NOBLE THIRD VALLEY HIGH-POINT SCORER

Boelter of Drake Leads With 66 Points, Black, Kansas,
Is Second

Besides boasting a grid eleven at the top of Missouri Valley conference, football Nebraska pigskin followers may also claim an individual backfield artist among the high three individual point scorers in the Valley conference.

Dave Noble, the Cornhusker who is today greatly responsible for the defeat of the Irish last week, is now tied for third place with Hendricks of Oklahoma for third place in the individual point scoring ledger of the Valley with thirty points each. Noble is responsible for thirty of the fifty-two counters scored by the Scarlet and Cream machine this season, the remaining points being scored by Lewellen and the Dewitz brothers, Herb and Rufus.

Boelter High Point Man.

Boelter, the Drake athlete who was seen in action on the basketball court here last winter, leads the Valley line plungers with a total of sixty-six points. Drake also leads the Valley combinations with the highest points scored by a single eleven thus accounting for Boelter's feat.

Captain Black of the Kansas team made enough points in the Washington massacre last week to boost him into second place with thirty-seven. Providing Noble gets into action in the remaining contests it is likely that the lead of the Drake back will be greatly narrowed down before the Valley card has been completed.

Orebaugh Best Kicker.

Orebaugh of Drake continues to top the Valley with his toe work having successfully booted fourteen goals after touchdowns thus far. Roberts of Ames with eight, Black of Kansas with seven and Hammart of Oklahoma with the same number follow close behind.

The individual records of the valley conference follow:

BASKET BALL SQUAD TO BE REDUCED SOON

Coach Kline's Biggest Problem
Will Be To Find a Good
Center

Coach Kline is going to reduce his squad of thirty candidates for the basketball team this week to workable number of fifteen or sixteen men. He had the men working in groups of five yesterday to see how they were at passing and basket shooting.

Kline's chief worry at present is to find a tall center or a good jumping center. Slim Warner, captain of the team last year, was center, and his graduation leaves vacant a place that is hard to fill. Tipton, a letter man, who played center some, will probably concentrate on a guard position this year.

The coach is waiting for several football men to come out for basketball after the season is over. The squad will be strengthened considerably when they come out.

Orr Goodson, a varsity man from last year who lacked only twenty minutes of play to earn a letter, is on the football team now, and will join the squad after the season is over. Goodson was a star man on Lincoln high five several years ago.

High School Stars Are Out.

There is a host of high school stars among the candidates besides the four letter men, Cozier, Tipton, Usher and Volz and two varsity men GoGodson and Wyant. Leo Black, center on Grand Island five two years ago, was a terror among high school teams. He is offering strong competition for a berth on the varsity five. Beerle from Omaha Central is making a strong bid for a forward position. In high school Beerle was noted for his unsteady aim in shooting baskets. Another Lincoln man is Olds, a guard. Fred Ekstrom from Newman Grove is another candidate for center position.

There are twenty-seven on the squad now. They are: Letter men, Usher, captain, Tipton, Cozier and Volz; varsity men, Goodson, Wyant; C. G. Olson, T. A. Hamilton, E. C. Woodneck, C. A. Scharmann, W. Beerle, Leo Black, C. H. Fairchild, I. W. Ruse, D. N. Reece, H. K. Dwier, F. Carlson, M. E. Anderson, Ben Ravitz, C. Battie, H. Dana, R. Johnson, H. Schroeder, M. Ekstrom, R. Tomes, H. Olds, R. Bernard.

Beat the Shoemakers

November 24th is going to be a big day for Nebraska. That's the day Syracuse is going to try and continue where she left off last fall.

We don't think Syracuse can play football; but we do know they can make good shoes. Nettleton Shoes are made in Syracuse.

Nettleton Shoes for Men

Nettleton Shoes are designed for young fellows. They are mighty comfortable and they will outwear any less carefully made shoes. Come in and see for yourself just what corking shoes Nettleton's are—you'll like them we're sure.
