HUSKER RIFLE TEAM WINS THIRTY MEETS

Schedules Large Number of Competitions; Loses Only Four Matches.

The schedule of the Nebraska rifle team this year is the biggest that the school has ever attempted. There are 53 universities and colleges on the intercollegiate program, besides the seventh corps area R. O. T. C. matches, and the Hearst trophy matches to be fired some time in April.

A group of college is fired against each week in the intercollegiate shooting. Thirty-two of these matches have been fired all ready. Twenty-eight of them were Nebraska victories by substantial margins, and only four resulted in defeats.

Rifle shooting is recognized as a minor sport at the University, and letters are awarded to the six men who shoot highest scores during the season.

Captain Eggers, director of marksmanship in the University R. O. T. C., is coach of the team, which consists of ten men, the highest scores out of the fifteen who are on the squad. The ten highest scores made during the week of firing are mailed to the schools engaged that week.

Men who have been making the high scores this season are Dale Skinner, D. D. Lewis, D. Roberts, Captain DeFord, F. E. Hunt, Horth, Lammi, Dover, Currier, Ross, Huddleston and Leaming.

Nebraska has defeated the following 28 colleges so far this year:

Arkansas, Kansas State, Kansas, North Dakota State, South Dakota State, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Michigan, Northwestern, Chicago, Dennison, Cincinnati, Dayton, Iowa, South Dakota, Mississippi, City of New York, Yale, New Hampshire State, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Vermont, Delaware, Syracuse, New York, Michigan State, Pennsylvania Military College, Virginia Military Institute, Alabama, Georgia Tech.

The four colleges to beat Nebraska were Rhode Island State, North Carolina, Minnesota, and Missouri.

A University pistol will be a new branch of military athletics this spring. Challenges have been accepted for matches with West Point, and Pomona college, and matches are being arranged with Missouri and other big schools in the seventh corps area R. O. T. C.

President Angell of Yale has suggested that "Big Three" football coaches be removed to the stands when the games begin. It is now up to the coaches to suggest that President Angell try to run his university from the New Haven railroad depot.

neers were defeated 32 to 19. Cozier was the stellar performer in the game.

The third trip of the Nebraska quintet took them into Missouri where Missouri University and Washington were defeated. The Tigers suffered the worst defeat in five years when they lost 32 to 11. Washington lost 32 to 24.

Nebraska trounced Grinnell 32 to 18 in the return game at Lincoln. The victory over Grinnell raised Nebraska to a tie for third place with Washington in Valley standing. The Pikers invaded the Husker floor for the return game, bent on revenge. Nebraska won 38 to 17. The game was featured by spectacular basket shooting, and the fight put up by the Pikers in the last minutes of the game.

Lose Shooting Eyes.

A basket shooting slump hit the Husker squad in the game at Ames the following week. The Huskers raced circles around the Cyclones, but were unable to lodge the sphere in the hoop. The game ended 18 to 16, in favor of Nebraska.

The return game with Iowa State on the coliseum floor last Monday evening gave the Husker cagemen a chance to wipe out the narrow victory gained the week before. In a rough and tumble game, Ames was forced to take the short side of a 27 to 14 score.

The Drake game Wednesday completed the 1924 season.

The season record is as follows:

Nebraska	18	K. C. A. C.	27
Nebraska	24	Missouri	18
Nebraska	35	Oklahoma	21
Nebraska	27	Kansas Ag's.	14
Nebraska	23	Kansas Ag's.	26
Nebraska	18	Kansas	19
Nebraska	20	Oklahoma	32
Nebraska	10	Kansas	13
Nebraska	25	Freight	21
Nebraska	15	Drake	19
Nebraska	32	Grinnell	19
Nebraska	31	Missouri	11
Nebraska	32	Washington	24
Nebraska	32	Grinnell	18
Nebraska	38	Washington	17
Nebraska	18	la. St., Ames	16
Nebraska	27	la. St., Ames	14
Nebraska	12	Drake	25

With all this oil about, no platform will be much good unless it can serve as a raft.

FIFTEEN TRACKSTERS COMPETE AT KANSAS

"five-three" consistently this year, and are expected to break into the point column at the conference meet.

Coach Schulte is well fortified in the quarter and mile relay events. Layton, Trexler, Bloodgood, Crites, and Whipperman are the Husker quarter-milers who will run Saturday. Layton, the fastest Scarlet 440-runner, will run as anchor man on the relay team.

Weir, Beerle, and Crites, the Nebraskans who will compete in the hurdle events, have shown up well in the daily tryouts on the boards this week, and should add several points to the Cornhusker point column. Weir ran the 50-yard lows in 6 1-5 seconds yesterday in tryouts.

In the distance events the Husker team has the least strength. Allen, 1923 captain, and Gardner, captain of the 1924 team, were point-winners for Nebraska last year who will be missing this year in the indoor meet. Whipperman and Higgins are scheduled for the 80-yard run, Lewis to run the mile, and Ted Slemmons, Omaha Medic veteran, will again compete in the two-mile grind.

Hobb Turner, who tied for first place in the high jump at the Illinois Relays with Poor of Kansas, is the Husker entry in this event. Ced Hartman is Schulte's best bet in the shot-put, while Davis and Gleason will do the vaulting in the Kansas City meet for Nebraska.
