Points—Nebraska 368, Missouri 72. Victories — Nebraska 13, Missouri 3.

When the boys from the "Show-Me" state kick off to the Cornhuskers, they will be biting off a pretty good chunk, because the Huskers are off to Missouri loaded for bear. They have been working hard this week and are going to show some fire from the start. They expect stiff competition from the Missourians and are intending to reciprocate.

The Tigers are ready to hand the Nebraskans some surprises they say. They think they have a winning aggregation and to show their belief they are going to put everything they have in the game to take the Huskers' measure.

Huskies in Good Shape.

The Huskers squad, with the exception of Captain Lewellen, is in the best of condition. Lew has been afflicted with another stiff neck and the stiffness handicaps his velocity both in head and body. It is thought the affliction will have disappeared by Saturday. If it is still bothering him Hartman will no doubt be used instead of the captain.

It seems that a jinx has been with Lew this year as this is the third time this season he has been laid up. The first time was caused by a stiff neck, the second by an infected knee, and now another stiff neck.

Husker Grid Album.

Herbert Dewitz is playing his third year as a performer in the Cornhusker backfield. Herb comes from Stanton high school where he played four years at both half-back and fullback. He is one of Nebraska's best open field runners and his line plunging has made many substantial gains. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, N club, and is a law student.

The Lineup.

The lineup at the start of the game is in doubt but it will probably be as follows:

Missouri— Nebraska
 Hennessy (170) ..le.....(165) Rhodes
 Keller (206) ..lt.....(180) Weir
 Palmero (180) ..lg.....(218) Berquist
 Smith, c. (180) ..c.....(187) Hutchison
 Lewis (185) ..rg.....(197) McGlasson
 Vandyne (190) ..rt.....(202) Bassett
 Walsh (175) ..re.....(183) Meyers
 Moulder (140) ..qb.....R. Dewitz
 Faurot (148) ..jh.....(168) H. Dewitz
 Baonf (170) ..rt.....(193) Noble
 Whitman (170) ..fb.....(170) Lewellen

Nebraska out-weighs the Missourians seven pounds to the man, but the Tigers are depending on passes and end runs to win their game.

ROCKNE HAS HARD GAMES SCHEDULED

Notre Dame Will Have Tough Opponent in Georgia Tech This Week.

Following two hard games with Army and Princeton on foreign grounds, the Notre Dame eleven will play a home date with Georgia Tech Saturday. Not much is known of the "Golden Toronado," as Georgia Tech is called, but football critics expect a hard battle. Last year Georgia Tech gave the Irish one of their closest games and the boys from the south will put forth every effort to win from their opponents this year. Following the Georgia Tech game, the Irish take on Butler, one of the stronger teams in Illinois, and the team which held Illinois U. to a 20 to 7 score. Following the Butler game, the Irish come west for their annual game with the Cornhusker eleven.

Altho odds favor the Notre Dame in the game, on the strength of their performance against Army and Princeton and Nebraska's tie with Kansas, Nebraska followers are far from down-hearted. Notre Dame always reaches her prime, earlier in the season than most teams. It will be remembered that she won an early season game from Nebraska two years ago, when a game later in the season would undoubtedly have resulted in a Nebraska victory.

Then too, the Irish may have become over-confident from their early season successes, while the Cornhuskers will be putting forth every effort to win back the glory lost in the Kansas game.

Followers of the football sport can look for a battle royal when Nebraska meets Notre Dame on Armistice day.
