HUSKERS SET FOR STIFF GAME WITH MISSOURI TIGERS

Three Days of Hard Scrimmage Put Nebraskans in Good Shape.

WORKOUTS THIS WEEK HAVE BEEN INTENSIVE

After three days of strenuous practice, the "Fighting Cornhuskers" will pull out for Columbia, Mo., at 1:15 o'clock today, all set to give the Tiger's tail a good twisting.

Every afternoon this week the entire squad has been divided into teams and each team sent into a stiff scrimmage with the freshman. New plays have been mastered and the old ones handled in capable manner. The heavy iron that has been used by the coaching staff has done a nice piece of work ironing out the rough spots.

The Cornhuskers will face the Tigers in Saturday's contest with a firm and steadfast resolution to make that Tiger howl.

In Wednesday's practice the daily scrimmage was held with the freshman. Both the varsity and the freshman using two teams. Noble was doing the ground gaining for team "A" while Chuck Gately was doing nice work on team "B." Gately has had considerable experience as a quarterback and is making a strong bid on the varsity. Gately was all conference quarter for two years when he was in school at Peru normal.

Bud Randolph who has been carrying around a wrenched knee was out in moleskins but was not permitted to get in the workouts. "Conk" Cameron who had a ligament torn in his knee some weeks ago in a scrimmage is able to be about with the use of his crutches.

Captain Verne Lewellen was forced to quit practice early because of a stiff neck and a bruised shoulder. Doc MacLean thinks, however, Lew will be able to start the game at Columbia Saturday.

The squad to make the trip are: Captain Lewellen, Noble, H. Dewitz, R. Dewitz, Hartman, Locke, Gately, Bloodgood, Rhodes, Meyers, Weir, Bassett, Berquist, McGlasson, Hutchison, Westoupal, Rorby, Hendrickson, Halbersleben, Hubka, Packer, McAllister, Collins, Robertson and Ogden.

Dave Noble is playing his third year as a varsity halfback. Dave weighs 194 pounds and his speed coupled with his line hitting ability has made him one of Nebraska's reliable backs. He is a Bizad in school, a member of Phi Kappa Psi, Innocents, and the N club. Before playing varsity, Dave played one year with Omaha Central, and with the freshman teams at both Wisconsin and Nebraska Universities.

Besides being a regular on the football squad for three years he has been a member of the track team and is a present holder of two Valley records in the dashes. Dave is 23 years old and his home is in Omaha.

"M107 Is Cause of Grave Concern to New Students

As usual the freshman was lost. He had started out that morning full of confidence and hope, but all had been crushed. One look at his schedule card had done that. Where was "M107?"

For the thirty-fourth time (exactly) he started in no particular direction, gazed at everything in sight and found nothing but a lost feeling about the apex of his heart. Where was "M107?"

He had just about decided that as a failure he was a great success when what should his wondering eyes perceive but sign reading "Museum." His heart leaped with joy. At last it was found. Of course, "M" must mean museum! How stupid of him not to have thought of that before!

Boldly he walked in the door—and stopped! Confronting him were two huge turtles, a prehistoric horse and several minor atrocities. Once more his heart began to hippy-hop but the sight of a flight of stairs set his mind at ease. He proceeded up them. He knew his class was somewhere in here.

At the head of the stairs he encountered a case of the most delightful looking snakes he had ever seen. And then—alas! Alas! His youthful mind gave way. In keen delight he gazed at one wonder after another. His books fell from his hand unnoticed. Even his beloved freshman cap was left on the second floor when curiosity drew him to the third.

Suddenly—Brrrrrr!!! He jumped. What was it? The bell! His class! His books!

Sadly he gazed at all his new friends and left—to leave until tomorrow the finding of M107.

May Have Y.W.C.A. Branch at Ag College

The Home Economics girls held their first mid-day devotional service at Agricultural College on Tuesday. Phyllis Sprague sang "The Prayer Perfect" and Miss Appleby talked to the girls on "The Hunger for God in the Human Soul." About sixty students were present.

The girls are trying to establish a branch of the Y.W.C.A. at the college, since many of the home economics students, especially freshmen and sophomores, are not able to attend the Y.W.C.A. services at the city campus. These meetings will probably be held every week.

Students Will Give Dinner for Teachers

A dinner for the teachers of normal training classes in the high school of District 1 on November 7 at 6:30 o'clock at the Grand hotel, is being planned by the normal training students of the Teachers College. Those desiring to attend should send in reservations to Miss Dora McBride, room 307 Teachers College, as soon as possible. The charge is 75 cents a plate.
