Bethany College athletic service sweater excepting those who have won the letter and the stripe, and their wives. The wearing of the sweater by a woman, who, if not the wife of an athlete, shall be considered a public announcement of her engagement to the owner of the sweater."

HIGH SCHOOL HOOP TEAMS START PLAY

Number of Teams Get Into Action Early—Few Games During Holidays

The Nebraska high schools that played this week and sent in their scores follow:

- At St. Paul—St. Paul, 23; Central City, 16.
- At Diller—Diller, 10; Steele City, 7.
- At Pilger—Carroll, 26; Pilger, 13.
- At Ewing—Ewing, 27; Stuart, 17.
- At Butte—Butte, 37; Paper, 14.
- At Osmond—Wausa, 49; Osmond, 17.
- At Chambers—Atkinson, 36; Chambers, 9.
- At Lyons—Lyons, 22; West Point, 9.
- At Otoe—Otoe, 11; Dunbar, 5.
- At Guide Rock—Guide Rock, 6; Chester, 4.
- At DeWitt—DeWitt, 43; Clatonia, 12.

Nebraska high schools got under way this week for the first of the inter-scholastic basketball games. Some of the teams are reserving their energy until after the holidays when they will officially cut loose for the season. Lincoln, North Platte, Lexington, Scottsbluff, Alliance, Ravenna and many of the other teams are planning on playing some games during the holidays.

High schools throughout the state are paying more and more attention to basketball. Each winter better teams are put out and more interest is shown in the sport. Most of the teams plan on trying for a successful season and then sending a squad to the Mecca of basketball teams at the University of Nebraska in the spring.

"Women Are Best at Newspaper Work"—Denver Journalist

"Women are more important than men in the journalistic world," says Helen Black, dramatic critic and feature writer for the Rocky Mountain News and the Denver Times. When upon Miss Black supports her statement by saying that woman's tactful and sympathetic manner gives her the advantage over man in securing and writing up news.

She added that there is a great field open to women of talent and ability in that work. "Most managing editors choose the very best for their feminine reporters. Very, very seldom does a girl have a disagreeable 'run' to cover. Her work is of the social type, such as society notes, dramatic criticism and feature articles and interviews. However, if a girl is given a disagreeable 'run' to cover, it is because the editor has great confidence in her ability to get what he wants, where probably no man could."

The essential qualities of a good reporter according to Miss Black, are:

1. The news-sense—either inherent

2. The ability to reach people.
3. Sympathy.
4. Tact.

Then Miss Black told of interviews and feature articles in particular since that is the type of work in which she is most interested. However, she has had experience in all kinds of reporting, for she started at the very bottom five years ago.

"There are several kinds of interviews," she went on to say; "those people who like to be or are accustomed to be interviewed and with whom the editor makes an appointment for you. Then there are those who absolutely refuse to see you, or again the type of person who wears a mask. By that I mean the very boastful person. Thus you can early understand what I mean when I say a reporter must read people so that the real true character of the person can be drawn out during the call. My far the best interview is the one that is like an informal call. Above all, assume a sympathetic attitude and never, never use a notebook or pencil, for the minute one sees that you intend to quote him word for word he seems to close up, as it were, and become frigid, strained and unnatural throughout the interview. The reporter must know what to say to lead the person to give his opinions.

"Many theatrical people are so used to being interviewed that they have a set form ready to dictate as soon as reporter appears. Such people must be caught off their guard before they present their true personalities to the reporter."
