PRICE 5 CENTS

CAGEMEN HAVE FINAL WORKOUT

Make Last Preparation to End Season With Iowa Team.

WILL PLAY AMES

A stiff workout at the coliseum

The Cyclones are expected to give Nebraska a real battle Monday night. Iowa state put up a close game against the Huskers last week, as indicated by the score of 15 to 18 in favor of Nebraska. The Cyclones are good on offense, using a short passing and pivot style of game, simflar to the offense used by Misscuri.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM TO BE HELD IN APRIL

Committee Requests All Campus Organizations to Hold Night Open.

The junior- senior prom committee has definitely decided to hold the traditional formal this year. The date has been set for April 19 and the committee asks that all campus organizations schedule no other events for that night. The Scottish Rite Temple has been secured for the

It has been the custom to hold the son. party the first semester of the scho-l year but since both the junior and senior classes had deficits against them last semester it was necessary to postpone the event until these class debts were liquidated. The presidents of the two classes were plans for the formal when the class debts were removed during resistration week.

The committee has been very well pleased with the support given by juniors and seniors in promoting the prom, according to the co-chairmen, Ruth Miller and Bennett S. Martin. Backed by this endorsement, the committee is making elaborate plans to insure that the prom will be one formal season.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC TO GIVE RECITAL

Twelve Students Will Appear in Public Program Monday Evening.

Students of the University School of Music will give a public recital at the First Christian Church Monday evening at 8:15. The program will be as follows: Bach, prelude, A minor, from English Suite-Esther Tappan.

Arne, The Lass with the Delicate Air; Bishop, Love Has Eyes-Blanch

Martz. Liszt, Tarantelle-Margaret Ma-

Goltermann, concerto, allegro moderato-Mary Creekpaum.

Mozart, concerto, No. 314, first movement-Nina Butler. Scott, Lento; Glazounoff, La Nuit

(Etude) -Clara Callender. Francoaur, Kreisler, Siciliana-Rig-

audon-Sara Scheffield. Coeccini, non piango, from "Euridice;" Scarlatti, non dar piu-Marion Yoder; violin obligato, Mary Ellen Edgerton.

Brahms, sonata, F sharp miner, Op. 2, allegro non troppo ma energico-Harold Avery.

Hadley, Red Rose; Lieurance, from an Indian Villaga-Alice Hussong, piano; Mary Ellen Edgerton, violin; Mary Creekpaum, 'cello.

Beethoven, sonata, Op. 53, allegro con brio-Henry Kolling

Furse to Edit Cadet Magazine

Dudley Furse, '25, Alma, has been appointed editor for the second semester of "The Kornhusker Kadet," publication of the military depart-

Teapot Dome Topic of Club Discussion

The Senate club met Friday night in its regular session in Law 101, with President Pro Tem Pardee in the chair. The Dreisbach-R. Eyer bill "to annul the Teapot Dome leases" formed the principal discussion. After a heated verbal battle between Senators R. Eyer and Palmer in defense and Senators Erick-TOMORROW NIGHT son, Sidner and Gross in opposition, the measure failed.

Saturday morning with a hard scrim- measurers were introduced for the Dakota. mage game against the freshman next session-Erickson-Sidner resoteam completed the last Husker bas- lution calling for "Supreme Court ketball practice of the season. The to grant an injunction restraining all team plays Ames tomorrow night at operations in Teapot Dome reserves," 7:30 at the coliseum, and Drake two and an adjusted compensation bill.

VOCATIONAL WEEK

Every Noon at Ellen Smith Hall.

sity Women week will be held March held following the formal debate. 3-7, under the auspices of the Wom- High scholarship as usual characens Self Government board. M. et- terizes the 1924 representatives of experts in their fields of work. A from the College of Arts and Sci-charge. The calendar for the week won election to the Order of the Coif. will be as follows:

March 3-"Tea Room Management," MissBeaumont.

March 4-"Personnel Work," Miss Hutchison. March 5-"Banking," Miss Matte-

March 6-"Interior Decorating,"

Helene Mitchell Foe.

tarial Work," Miss Hall. The purpose of the week is to start are as follows: girls thinking about a vocation upon | Section I: There shall be an offi- Brainerd. their finishing school. This is the cial W. A. A. pin. authorized to continue with their first year that a full week is to be devoted to vocational guidance. Only two days of this work have been given formerly.

FOSSILS ADDED TO MUSEUM COLLECTION

museum by Dr. Ray Bassler of the United States National museum. These specimens will be used mostly for class work in geology and will nounced Dr. E. H. Barbour yester- Rosewilde on Friday night.

A sixteen pound mammoth tooth, Elephas Jeffersoni, was received last week from J. N. Synder of Arapahoe, Nebr. The tooth will be hardened, restored, and placed on exhibition in the Museum during the week.

Is Good Attendance at Winter Courses

About 140 men attended short courses in general agriculture this year. They were not as well attended as in former years. The last of these courses closed this week. The general agriculture course was divided into two groups, the animal husbandry group and the agronomy and rural economics group. These showed an attendance of 20 in the two groups.

DEBATE TEAM WORK FOR TRIANGLE MEETS

Will Argue Immigration Question With Iowa and South Dakota.

Nebraska's debate teams have been ROSALIE PLATNER IS investigating the immigration question for some weeks in preparation for the annual triangle debate with Before adjournment two new the Universities of Iowa and South

> The first of these contests will be waged Wednesday evening, March 12, when Nebraska crosses logical swords with the University of South Dakota Raymond. at Lincoln and the second, March 13, of Iowa at Iowa City.

The question for debate will be TO BEGIN MONDAY that of immigration. "Resolved, That the United States should prothat of immigration. "Resolved, Carr. hibit immigration for five years." Nebraska will uphold the affirmative Experts to Address Women against South Dakota and the nega- cer. Sponsor, Madge Morrison. tive against Iowa. An open forum discussion, in which the audience is baugh. Sponsor, Dorothy Olmstead. allowed to ask questions of the speak-Vocational Guidance for Univer- ers pertaining to the subject will be ings will be held every noon at lien the debate seminar. Over one-third Smith hall and the speakers will be of Nebraska's debaters graduating lunch will be served every noon for ences during the past twenty-two Jr. Sponsor, Viola Forsell. years have won Phi Beta Kappa hon-Margaret Wattles, chairman and ors and over two-thirds of those Marial Flynn are the committee in graduating from the College of Law

THREE AMENDMENTS ADDED CONSTITUTION

A list of amendments to the W. A. A. constitution was announced March 7-"Typewriting and Secre- yesterday. These amendments will derson. Sponsor, Mildred Upson. be acted upon in a few weeks. They Section II: Any member holding 300 points is allowed to wear the official W. A. A. pin.

Section III: Each girl of the winning class team in any sport shall be awarded a small letter of that sport and a class numeral.

ing from the oil fields of Oklahoma, Seventy-five specimens of fossils stopped over Friday to visit the geolthe year and a fitting close of the are being shipped to the University ogy department. He was on his way as a consulting geologist.

> The members of the graduating constitute very important additions class of the University School of students of the University Wednesto the instructional equipment, an- Music gave a subscription dance at day evening. Mr. Sloan will speak

Give Correct Title Page Requirements

"Nebraska Verse, 1923-1924." is to be the title of the book of poems to be issued in April, instead of "Nebraska Poems, 1923-1924," as previously announced. Title-page designs will be accepted for consideration in the $10 prize contest if they are submitted before March 15. The time has been extended a week from March 8 in order to allow more students to enter. The designs should be of the correct proportion for an ordinary octavo volume. More information about the title-page contest may be secured from Prof. S. B. Gass.

CHOOSE SPONSORS FOR COMPANIES

Robert F. Craig Announces Selection of Co-eds to Represent Units.

HONORARY COLONEL

The sponsors of the R. O. T. C companies have been chosen and onel Robert F. Craig.

Honorary colonel-Rosalie Platner. Regimental sponsor - Elizabeth

First battalion-Major Howard J. when Nebraska meets the University Hunter. Sponsor, Elsie M. Paatsch. Second battalion-Major Herbert

> Third battalion-Major Howard R Turner. Sponsor, Jean Holtz. Company A-Captain Harold Spen

Company B-Captain Earl C. Rohr-Company C-Captain G. H. Latelle DeFord. Sponsor, Mrs. G. II. Latelle DeFord.

Company D-Captain Edward M Buck. Sponsor, Pauline Gellately. Company E-Captain Francis B. Millson. Sponsor, Florence Tyler. Company F-Captain Alex McKie,

Company G-Captain Dietrich Dirks. Sponsor, Helen Kummer. Company H-Captain Marion L. Woodard. Sponsor, Mary Lou Park-

Company I-Captain Thad H. Livringhouse. Sponsor, Lillian Charters Company K-Captain Blanchard Anderson. Sponsor, Arthella

Company L-Captain John D. Westermann. Sponsor, Emma Westermann.

Company M-Captain Jay W. An-Headquarters Company-Captain Amos K. Gramlich. Sponsor, Isabel

Band-Captain Maurice F. Schickley. Sponsor, Leoba E. Ickman.

The sponsors of the companies have the honor of reviewing the battalions on the day of the annual competitive drill, and their pictures appear in the military section of the Cornhusker.

Glen Ruby, '16, who was return- REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE TO TALK TO STUDENTS

Charles H. Sloan of Geneva, re publican candidate for the office of United States senator, will address at the Social Science auditorium immediately following the Drake-Nebraska basketball game.

The meeting is under the auspices of the University Republican club, which has secured some and intend to obtain many more speakers to address the students. Mr. Sloan will talk on the vital issues of the day. At this meeting all students wishing to do so will be given an opportunity to affiliate with the Republican club, according to Frank M. Johnson, president of the organization.

An ice cream judging contest was held last Thursday night at the Ag campus under the auspices of the Varsity Dairy club. There were 12 samples of ice cream from as many different creameries in the state. After the contest was over the freezers were turned over to the members of the club to empty.

Weather Forecast

Sunday-Fair with moderate tomerature for Lincoln and vicinity. Monday-Fair with moderate tem-

FINISH CLASSING FOR STATE MEET

were announced yesterday by Col- Athletic Board of Control Announces Placing of High School Quintets.

TOURNAMENT TO

W. Rathsack. Sponsor, Dorothy annual high school tournament and score from 4 to 9. Nebraska won drawings for the first games were four referees decisions and Minnecompleted yesterday by a committee sota got two. from the state board of control of the high school athletic association. heavyweight match stood 8 to 4 in Play in the tourney will start prompt- favor of the Husker wrestlers. The ly at 8 o'clock Thursday morning.

Games in C. D. E. J. K. and L. point ahead. will be played in the Armory and in will be played at the coliseum.

braskan for Wednesday.

paired:

CLASS A. Omaha Technical vs. Grand Island. Geneva vs. York. Hastings vs. Plattsmouth. Creighton Prep vs. Valentine University Place vs. Norfolk. Chappell vs. Omaha Central. Fremont vs. South Omaha. Lincoln vs. Sidney.

CLASS B. West Point vs. Beatrice. Nebraska City vs. Holdrege. Arlington vs. Gothenburg. Central City vs. McCook. Kearney vs. Clay Center. Havelock vs. Ravenna. Genoa Indians vs. Atkinson. Columbus vs. Sutton.

CLASS C. Valpariso vs. Superior. Crete vs. School of Agriculture

(Lincoln. Dunbar vs. Dewitt. Ainsworth vs. Sutherland. Oakdale vs. Hebron. Humboldt vs. Wahoo. Scribner vs. Howard. Seward vs. Aurora.

CLASS D. Chadron vs. David City. Broken Bow vs. Farnam. Cathedral High (Lincoln) vs.

School for Deaf (Nebr. City) Bloomington vs. Guide Rock. Ashland vs. Oshkosh. Osceola vs. Waco. Indianola vs. Winnebago. Albion vs. Auburn. CLASS E.

Ansley vs. Pierce. Yutan vs. Mead. Pawnee City vs. O'Neil. Sterling vs. Friend. Kenesaw vs. Schyler. Nelson vs. Newman Grove. Peru Prep vs. Minden. Syracuse vs. Wilber. CLASS F.

Clarkson vs. Cambridge. Deshler vs. Bethany. Hampton vs. Wausa. Elm Creek vs. Curtis Ags. Weeping Water vs. Craig. Wisner vs. Eagle. Stanton vs. Milford. Hartington vs. Teacher college high (Lincoln). CLASS G. Litchfield vs. Edgar. St. Paul vs. Elmwood. (Continued on Page 3)

GOPHERS DEFEAT HUSKERS ON MAT

Clapp's Wrestlers Are Downed By Minnesota With 9-8 Count.

LAST HALF MINUTE SWITCHES DECISION

Nebraska wrestlers went down to defeat last night before Minnesota by a count of 9 to 8 in a meet the result of which was in suspense until the last half minute of action. The heavyweight grapple which Catanzero of Minnesota won by pinning OPEN THURSDAY Hamsa to the mat with a half nelson with bar arm hold in 4 minutes Classification of the teams in the and 4 seconds, raised the Gophers'

> The score at the start of the fall placed the Minnesota team one

The last scrap started out faster the chapel. All class A and B games than the others, both men tearing in for an opening. Catanzero got a The time and place of each game half nelson on Hamsa twice near the will be announced in the Daily Ne- edge of the mat, and referee Anderson called the men back to the cen-Following is the way in which the ter. Hamsa brought th house to its teams were finally classified and feet once when he got a good hold on the Minnesotan which he was unable to keep long enough.

The first two matches were Nebraska victories by referees decision. Blore of Nebraska in the 115 pound class had a time advantage of 3 minutes 55 seconds over Dahly of Minnesota. When the timer's pistol was shot Blore was pressing his man hard. and would have gained a fall with a few more seconds time.

Captain Kellogg raced Leahy of Minnesota around the mat for a time advantage f 10 minutes and 59 seconds in the 125 pound division. Kellogg held the advantage all the way through this bout.

Tunnell of Minnesota and Uhlir of Nebraska were evenly matched in the initial 12 minute period of the third match in the 135 pound class. Two extra periods of 3 minutes each were necessary to determine the winner. Tunnell forged ahead in the extra periods, gaining a time advantage of 3 minutes and 30 seconds. Uhlir was still suffering from injuries received in practice several days ago. The score at the end of the third match was 4 to 2 in favor of Ne-

Dale Skinner, Nebraska, won the decision over Svoboda of Minnesota in the 145 pound class with a time advantage of 11 minutes and 30 seconds out of the 12 minutes of wrestling. Svoboda was substituting in the Minnesota lineup for McCurdy who was unable to enter on account of injuries. Score at end of match. 6 to 2 Nebraska.

Minnesota won the 158 pound struggle by a time advantage of 2 minutes and 9 seconds. Isensee, the Minnesota grappler, proved too good for Thomas. Both men almost won falls during the 12 minute pcriod. Score, Nebraska 6, Minnesota 4. Seastrand, Minnesota 175 pounder, lost to Robertson on a time basis, minutes and 5 seconds. The meet last night with the Minnesota grapplers was the last home appearance of the Nebraska wrestlers. They will enter the Valley meet at Ams next Friday and Saturday. and the Western intercollegiate meet at Chicago after that will finish the season. Coach Clapp expects the squad to make a good showing at the Missouri Valley meet at Ames, provided Uhlir's shoulder is in good shape by then, and Highly can enter in the heavyweight division.

Robertson hlding the advantage 6

DELTA CHI VICTIMS OF HOUSE BURGLARS

One suit of clothing and $30 were stolen from the Delta Chi house, 1600 R street, some time Friday night, according to police reports received Saturday morning.

The losses were: One blue suit and a book of keys belonging to A. E. Matson, G. H. Johnson $14.60, Myron Ward $3.75, and between $8 and $10 taken from Allan Burns.

After removing money from the pocketbooks the thieves left them where they had found them. No trace of the thieves had been found inte

