ANNUAL BARBECUE STAGED ON FIELD OF NEW STADIUM

Sophomore Men's Honorary Society in Charge of Celebration Thursday; Freshmen Band Members Play.

DR. CONDRA PRINCIPAL SPEAKER ON PROGRAM

Meal Consists of Beef, Doughnuts, Coffee, Buns and Ice Cream; Fraternities Close Tables to Insure Attendance.

The new Memorial Stadium was the scene of the annual freshmen barbecue last evening when nearly 700 "green capsters" reported for the affair which was given under the auspices of the Iron Sphinx, sophomore honorary organization.

Before the flanks of the animal were seared the first year enthusiasts reported for nourishment and after making several rushes for food to no avail the enthusiastic mass was calmed by the soothing notes of music.

The freshmen representatives of the University band played several of the institution chants and the Scarlet and Cream cheer leaders led the hungry lads in several echoing college yells. Following the burst of pep the freshmen president, Jere Michel, was introduced and he upheld the traditional green cap saying the headpieces would doubtless be discarded following November 24.

Dr. Condra, the father of Olympics, was the principal speaker of the evening and told the beginners the origin of several of the University traditions. The stress of the coming class competition was stressed and Dr. Condra emphasized the necessity of the entire freshmen class turning out en masse.

The meal was served in old time fashion, each individual helping himself. The meal consisted of barbecued beef, doughnuts, coffee, buns and ice cream. Music afforded entertainment while the meal was being served.

All fraternities closed their supper tables during the hour of the barbecue last evening and one of the largest turnouts in the history of the classic was present. The Iron Sphinx deserve much credit for the conducting of the affair and doubtless the first-year men have been greatly benefited by the meeting.

Plans Rummage Sale

The conference staff of the Y. W. C. A. will have a rummage sale October 22, 23 and 24, to raise funds for Y. W. C. A. delegates to Estes Park convention. Girls who wish to sell, first door west of Curtis Music company, should hand in their names at Miss Appleby's office or to Lila Wyman, chairman of the committee.

Second Payments on Stadium Pledges Come Due Wednesday

Just four days after Nebraska dedicates its new Memorial Stadium on homecoming day, the second installment of the pledges made by students, faculty, alumni, and friends of the University falls due. On October 24, the second one-fifth of the amount pledged by each "Stadium Builder" is payable at the office of the Nebraska Memorial Association, 106 Law building.

Nebraska's Memorial Stadium is being finished only so far as the money now available allows. The $450,000 in pledges which have already been made will be enough to finish both the east and the west stands; but, the oval ends, the beautiful colonades, must go unfinished for the present.

Early payment of stadium pledges in full, and particularly the amounts due at the various times, will help materially in the realization of the completed stadium within another year. Every cent the memorial association collects now will help toward the final goal, for every cent collected will save the association money in interest which it must pay on the thousands of dollars it borrows to meet its obligations.

Nebraska students should pay their second installments at once. It takes a large amount of money to send out statements to some 4,500 students, and much money can be saved by students making their payments at the time they are due, and whenever possible paying the entire pledge.

PAY THE SECOND INSTALLMENT ON YOUR STADIUM PLEDGE TODAY.

Green Goblins Elect Crocker President

The new Green Goblins held their first meeting at the Alpha Sigma Phi house last night and elected the following officers: President, Judd Crocker; vice president, Fred Gardner; secretary, Edwin Hughes; treasurer, Reed Coatsworth.

A few plans for the coming Olympics were discussed and it was decided to hold a meeting every week before the Olympics. The next meeting will be held at the Phi Kappa Psi house.

HOUSES URGED TO BEGIN DECORATING

Some Organizations Have Already Begun Beautifying of Homes.

Every fraternity, sorority and dormitory is urged to start decorating their respective houses as soon as possible. Some of the organizations have already started preliminary work for the beautifying of their homes and a large number are expected to do the same today.

The 1923 homecoming with the dedication of the Memorial Stadium promises to be one of the biggest events in the history of the university and more grads are expected back than ever before. With every fraternity and sorority house decorated, it is sure to lend spirit to the occasion.

A judging committee consisting of some of the best window decorators in the city and Ernie Long will pick the best decorated house. The competitive idea for house decorations is a new one at Nebraska but the Innocents hope to make it a permanent one.

The Kansas delegation of rooters will arrive early Saturday morning and they will be looking for the various decorated houses over the campus. If it is possible to decorate sometime today, all organizations are urged to do so.

There is no limit as to what an organization may spend in the way of decorations but the committee does not expect to award the skin to the most gorgeously decorated house but to the house with the cleverest idea in regard to the spirit of homecoming and the game.

Mullenberg Accepts Scholarship at Yale

Nebraska loses one of her instructors in English by the resignation of James Mullenberg. Mr. Mullenberg has accepted a scholarship from the National Committee on Religious Instruction in Universities and will spend this year in studying at Yale.

The scholarship is given to students of Biblical history and related subjects, who show interest and promise in the field. The committee has as its purposes the improvement of the courses and methods used in teaching Biblical history and philosophy in American universities.

Twenty thousand persons can be accommodated at the dedication of the new Memorial Stadium and the homecoming celebration for the returning alumni next Saturday morning. Fare and one-half rates will be given on all incoming railroads until Monday midnight on round-trip tickets. The tickets go on sale Friday.

The Reserve Officers' Training Corps will be in charge of the parade, which will start at 10:15 Saturday morning from Twelfth and R streets. To avoid confusion, the various colleges of the university will march in alphabetical order. The new order of the parade will be:

University of Nebraska band, Reserve Officers' Training Corps, University of Kansas band, Kansas followers, Buglers, University Service flag, Ex-service men's firing squad and ex-service men, Colleges of the University.

When the parade reaches the east entrance of the stadium the Kansas and Nebraska bands, the ex-service men's firing squad, and the buglers' squad will pass to the northwest entrance. The other marchers will file into the stadium and occupy seats in the east section. The Nebraska band will enter, followed by the bugle squad, the firing squad and the Kansas band.

At the conclusion of "America," played by both bands, Chancellor Avery will introduce President C. R. Richards of Lehigh University, who will deliver the dedicatory address. Senator A. B. Carney, Kansas State Board of Administration, will represent Kansas officially at the ceremony.

EXPLAIN RULES ON UNIVERSITY ORGANIZATIONS

John K. Selleck, Agent of Student Activities, Makes Clear Measures Governing Finance of Social Functions.

MISS HEPPNER MEETS WITH 100 PRESIDENTS

Societies Must File Constitutions in Dean of Women's Office; Sunday Dancing in Club Houses Prohibited.

To give organizations information concerning university rules was the purpose of a meeting of the presidents of all societies called Wednesday night by Miss Amanda Heppner, chairman of the student organizations committee. One hundred presidents attended. John K. Selleck, agent of student activities, explained finance rules, which apply especially to class organizations.

Miss Heppner explained rules which have been passed by the student organizations committee. Students have the privilege of organizing any clubs they choose, but it is necessary for them to file their constitutions with the committee to receive recognition. Miss Heppner requested existing societies which have not placed a copy of their constitutions in her office to do so.

Dancing at organization houses on Sunday is prohibited by university rules. This ordinance has been violated recently, and Miss Heppner warned the groups that if it occurs again action will be taken by their committee.

Smoking on dancing floors, also forbidden, was mentioned by Miss Heppner, as well as the fact that card parties are unlawful. Courtesy to chaperones was emphasized.

Miss Heppner continued on the following rules:

All university functions, including athletic contests on home grounds and social gatherings of departmental clubs, shall be held on Friday evenings and Saturday. Note: this refers to all social functions including banquets, which are held or continue after 8 p. m. Exceptions: Social functions may be held the night before, but not the night of a mid-week holiday.

A. A. E. PLANS SMOKER; DRIVE FOR MEMBERS

Engineers Work for Big Turnout in Stadium-Dedication Parade; No Date Set for Annual Smoker.

W. S. WHITTEN SPEAKS AT THURSDAY MEETING

Sargent Appoints Committees; Technicals Must Pay Up Dues to National Society to Receive Blue Print.

Plans for a smoker and membership campaign were made at a meeting of the student chapter of the American Association of Engineers Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in Mechanical Engineering 206. All engineers were urged to be in the stadium-dedication parade Saturday morning.

W. S. Whitten, secretary of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, spoke to the gathering on the value of an engineering education in business life. Henry Sargent, president of A. A. E., presided and appointed the following committees:

Membership, Judson Meier, chairman. Posters, Unthank and Holdrege. Smoker, Edgerton, chairman; Eckrot, Rathasack. Athletics, Brown, chairman; Crites, Hendrickson, Skinner. Publicity, Bertwell, chairman.

For the Nebraska Blueprint, publication of the College of Engineering, James Marshall, editor, spoke. Part of each man's annual dues paid to the A. A. E. are turned over to the Blue Print as subscriptions. Knox Burnett, manager, announced that a close check would be made on the circulation, so that an A. A. E. membership would be necessary to receive a copy of the magazine.

The office of the A. A. E. will be run in conjunction with that of the Blue Print in the basement of Administration building this year, Henry Sargent said. Dues may be paid there to members of the Blue Print staff or to A. A. E. officers.

No date was set for the annual smoker. This was left to a committee so that there would be no interference with football rallies.

Chairmen of the departmental societies were asked to see that their groups march in the dedication parade.

Engineering problems enter largely into every commercial enterprise, according to Mr. Whitten, the speaker of the morning. Scarcely any successful business is not directed by an engineer, and engineers are provided for every phase of commercial life, he said.

Opportunities are easily missed, Mr. Whitten believes. He related how he missed one when he was a young man. He was a railroad ticket agent in Chicago when a gentleman came to the window and asked about visiting the south Chicago steel plant. The "boss" sent him with the questioner who turned out to be Mr. Schwab, then superintendent of the home plant of the Carnegie Steel company. After the trip Mr. Schwab offered him a position as his secretary with a beginning salary of $60 a month. He was making $125 then, he said, so he refused the offer.

MAKE PLANS FOR RALLY TONIGHT ON DRILL FIELD

Band and Cheer Leaders to Add Enthusiasm to Meeting; Time Is Set for 6:45 O'Clock.

DAWSON SAYS SUPPORT OF STUDENTS NEEDED

Representative of Team to Speak to Gathering; Rally Is Under Direction of Innocents Society.

One of the most important events of the year is scheduled for this evening when the big rally in preparation for the Kansas game will be held on the drill field north of the Social Science building at 6:45 p. m. The committee in charge has requested that all organizations serve the evening meal a little early tonight enabling all students to attend.

The University Band will furnish the music for the rally and there will be plenty of cheer leaders on hand to give the students a chance to loosen up their lungs in preparation for tomorrow's contest.

"Kansas has a strong team this year, having won both their games this season and the Nebraska team is going to need something else besides their ability to play football tomorrow when they meet the Jayhawkers, that thing is student spirit and I want to see a lot of it tonight and tomorrow," declared Coach Fred Dawson of the Cornhuskers yesterday.

Welch Pogue, president of the Innocents Society will be in charge of the rally. A large bonfire will be built near the tennis courts which will light up the platform that has been built for the speakers. There will be a short program and a few talks. Coach Dawson will address the students and if Captain Lewellen is not able to be present, some member of the team will speak in behalf of the Cornhusker squad.

The corncobs, Nebraska's pep organization, has taken charge of putting notices on the boards in the different rooms today announcing to the students the rally tonight. Homecoming week is one of the greatest events of the year at Nebraska and the committee in charge of the rally felt that the crowd would be too large for the Armory, so decided it should be held outside.

NO COLLEGE SECTIONS ALLOWED IN STADIUM

Will Reserve Seats for Co-eds Only on Student Side of Structure.

No college sections will be reserved in the stadium during the football season and colleges are requested not to sit in a body. The co-ed section will be the only one reserved and it will occupy sections E and F with the men on either side. The first game was in the nature of an experiment for those in charge of seating in the stadium, and as a result the student section has been extended from section J north to the end of the stadium.

Students will enter through the second and third doors on the east side as the first door is to be used for those having reserved seats in the east stand. The ushers have been instructed to keep all entrances clear during the game and spectators who do not keep their seats will be asked to leave.

The stadium will be emptied through the entrances and cadets will be stationed to keep people from running over the field and over the uncompleted portion of the stadium. In this way the authorities hope to prevent any accidents that might otherwise occur. There will be six exits open in both the east and west stands.
