

Alumnus Pledges Pig to Help Pay for New Memorial Stadium

We have something new in the way of pledges.

No not fraternity pledges. That would be ludicrous. This is not, it's more so. We find that at least one man within the boundaries of our corn fed state, has a piggish idea of how stadium money should be raised. Ye who believe in pledges that wriggle and squeal and are smelly.

Ye who believe in the beauty and strength of piggish "Odoration."

List to this "piggish" "tail" still sung by a "rag" reporter.

List to a tale of Broken Bow from whence the pigs came.

(with all respects to Mr. Long-fellow)

This is it:

On November 23, 1922 Yale B. Huffman, ex-'05 Vice President of Broken Bow State Bank, visited Mr. Squires, '93 Broken Bow lawyer. Mr. Huffman was seeking stadium pledges. At that time Mr. Squires was financially embarrassed, his check book not being within reach, and instead of taking the course of the common herd in making pledges, is to blame for this deplorable "hash of words."

His pledge read: "I hereby pay one boar pig named Pec, one non-descript pig ..... payable six months after contract is entered into."

Wouldn't that knock you for a row of Notre Dame back fielders? It is rumored that Pec and the non-descript will be auctioned off at the Syracuse game.

Dr. Aitken to Talk on "The Scudders"

A lecture on "The Scudders," a keen bit of satire on the fads, foibles and follies of fashionable life by Bachelor, will be given by Dr. Walter Aitken at the St. Paul church next Sunday night. On succeeding Sunday nights he will speak on the following subjects: "The White Flag," "The Power of a Lie," "The Great Hunger," "Treacherous Ground," "The Face of the World," "Conquest of Fear."

Hockey Aspirants Practice Regularly

Hockey is now in full swing. Twenty-four clubs have been checked out for the season to those women getting in at least five practices.

There is still plenty of time to get in the ten required practices, and all women who are interested are asked to come to practice. These practices are held every day at noon and at 4 o'clock on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

Fares Are Cheaper to Club Congress

(University News Service) Announcement has been received by the extension service of the College of Agriculture that one and one-half fare on the "certificate plan" will apply for members attending the meeting of the second National Boys' and Girls' Club Congress at Chicago, November 30 to December 7, and also for dependent members of their families.

Tickets will be on sale in Nebraska from November 27 to December 3.

Buyers of such tickets are cautioned to demand certificates instead of receipts.

Boys and girls receiving prize trips from railroads should request certificates with the exception of the winners of the Chicago and Northwestern, and Rock Island railway trips, the policy of which roads has not been announced. Certificates should not read to the International Livestock Exposition.

"OVER CONFIDENCE" SAYS KNUTE ROCKNE

Notre Dame Mentor Asserts Team Has Learned Lesson

"Over Confidence," was the term Head Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame used in an address before the Ft. Wayne, Ind., high school students Tuesday morning. He said his team had learned their lesson and it was a good thing they didn't lose any more than a football game.

"Few Nebraskans," he continued, "can realize what it meant to the colossal pride of the Irish." He says the only way they can tell how the Irish feel is to look back to last year when the Syracuse eleven sent them back home—defeated.

Quality of character is what the Huskers showed when they came back and defeated the Notre Dame last year. He is waiting to see if his team possesses that "quality of character" when they meet the Butlers next Saturday.

Freshmen Thanked for Gift of Shako

The freshman football team received the following acknowledgment of their gift of the "Fuzzy-wuzzy" to the band leader from Wm. T. Quick, director, and Maurice F. Shickley, captain of the band: Freshman Football Team, University of Nebraska:

The University band of Nebraska extends to you their sincere thanks in appreciation of your beautiful gift to the band. The fine spirit and good fellowship in which it was given will always be remembered and we wish to assure you that the band will always be back of you with a big boost and are looking forward to the time when we can show our appreciation in a more substantial way.

Yours very truly,
WM. T. QUICK, Director
MAURICE F. SHICKLEY, Captain.

HUSKER SQUAD GOES TO AMES (Continued from Page 1)

the Husker onslaught. His changes have been to insert two second string tackles, Mayer and Anderson, into the lineup and shift Watts, who has been performing at right tackle, to guard. The guard position being left open by Schmidt, who has a fractured thumb. He is well pleased with his backfield and no changes have been made. His expectations of them, if they prove out, will be something over which Cornhusker followers can digest a lot of thought. A two weeks rest, he believes, will do as much for his squad as it did for the Huskers when they laid off of scheduled contests before the Irish conflict.

Workouts Strenuous.

The Husker workouts have been strenuous this week and Coach Dawson has been having his proteges hit their stride in battles with the freshman. The statement he made after the game last Saturday has been very much in evidence his insistence on hard practice and the chasing of confidence has been his most important tasks this week. The statement he made after the game was to the effect that, "Well this game is over at Ames next week." There is a lot of thought in that line.

The lineup that will no doubt start the game at Ames will be: Rhodes, left end, Weir left tackle, Berquist left guard, Hutchison center, McGlasson right guard, Bassett right tackle, Meyers or Robertson right end, Captain Lewellen quarterback, H DeWitz and Locke halfbacks, Rufus DeWitz fullback.

The squad of football men who will leave with the Husker special Saturday morning are: Mackey, Ballah, Hinman, Hill, Johnson, Lindburg, Randolph, Shostak, Wilson, Armstrong, Posposil, Wehmer, Kiffin, Rorby and Cameron.

Hi Y Clubs Ask for Gospel Teams

Several requests have come from various Hi Y clubs throughout the state asking that the University Y. M. C. A. gospel teams visit their schools. Plans are being made to send the first team to Burt county where the first request came from, according to Wendell Berge who has charge of this work.

"Well trained capable men who will give a favorable impression of our University are to be sent out to the various clubs," said Mr. Berge. This is the second year that Mr. Berge has served on the Y. M. C. A. cabinet.
