

EACH CLASS IS SURE OF VICTORY

First-year Men Are Confident They Will Burn Caps at Syracuse Game.

BOTH WOODARD AND WEIR SAY WILL WIN

"Will the freshmen burn their green caps at the Syracuse game?" is a paramount question of the day for underclassmen. One group of students says, "Yes," and another emphatically says, "No."

"With the points divided as they are, and with most of the events having even-numbered sides, I see no reason why the sophomores can't win," Marion Woodard, sophomore president, said yesterday. "If the class gets out in a body for the pole rush, I am sure that we will win."

Freshmen Confident.

"Of course the freshmen will win," Joe Weir, chairman of the freshman Olympics committee, said confidently. "They have won nearly every year since the Olympics were held and this year will be no exception. They've got the spirit and they're going to fight."

The Olympics will start Saturday morning at 9 o'clock with the relay race. After the relay, comes the wrestling events with three different weights, the tub-of-war, the boxing matches with three different weights, and the push ball. All of these events last event, the pole or flag rush, will be staged in the stadium. The event will be held on the drill field north of Social Science.

Dr. Clapp is to judge the wrestling matches will be 10 minute decision or one fall. The boxing matches will each be a three 2-minute round decision or a knockout.

Only One "Mob" Event.

The pole rush is the only "mob" event. All those present will get into this fray for ten minutes. There will be twenty-five on each side for the push ball. This event will also last ten minutes. Ten huskies will be on each tug-of-war team.

The pole rush, the grand finale of the Olympics, is usually won by the freshmen because of their numbers, but it will be harder this year because of a change in the height of the pole. It will be twelve feet above the ground this year.

Both of the classes are asking the underclasswomen to come out and urge on the men of their class.

CLUB HOLDS SECOND INITIATION OF YEAR

All Bizads Eligible to Join College Organization Tonight at Temple.

Because numerous requests have been received for another University Commercial club initiation this semester the club announces that there will be another initiation for all Bizads not yet members, at the Temple tonight at 6:45.

The Commercial club is made up of students registered in the College of Business Administration. The organization has been in existence for several years. It sponsors Bizad day; it has monthly dinners with prominent speakers; it issues the Bizad magazine; and works to contribute to the general welfare of the college and the spirit of the University.

Plans are being made for the initiation of the large group tonight and all, especially freshmen, who are not already members of the club are urged to attend.

Speaks on Utilities

The second regular engineering convocation of the year occurs today at 11 o'clock in the Social Science auditorium. The speaker is Martin J. Insull of Chicago, vice president of the Middlewest Utilities company. His topic is "The Two Most Important Problems of the Utilities—Public Relations and Financing."

Mr. Insull is a national figure in public utility work and speaks from extended experience in the field. The meeting is a general convocation and is open to all. O. J. FERGUSON.

The Question Is, How Well Do You Know Your Nebraska?

Are you planning to be there? At the hour of 7 on November 27, in a well-known and historic building of the campus, Nebraska U is to experience the launching of a new and interesting custom. It is not to be a rally but every freshman, sophomore, junior and senior should be there to enjoy himself and take part in one of the greatest happenings of the year.

On this night, students, you will witness a program designed to show you the greatness and the progress of Nebraska. It will help to make you proud that you are a Nebraskan. You will see yourselves in action. You will have a rousing good time. Be there, at the Armory, at 7 p. m., November 27.

Seven regulars of the eleven Fighting Cornhuskers who faced Notre Dame in that memorable Husker victory are on the injured list. These men are hurt, hurt so that they cannot play the game as they played against the Irish,—if perchance they get into the game at all!

At the best, but a few of them can play! The places of the others will be filled by substitutes, green men in strange positions.

Fighters? Yes, every one of them.

If the student body will fight behind them, these injured men will fight to forget their hurts and the green men will become fighting regulars!

Nebraska is calling for fighters!

CORNHUSKER BANQUET SET FOR DECEMBER 14

Traditional Event in Honor of Team to Be Held at Scottish Rite Temple.

The men's annual Cornhusker banquet, a traditional event in honor of the team and expressing the appreciation due it, will be held Friday, December 14 at the Scottish Rite Temple at 6:30.

The innocents will be in charge, and are planning for a bigger and better banquet than has ever been held before. Committees are already working on toast lists and plans for entertainment, and have decided to provide music, among other treats.

The announcement is made now, innocents said yesterday, so that all men will keep this date open, as their last chance to honor the team, and to show their appreciation of the honor they have brought to Nebraska.

COMPANIES INCREASE PLEDGES TO STADIUM

Military Department Conducts Competition Among Cadets to Raise Fund.

Pledges to the stadium fund were greatly increased last week by a drive conducted through the military department in the form of a competition among all the companies of the regiment. The quota for each company was figured on the same basis that the quota of 1127 units was arrived at for the entire freshman class.

Competition between companies was keen, nearly every man working for the honor of his company. With eleven of the thirteen companies over the top, the final standing is as follows:

Company A.....	92 per cent
Company B.....	100 per cent
Company C.....	105 per cent
Company D.....	87 per cent
Company E.....	103 per cent
Company F.....	109 per cent
Company G.....	100 per cent
Company H.....	104 per cent
Company I.....	100 per cent
Company K.....	102 per cent
Company L.....	100 per cent
Company M.....	100 per cent
Company H. Q.....	100 per cent

RALLY FRIDAY TO PREPARE FOR FOE

Team Will Attend; Corncocks to Give Stunt; Three Speakers.

GATHERING TO BE HELD ON CAMPUS

"To help peel the 'Orange,'" Nebraska's greatest rally will be held Friday night, at 7 o'clock, north of the Administration building. Corncocks will pull off a stunt before the rally starts. The team will be present, the band will play a few spirit-arousing selections, and students are to sing the Syracuse "national" anthem. Those who will speak are Coach Fred Dawson, Captain Verne Lewellen, and Professor R. D. Scott.

That the team needs the unqualified support of every student was the statement made by Coach Dawson yesterday. "Unqualified support" means spirit untouched by any class factionalism. Every sophomore and every freshman should attend, say committeemen, and lend the team every ounce of spirit he possesses.

As a part of the welcoming program extended to the Orange, the Syracuse school anthem will be sung by the assembled students. Five thousand copies of the song are being mimeographed.

Not for many games has a rally been held on the campus proper. There is a sentiment connected with rallying on the campus at night that is expected to intensify the spirit of backing the team.

A large platform will be constructed just north of the Administration building, and temporary seats will be erected to hold the team members.

SEAT SALE FOR GAME WITH SYRACUSE BRISK

Mr. Selleck Says Entire 25,000 Seats May Be Filled by Saturday.

The ticket sale for the Syracuse game is progressing rapidly and it looks as if the 25,000 seats scheduled to be completed by that time will be filled easily, according to John K. Selleck, athletic treasurer. The sale is progressing more rapidly than it did for the Notre Dame game.

Mr. Selleck estimates that number of tickets sold already at 18,000. He does not think that it will be necessary to erect the temporary bleachers, however, because of the thousands of seats which may be used for the first time.

All of the seats in the east balcony will be completed in time for the game. All of the seats underneath the balcony on the west side will also be completed. This means that the west side is virtually finished.

Co-eds May Organize Student Voting League

To discuss the possibilities of the organization of a student league of women voters in the University about twenty senior women met Tuesday evening in the Temple. A mass meeting of all women interested in such an organization will be held as soon as the constitution can be written, if the organization is sanctioned by the committee on student organizations.

The Crisis In Cornhusker History

Twenty-five thousand persons will be in the stadium to watch the Cornhuskers meet the pride of the East Saturday, and there will be about four-fifths of those persons who will also be there to watch the nationally known Nebraska spirit. This is the time for all students to give the greatest impression in history.

Nebraska's football team is not in fine shape. The men are carrying injuries—but they will fight with every bit of fight in them if the students fight with them.

The word Cornhusker stands for fight. It is the ideal toward which Nebraska strives.

In that game Saturday—Nebraska does not say that she will win. Nebraska merely says that she will concede nothing; that she will give the best that she has, and that when the game ends there will have been one of the most desperate battles on Nebraska soil.

Nebraska determination will welcome Syracuse, will sing the Syracuse song, and will fight Syracuse.

CRIPPLED SQUAD BATTLES FROSH

Every Injured Husker but H. Dewitz and McGlasson to See Smoke Saturday.

YEARLING TEAM USES SYRACUSE FORMATIONS

With the big game of the season but three days away, the patched up Husker squad is battling away against the frosh, who have been perfected in the Syracuse plays. Coach Owen Frank, who scouted Syracuse games this year, has a whole bag full of formations and the crippled Huskers are working diligently to solve them.

Virtually every injured Husker with the possible exceptions of Herb Dewitz and Ross McGlasson will be able to see smoke in Saturday's battle against Syracuse. Dewitz is in the Lincoln sanitarium with a muscle bruise, and McGlasson received a severe leg injury in the Ames conflict.

Noble in Uniform.

Dave Noble has been out in mole-skins every night this week but he has to favor his ankle. Big Dave will no doubt see action but whether he will be able to hit top speed is a big question in training quarters. Rhodes, Weir, and Berquist were in the scrimmage Wednesday night and their injuries are nearly healed. Locke is still limping from his clipped ankle but will be able to scrimmage by tonight.

The injuries have kept the Huskers out of practice for the best part of the week, just when Coach Dawson was planning on giving them the final stiff workouts. They will go into the game Saturday handicapped from lack of workouts this week.

Syracuse has headed west with a squad of about twenty warriors, determined to down the settlers of the Irish. They will workout at Stag field today and then head for the Cornhusker camp where they will take a light workout Friday afternoon.

Orange Are Line Smashers.

The Orange from the East have the heaviest team the Huskers have met for some time and Syracuse plays a smashing game. They depend upon straight football for their gains, and line smashing is their specialty. Just what they will do to the Husker forward wall remains to be seen. As for trying the ends their speed merchants can't be so very much faster than Don Miller, Layden and Stuhldreher.

The contest will probably not be featured by much scoring on either side. Syracuse is noted for defensive playing. Each team is doped to fight to the last minute and, the predictions are that the total score will not be a large one. Past scores are:

Syracuse 10, Nebraska 9.
Syracuse 0, Nebraska 3.
Syracuse 9, Nebraska 6.

Syracuse has scored 230 points to a meagre 19 points for opponents. Nebraska has scored 78 to opponents' 52. A resume of Syracuse games follows:

Syracuse 49, Boston U 0.
Syracuse 10, Penn State 0.
Syracuse 44, Springfield 0.
Syracuse 3, Pittsburgh 0.
Syracuse 23, Alabama 0.
Syracuse 61, William and Mary 3.
Syracuse 33, Hobart 0.
Syracuse 7, Colgate 16.

The officials for Saturday's game are: A. G. Reid, Michigan, referee; C. J. McCarty, Germantown academy, umpire; W. J. Crowell, Swarthmore, field judge; Harry Costello, Georgetown, head linesman.

Over 150 Tickets Sold for Kid Party

More than 150 tickets have been sold for the Kindergarten club kid party to be held Thursday, November 22, at Ellen Smith hall. The party will begin with a dinner at 5:30 p. m., during which a short program will be given. The entertainment for the evening will consist of games and dancing. Prizes are to be given for the cleverest costumes.

MILITARY CARNIVAL TO BE FESTIVE OCCASION

Stories of Wild West to Be Seen at Annual Roundup Are Told on Campus.

Managers of the military carnival are completing plans to make the annual roundup the most unusual is steaming toward Cornhusker land on "Victory Special" with the GREATEST team of which Syracuse has ever boasted,—a deadly machine of heavy, powerful, fighting-mad, Orange-jersied demons,—a team infinitely greater than the Orange eleven that defeated Nebraska's super-team of last year.

The "PRIDE OF THE EAST"

This Orange-jersied tide,—a team overflowing with All-American players,—in perfect conditions—fighting made from the Colgate defeat,—can only be stemmed in one way,—by a fighting student body!

The Nebraska team,—crippled and worn by its superhuman efforts of the past few weeks,—is calling on the student body to rally in this crisis,—to check the threatening Orangemen!

Students! Are you fighters? A fighting, cheering, singing, yelling, howling, irresistible student body is Nebraska's only hope for a victory over Syracuse!

festive event of the fall season. Stories of the western nature of the carnival are being told about the campus and shipments of material are coming in to the force that is working in preparation for the crowd.

Some seem to have gathered the impression that the carnival will be for men only, but the management wishes to assure girls that they are more than welcome. Every student in the University is invited.

The doors will not open until the Syracuse rally is over. This will enable everyone to attend the pep meeting and get to the Armory in time to tap the first keg. An admission price of 30 cents will be charged at the door. That will entitle every person to a free drink at the bar and a cap or a horn. No charge will be made for dancing to the music of Louisiana Ragadors.

Manager Gleason assures every student that it will be quite appropriate to wear either good clothes or old clothes. The carnival will be of a boisterous nature and he thought that it would probably be better if the good clothes were left at home.

Forty-seven members of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority have volunteered to be at the carnival in Spanish costume. They will serve the drinks and sell the tickets for the games of chance.

The carnival is an annual event fostered by the military department.

All-Uni Thanksgiving Party Postponed Week

The All-University Thanksgiving party scheduled for Saturday night at the Armory was postponed to Saturday, December 1. The chairmen will announce their committees Saturday and work will be begun immediately.

It is planned to carry out the Thanksgiving features in the party and to make it a novel departure from the previous entertainments held under the direction of the All-University party committee. More attention will be paid to entertainment than formerly.

The third wireless station in the United States to broadcast with the long range radiophone was WHA of the University of Wisconsin.

HONORARIES MEET TO REVIVE SPIRIT

Two Hundred Gather to Plan Campaign as Before Irish Game.

DAWSON, SCHULTE, SAY NEED STUDENT BACKING

To revive Cornhusker spirit for the Syracuse contest as that spirit existed before the Notre Dame game, 200 representatives of class honorary organizations met in the Social Science auditorium last night.

Coaches Dawson and Schulte spoke to the assembly and commended the type of spirit which has for years stamped Nebraska among the most courteous and sportsmanlike institutions in the country. Welch Pogue, president of the Innocents, senior honorary, presided, and recalled the spirit which was brought to a climax when Nebraska triumphed over the Irish wonder team.

Need Classroom Enthusiasm.

The importance of a perfect attendance at the Syracuse rally Friday evening and the need for student enthusiasm in classrooms were stressed. An example of the eastern backing was pointed out in that 6,000 followers turned out to send the Orange representatives to Lincoln Wednesday afternoon.

Mentor Dawson stated that the coming grid mix was to be played under the most trying conditions because of recent injuries of Cornhusker regulars, and that the crucial test of the season was carded for Saturday.

"The team itself couldn't help responding to the kind of spirit shown prior to the Irish battle, and the same intensity of feeling is needed to meet the Syracuse occasion," Coach Dawson declared. "We are going out to beat Syracuse. The team is representative of you, and in order to win we must have your feeling behind us in heart and soul—and boost, boost, boost."

Say Student Support Wins.

"The real western spirit, 99.9 per cent pure, is what Nebraska needs. It is not what the coaches put into the team but what the students put behind them that tells the tale," said Coach Schulte in closing the meeting.

"Nebraska cannot beat Syracuse tomorrow, nor next day, but through the needed backing we may be able to beat them Saturday."

The class organizations in carrying out the plans laid before the students at the meeting are to attempt to help the Husker spirit develop during the next few days.

HOFFMAN SPEAKS AT WORLD FORUM LUNCH

Director of Y. M. C. A. Relief Work Tells Students of Conditions.

Conrad Hoffman, director of Y. M. C. A. relief work, was the speaker for the World Forum luncheon held Tuesday noon at the Grand hotel.

During the war Mr. Hoffman had charge of the American prisoners in Germany, working thru the Y. M. C. A. In his talk Tuesday he reviewed conditions in Germany as they were during the war and as they are now. He spoke of the decline of exchange and of the improving conditions today. Splendid treatment was given Americans in German prison camps during the war, he said.

He also spoke of the school conditions in Germany at the present time. Professors are forced to borrow money to keep up the schools and colleges. Despite these difficulties, many college and universities are being built and improved.

Ben Wilson, who has been in England for some time, will speak at the luncheon next Wednesday noon. He is an authority on the British navy, and will take as his subject "The British Naval Movement."

Dr. Swezey to Give Illustrated Lecture

Dr. G. B. Swezey will give an illustrated lecture on the subject of astronomy next Monday at the Temple at 5:00. This lecture will be another of the freshman engineers week's orientation lectures.
