Your Vote Today.

Be Sure to Cast Your Vote Today.

VOL. XXIII-NO. 16

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1923.

PRICE 5 CENTS

ELECTION POLLS OPEN TODAY FOR SELECTION OF CLASS PRESIDENTS

Eleven Candidates Have Filed for Positions Heading Classes; Only One Seeks Head of Senior Class. Co-eds File in Each Voting Begins at 9 a. m. and Closes at 4 p. m. Agriculof Lower Classes.

CITY CAMPUS BOOTHS IN OLD NEBRASKAN OFFICE

tural College Students Must Vote on Own Campus; Booths in Dean Burnett's Office.

Location of Polls

Polls are open from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Booths are located on the city campus in the old Daily

Nebraskan office in the southwest corner of the basement of the Administration building, and on the Agricultural college campus in Dean Burnett's office. Only those registered in the Agricultural col-

all others must vote at the city campus booth. All voters must

FOR GAME SATURDAY

-Work on Playing Field

Finished.

Seats for at least 12,000 will be under the tower sections will not be game. The cinder track is also nearly finished. The ticket stands are trances will not be complete so the

All grading necessary in order

Cornhusker Luncheon

Set for October 20

The annual Girl's Cornhusker to accomodate the great number that

Prior to this year, no place in Lincoln was big enough to hold the crowd that wanted to reserve plates

The party is the annual get-together for all Cornhusker women. They ally make an effort to outdo the

At Oklahoma Contest

man, baritone; Dietrich Dirks, bass.

Fire slightly damaged a Stearns-

Knight automobile belonging to Ruth

North last Friday about 11 o'clock.

Defective wiring is thought to have caused the fire which was immedi-

Buy a student ticket-sit with the

Quartets Will Sing

will attend.

for the luncheon.

their class ballot.

LIST OF CANDIDATES. Senior President. H. Stephen King. Junior President. Dorothy M. Brown. Harold Edgerton John E. Kleven.

Philip M. Lewis. Sophomore President. Wendell Brown. Frances McChesney. Jacob Schultz. Marion L. Woodard. Freshman President. Jere Michel. Mary Walton.

The student elections for the class presidents will start this morning, with eleven nominees in the four

Only one student was nominated for the presidency of the senior PREPARING STADIUM class, while there were four nominated in both the junior and sophomore classes. Two have been nominated to lead the freshman class.

The polls will open at 9 a. m. and close at 4 p. m. Booths on the city Seats for 12,000 Will Be Ready campus have been erected in the southwest basement rooms of the Administration building, formerly occupied by the Daily Nebraskan. The students in the Agricultural College ready for Saturday's game in the must vote only at their own booth new stadium. The tower and end which is located in Dean Burnett's sections also the sections immediately

Considerable more interest has ready. All the cement work is exbeen shows this year in the class pected to be finished by October 30, elections than last year. Possibly however. the most contested race will be for The field itself is ready for the the junior class presidency, it

Votes for the selection of the hon- under construction and will be ready orary colonel for the University R.O. for the game. The two main en-T.C. regiment will also be cast.

H. Stephen King, the only nomi- exists will be used this fall. nee for the presidency of the senior class has held many honors during that the stadium can be used next his career at the University. He is Saturday is rapidly being finished. a member of the Phi Gamma Delta Gravel side walks are being confraternity. He has been a member structed for immediate use from of Green Goblin, Iron Sphinx, Scab- Tenth to Twelfth streets. The stabard and Blade, Kosmet Club and dium, although not as yet complete, the N Club. He is also a second lieu- will be easily able to accomodate the tenant in the Pershing Rifles and crowds this fall, and even in its pressenior manager of track this year. ent state will have many advantages

Dorothy M. Brown is the only girl over the one in use last year. aspiring to lead the junior class. She is a member of the Delta Gamma sorority. She is also a member of the Mystic Fish, honorary sorority. (Continued on Page 4)

NUMINATE CANDIDATES FOR STUDENT COUNCI

Names of Those Who Will Run for Board Thursday Are Announced.

Student Council elections will take place today in connection with the attend the game in a body and usugeneral student election. The nominations for these positions were made men in display of spirit. last Thursday and resulted in the following nominations from the colleges with vacancies to fill.

Fine Arts-Pauline Gellatly, Katherine Warner.

Arts and Science-Emmett V

Teachers-Arvilla Johnson, Gertrude Broadwell.

Junior class - Norman Cramb, Letson, second tenor; Joe Zimmer-Dietrich Dierks.

Every student registered in the The following men make up the sec-Particular colleges is eligible to ond quartet: Ivan McCormick, first machine," continued Eckersall. for his college representative, tenor; Jim Marshall, second tenor; For the class nominee only those of Charles Minnick, baritone; Lloyd senior standing will be allowed to Robertson, bass. me as the student's vote for the game Saturday. class president.

A basketball game for 16c.

ately put out by students. The car Nebraska athletics succeed in prowas parked on the west side of the ortion to their student support.

DRAWINGS MADE FOR GIRLS' TENNIS MEET

Tourney Attracts Record Number.

The drawings for the all-Univerinteresting one.

ond rounds must be played off by boistrous fashion. Thursday night, October 11. Courts Every sorority and fraternity in the two contestants, and no score there with a 100 per cent turnout. will be considered official unless The train was on time but the each round or the contestants' names will be withdrawn.

lege may vote on that campus and A new women's champion will be students at the station to show their crowned this fall. Among those who appreciation of the efforts made on show possibilities of being the suc- the Illinois field. vote for the Student Council cessor of Cora Miller are Olive Huey, nominees at the time of voting Dorothy Supple, Dorothy Teal, Sylva Kunc, Jess Hiett, and Dorothy Dou-

The first round pairings are as

Irva Kirk, Margaret Tool. Dorothy Dougan, Thelma Hoppe. Olive Huey, Annis Frederickson. Mildred Schobert, Ruth Wright. Dorothy Supple, Ella Nuernberger. Kathro Kidwell, Dorothy Teal. Marjorie Watson, Marie Witherow. Violette Anderson, Viola Waters. Bye, Joyce Rundstrom.

Anna Hines, Ruth Schrank. Marjorie Crichton, Marie Snavely. Bye, Sylva Kunc. Bye, Anna Jensen. Carolyn Airy, Pearl Safford. Louise Brandstad, Evelyn Shum-

Alice Dougan, Jean Issenhuth. Bye, Jess Hiett. Bye, Alice Sanderson. Karen Jensen, Jean Blish.

First "Rag Feed" Comes Thursday

The first Rag feed for members of the Daily Nebraskan staff will be staged Thursday at 6 o'clock in the Temple. The feeds which are held talk over their work.

the financial arrangements for the checked. party. Geraldine Swanick is chair- The team: P. B. Zimmerman, E. luncheon will be held October 20, man of the refreshment committee D. Dickman, J. C. Lewis, R. T. Rog-Homecoming day. This party, given and Richard Elster heads the enter- ers, J. W. Cohen, L. K. Howard, J. every year before the football game, tainment committee. Hugh Cox is W. Ross, L.L. Hyde, A. Wallen, J. will be held in the Armory in order the general chairman.

STUDENTS WELCOME GRID TEAM SUNDAY

Annual University Women's Greeting of Hundreds at Station Marred by Lack of Organiation.

Nearly as many Cornhuskers were sity women's singles tournament at the station Sunday evening to have been made. The tourney has meet the returning football team as attracted a record number of play- were there Thursday to give them a ers this fall and promises to be an send-off. Lack of organization in the crowd spoiled the attempt to All matches in the first and sec- greet the members of the team in a have been reserved for the players, town was notified of the return of and the girls are asked to consult the team at 5:45 p. m. From the apthe court-keeper before taking a pearance of the station as the time court. A referee is to be chosen by drew near, every one of them were posted by the referee. Matches are rooters were not organized. The to be played at the convenience of team melted into the crowd rapidly the players, but must be played by -even before the "welocme home" the time set for the completion of rooters had time to give a few yells.

Although the team did not win, there were more than a thousand more than twenty applicants, were $7.50. named Monday afternoon by the preliminary committee. These men will appear before the state com-Ruth Johnson, Katherine McDon- institutions. The final selection of WYOMING STUDENTS one man will be made December 2.

Esther Garrett, Luella Reckmeyer. Five Men Named by Nebraska to Appear With Other Schools' Candidates.

The successful candidate will go into residence at Oxford in December, 1924. He will have the privilege the English institution and will be given a sum of money to allow him to pursue his studies without financial discomfort.

Nebraska's five candidates are: Lloyd Welch Pogue. Vernon L. Schopp. Ivan McKinley Stone, instructor. Sheldon Tefft. Raymond Wood.

Selections Made for Cross-Country Meets

Eleven men were selected to reponce or twice a semester were orig- resent Nebraska in cross-country than sixty Wyoming Cornhuskers, single admissions to the five grid inated to give the staff members a meets Friday afternoon. The run most of whom were members of the games alone amounts to $9.50, or chance to become acquainted and to over the Belmont course was made club last year, are expected to be $2.00 more than the price of the in 27:16 3-5. The scholarship eligi- present. Marion E. Stanley is in charge of bility of the men has not yet been Schulte, G. E. Reedy.

Eckersall Says Defeat by Illini Good for Nebraska

Famous Sport Critic Praises Cornhusker Backfield, and Predicts Developement of Formidable Machine; Chicago candy bars at Ellen Smith hall, giv-Sport Writers Concur in Opinion, in Interviews Given ing the profit to the conference com-Nebraskan Reporter.

(By Howard Buffett.)

"Judging from the standpoint of future games, the defeat Two University quartets to sing at of the Huskers by Illinois was a wonderful thing for the Nethe football games this fall have been braska team," declared Walter Eckersall, referee of the game selected by the Glee club. The first quartet is composed of the following students: H. Davis, first tenor; E. "The green Cornhusker line was weak, of course, but the green Cornhusker line was weak, of course, but the course of the game."

The green Cornhusker line was weak, of course, but the green cornhusker line was weak, of course, but the green cornhusker line was weak, of course, but the green cornhusker l showed great possibilities. They are fairly big fellows, and quick to learn and improve their game. Before the season is at Ellen Smith hall at 5 o'clock tofar advanced they should develop into a formidable fighting night, will be on the Estes park con- ing at 11 o'clock. The meeting is for Eckersall was optimistic concerning prospects of the Ne- follows: Margaret Hager on Bible braska team for the rest of the season. In explaining his stand, Study;" Desma Renner on "The Pro- Mickey, C. A. Sjogren, and Coach he said, "Nebraska has a great backfield. Noble and Captain gram of the Day;" Ruth Carpenter Henry F. Schulte are the speakers. The votes for the council rep- These quartets will make their Lewellen are great players, and when the Husker line begins on "Leaders;" Mary Creekpaum, un- Dean Ferguson will preside. esentatives must be cast at the same first appearance at the Oklahoma to round into shape, Nebraska will have a strong team.'

the various Chicago newspapers, in- that the defeat took all over-confitor of the Chicago Herald-Examiner, that they would go into the next Wyman will lead. were interviewed by the Nebraskan contest without the spirit of overreporter following the game. These confidence, but fighting to win. football experts agreed that the Warren Brown of the Herald-Exgame was a great thing for the aminer said in part, "The Husker Husker eleven, and even went linesmen learned a whole lot about further, saying that the defeat was football today. In another week or better for Nebraska from the stand- two Nebraska will have a strong line, point of the future than a victory

(Continued on Page 4)

BEGIN CAMPAIGN FOR TICKETS WEDNESDAY ATHLETIC

Scores of Undergraduates Making Preparations for Three-Day Drive; Slogan of "Four Thousand "N '23" Buttons by Friday is Adopted.

EXPECT UPPERCLASSMEN TO BE FIRST PURCHASERS

Season Admissions to All Sport Events and Use of University Tennis Courts to Be Sold to Students for Less Than Price of Football Games.

Can Save $18.50 By Purchase of Athletic Ticket

Free! Tickets to all 1923 footmeets on the Nebraska home sched- paign and booths on the campus will without charge.

CANDIDATES CHOSEN the book is $26.00. You save just the student ticket at once, since only $18.50, or the amount charged to 4,000 tickets are to be placed on sale let you into all football and basket- Wednesday morning. ball games and baseball games.

The athletic department has an-Nebraska's five candidates for the athletic tickets, can buy admission will be eliminated by grouping all Rhodes scholarship, chosen from to all athletic events of the year for athletic events in the one drive. Ad-

It's an investment in Cornhusker spirit, too.

TO REORGANIZE CLUB 4 football games at $2

of taking work under instructors in Get Together Dinner Will Be 8 basketball games at 50c 4.50 Held at Lincoln Hotel Friday Evening.

> Wyoming students at the university will reorganize the Wyoming Club at a get-together dinner at the gram of speeches and entertainment admission tickets. will be features of the evening. More Attention is called to the fact that at the beginning of last year with a games, for one reason or another, will charter membership of fifty-four, save $9 in admissions to the games Richard Steere of Sheridan was the of baseketball, baseball, wrestling first president and Frances Mentzer and track meets and privilege of the of Cheyenne was secretary-treasurer. tennis courts.

Start Fund to Send

The conference staff of the Y. W. C. A. under Lila Wyman is now starting to collect the fund for send- student backing. ing three official representatives to Estes park conference.

Every girl will be asked to buy mittee. Prices are the same as at confectionaries. A rummage sale is planned and other money-making schemes will be worked out during

In Ellen Smith Hall

The Y. W. C. A. Vesper program ference. The speakers will be as first year engineers especially. dergraduate field representative, on Several other sports critics from would have been. They declared "Our National Organization," and neering traditions will characterize Esther Swanson on "Recreation." this "pep" meeting. Engineers' Week cluding Warren Brown, sports edi- dence away from the Huskers, and Every girl is invited to come. Lila will be outlined, and everyone urged

Buy an athletic ticket.

Be a stadium user

Get the Nebraska spirit.

Only 57c to see Notre Dame play.

"Four thousand "N '23" buttons by Friday, is the slogan of the huge campaign which opens on the camput Wednesday morning. Students will be given a chance to buy student athletic tickets for $7.50, entitling them to all home athletic events of the entire year. Scores of undergraduates have ball and basketball games and track been at work preparing for the camopen early tomorrow under their It doesn't sound possible, but stu- direction. Each ticket purchaser redents will be given a chance tomor- ceives a button of scarlet and cream row to get into all these big games with the slogan "N '23" printed on it.

Sophomores, juniors and seniors Here's the way to do it. Student are expected to be the first to buy athletic tickets will be sold on the the tickets as they have had an opcampus from booths to students only. portunity in past years to discover The price is $7.50. The value of the worth of the tickets. Freshman the admission tickets contained in are urged to find out the worth of the book is $26.00. You save just the student ticket at once, since only

The season athletic ticket has introduced a large saving in student nounced what it will cost to get into expenditures by giving an actual all games. The total of these prices value of $26 for $7.50. In addition, is $26.00, but students, by buying at least five campaigns for money mission to the student section in the stadium for undergraduates will be only by student tickets.

The student committee has shown the value of the ticket in the following outline of what the ticket gives: 1 football game 8 basketball games at 50c..... 3 track meets at 50c 1.50 3 wrestling matches at 50c ... Tennis '(one year) ...

Total value Selling price $7.50.

The campaign starting tomorrow Lincoln hotel Friday evening, Octo- and continuing through till Friday ber 17. At that time officers will be will be the only chance given the elected for the year and plans will students to secure the combined adbe laid for the activities of the club. missions to all athletic events. On Officers of last year will appoint Saturday of this week, the home committees this week to make ar- football season opens and from that rangements for the banquet. A pro- time, students may buy only single student ticket. Some students hav-The Wyoming Club was organized ing free admission to the football

The reason that this extreme value can be given to the students is so that an assured income for athletics Delegates to Estes is given the athletic department in advance. Capacity crowds at all home games is assured, school spirit is raised and the team is assured of

> As the committee points out, "It's an investment in Cornhusker spirit."

ATTEND CONVOCATION

College Traditions to Be Explained to Freshmen at Meeting.

All engineers will attend a general convocation of the college in the Temple Theater Thursday morn-

Dean O. J. Ferguson, Prof. C. E.

Explanation of College of Engito take part in general campus activities. College and Nebraska yells and speeches by students will also be on the program.

An investment in Nebraska spirit -buy a student ticket, $26 for $7.50.

$2.85 for five football games.

