Final Tryouts Will Be Held Saturday—Captain Kawkins Unlikely to Return to

One hundred Cornhusker tracksters competed in the first regular tryout for the 1923 track team, which will inaugurate the season at the Kansas City Athletic Club indoor meet next Friday and Saturday, February 16 and 17. Competition was conducted in practically all the running events, and Coach Schulte seemed to be satisfied with the results of the tryouts. Final tryouts for the Kansas City meet will be held Saturday.

Captain Chick Hatley of the football team reported for practice for the first time this season, and worked out with the 16-pound shot and the javelin. Hatley was out for some time last year, and is expected to make his letter this year. Henry Bassett, another gridster, is developing skill in throwing the shot.

Several heats were run off in the half-mile. Mud Gardner made the best time in this event, running the 880 yards in 2:10. John Haskell was close on his heels, finishing in 2:12. Diers, Higgins, Cohen, and Wier also ran the half-mile.

Three sophomores, McAllister, Landers, and Didock, are showing up well in the quarter. These athletes have unusual ability in this event, and should develop before the season is well under way. Red Layton, who was expected to retain his place on the mile relay team this year, has not yet reported for practice. Captain Hawkins, another quarter-miler, has not yet returned to school.

Monroe Gleason, sophomore, is looking good in the pole vault. This former Omaha Central athlete demonstrates real class in this event, and clears the cross-bar at ten feet with ease. Putman and Fraiser are other pole-vaulters competing for berths on the team.

Among the sprinters available for the team this year are Noble, letterman; Lloyd, Beatrice flash; Lukens, Gibbs, Baldwin and Trexler. From these men Coach Schulte has the task of developing a dash man to take the place of Ed Smith, captain of the 1922 track team. Whipperman, Simmons, and Hein are freshman sprinters, who have reported for practice.

Nebraska will meet the Kansas Aggies in a swimming meet at Manhattan, February 27. Some difficulty has been experienced by the Nebraska management in scheduling a match for only two other conference schools have swimming teams this year. Washington University is the only other school beside Nebraska and the Aggies that has a swimming team. The Aggie team is under the instruction of Coach E. A. Booth, who will have two star members of last year's team to work with, as well as a wealth of new material. Captain Colburn and Mackay scored 28 of the 32 points made against Nebraska last year. Included in the new material is Frank Ditts, who is probably the best back stroke in the middle west.

The Nebraska team is coached by Frank Aitkens and consists of Phillips, captain of last year's team, Graebing, who is this year's captain and Sid Hartman. Much new material is in sight, but the call for material is still out. The team practices at the Y. M. C. A. pool.

HUSKERS FALL BACK INTO SIXTH POSITION

Kansas Still Leading Basket
Team in Missouri Valley Conference Standings.

Nebraska slid back into sixth place this week in the Missouri Valley conference, allowing Ames to forge ahead after the Husker defeat by Grinnell and Ames, last week-end. Ames not only defeated Nebraska, but took the proud Drake Bulldogs to a cleaning. Washington, playing in the fourth position, pressed the fast Missouri team throughout their game and narrowly missed taking the game home. Oklahoma, next opponent of the Huskers, held the crack Missouri and Kansas teams to small margins, indicating that Nebraska will run against stiff opposition in the Friday game with the Sooners.

The conference standing at present shows:

Teams—	G.	W.	L.	Pct.
Kansas	9	9	0	1000
Kissouri	9	8	1	.889
Drake	7	4	3	.571
Washington	6	3	3	.500
Ames	8	4	4	.500
Nebraska	10	4	6	.400
Grinnell	6	1	5	.167
Oklahoma	7	1	6	.143
Kansas Aggies	6	0	6	.000

Bad luck stalked into the Husker camp last week and seems reluctant to leave. With six men on the sick list, the Nebraska cagers met with further misfortune last week by losing Tipton as the result of a broken arm sustained in the Grinnell game. This next Friday Nebraska will be handicapped with absence of Captain "Slim" Warren, who has been in bed with a severe cold since the Ames game.

The Nebraska squad will leave Lincoln Thursday noon and play Oklahoma Friday evening, February 9. Coach Frank will take eight men on the southern jaunt. Earlier this season the team from Norman met the Huskers on the Lincoln floor and went home disappointed.

With the added handicap of a big sick list, the Nebraska cagers can expect a real tussle, for the Sooner stock took a rise when they held Kansas to a 27 to 21 score last week. While the Huskers are only playing one game on the trip, Oklahoma will meet Ames Saturday.

Girls at Luncheon

A luncheon for all junior girls will be given by the Silver Serpents, honorary junior girls' organization, Saturday noon, February 10, from 1 to 3. Luncheon is free and is given in order that members of the junior class may know each other better. All girls registered as juniors in the University are invited.

The luncheon is a tradition of the Silver Serpents and this year, they plan to make it a larger affair than before, according to the committee in charge.

A three course luncheon will be served and toasts will be given during the luncheon. Miss Emily Ross is in charge of the arrangements. Dancing will occupy the remainder of the afternoon.
