FORTY MEN ANSWER COACH PIZER'S CALL

Many Diamond Players of Ability Turn Out for Freshman Baseball Practice.

About forty men so far have answered the call of Coach Joe Pizer and have turned out for freshman baseball practice. Others are expected so that the fifty mark will be reached before the close of the week.

Unusually strong material has turned out for the pitching staff of the first-year men. Among those who show well-grounded aspirations to toss the apple are E. A. Raun, Ed. Asche, C. G. Hillyer, B. Lang and Zan Lewis. Asche has a style all of his own in serving that get a number of batters fanning the air.

Competition is also strong for the other positions. Healey at outfield, Pickett at first base, Bagley at short stop, and Griffiths and Extrom at first, are all strong contenders for possible positions on the Varsity next year. E. Lang, Hill and Ely are candidates for the receiving end of the battery.

During the first two days the practice has been mainly confined to batting varied with base-running and fielding. No practice will be held Friday evening on account of the Regimental review of the R. O. T. C. A practice game between the freshmen and Husker team is being arranged for Saturday at which time the first-year men will have their first opportunity to test their strength.

Later on Coach Pizer plans to arrange several minor games with his proteges against teams in and around Lincoln.

Men who have turned out for practice so far include: Ed Asche, pitcher; Ed Harney, outfield; W. E. Hay, centerfield; C. A. Schneider, third base; E. Reynolds, centerfield; L. Green, second base; J. C. Weerline, first base; Zan Lewis, pitcher; A. Loder, first base; N. H. Barber, second or left field; Paul Redgwick, infield, second or short; Ralph Gross, second or third; E. A. Andre, outfield; F. Extrom, first; J. L. Raymond, outfield; Otto Vrbski, outfield; O. Johnson, outfield or catch; C. G. Hillyer, pitcher; C. B. Innes, outfield; E. A. Raun, pitcher; H. M. Griffiths, first; B. Bronson, first; B. Lang, pitcher; E. Lang, catcher; B. Pickett, first base; C. A. Millinger, shortstop; Jack McCreary, first or outfield; Forrest Reynolds, outfield; R. J. W. Ely, catcher.

CALIFORNIA ATHLETES READY FOR NEBRASKA

Bruin Tracksters Show Strength in Field Events—Have Well-balanced Team.

By IRWIN M. FULOP, '25. (Special to The Nebraskan). Berkeley, April 5.—Every day in every way California's Varsity track team is improving and when the Bruins line up against the Cornhuskers Saturday on California Oval, they will be at the zenith of the 1923 career.

Twice the Bruins proved the superiority over the Trojans of the University of Southern California. The last meet which took place last Saturday proved to be a decisive win, the score being 81-50.

The strength of Walter Christie's track team lies in the second and third place men and not in a group of stars. The team is a well balanced aggregation and can hold their own against any cinderpath squad in the country.

In the sprints George Shephard, Farusworth and Carw are able to negotiate the century for a consistent ten flat. Shephard in the 220 is to be feared as the longer sprint finds the Bruin star mor capable.

The distance events are well handled by Mulvaney and Fiske in the mile, Bauman, Pierce and Moore in the half and Jensen, Caulkins and Jessup in the two mile. Although none of these men are phenomenal runners, they are at least consistent and have carried the Blue and Gold to the front in a goodly number of meets.

The California weight men are the strongest cog in a well oiled machine. Captain Brick Muller in the javelin, broad jump and high jump can be figured on for 10 points. He is capable of six feet or better in the high jump and does a little better than 22 in the broad jump. Bill Neufeldt who is filling the shoes of Jack Merchant is the find of the season. Bill has won the discus and javelin in both U. S. C. meets and figures in the shot.

Sandy Sorrenti hurled the spear 196 feet 8 inches in a practice throw against U. S. C. and when he is in his prime should be able to repeat his performances of last year over 200 feet. Jack Witer has reached the 46 feet mark in the shot put and can figure against the best. He is assisted in this event by Lang and Mathews.

The one weak spot in California's team is the quarter mile. With the graduation of Oxy Hendrison, intercollegiate champion in '21 and Harry McDonald, Coach Christie was forced to make 440 men out of sprinters and milers. However Jack Blemma and Cliff Goertz are negotiating the distance in 52 or 53 and should by the end of the week clip off at least a second. Saxby who is used in the relay is a 50 flat man consistently.

Paul Boren is the class of the coast in the broad jump. His efforts have been surpassed by none in the last two years. The Bruin star can go over 23 feet. Troyer jumped 23 feet in the Stanford meet last year. Red Norris, intercollegiate pole vault champion, does around 13 feet when he is in condition but he has been off form the last few weeks and has barely cleared the pole at 12 feet.

In the hurdles Becker and Neff are usually among those who figure and will no doubt place in both stick events next Saturday. Muggs Van Sant who is the stellar Bruin hurdler is on the invalid list and will probably be kept out of action.
