Shopping With Charlotte

For An Exacting Friend.
It is but a short time until some of your friends will be graduating. You want to give them a remembrance before they leave school, something different. George Bros. have a varied collection of graduation gifts from the best American studios and many foreign countries. Special thought has been given to the gifts for men. No matter how hard a person is to please you can find a suitable gift in this large stock.

Just a Few Days Left.

You must send your Easter cards in a day or two if they are to arrive on time. Latsch Bros. have a wide assortment for you to choose from but you must hurry or it will be too late.

Scarfs! Scarfs!

They have wound themselves about the throats and around the hearts of women everywhere. Long ones, short ones, wide ones, and narrow ones are worn, not half so much for warmth as for the note of gaiety they give to costumes. Choose one, fling it carelessly about your neck and do all the tricks with it that you have seen and invent new ones. That's the way to look well and enjoy yourself this spring. You can find a scarf for every costume at Gold & Co. at very low prices, ranging from $1.95 to $4.95. There are scarfs of knitted Glos (artificial silk) and plain and printed silks in every conceivable tint.

Refreshments After Recreation.

A cool drink is a necessity on a warm afternoon. With no zero weather to cool one off, a fresh lime freeze or limeade at Rector's is just the thing. After a game of golf or tennis, one of their delicious chicken sandwiches will fill the aching void till dinner time.

A Special Sandal.

When you are shopping for sandals be sure to go to Ben Simon & Sons. They have all sorts of novelty footwear and every kind of sandals you can imagine. They are very reasonably priced from $4.85 to 7.85 a pair. This week they are making a Sorority Special of the Peggy Sandal at $3.85. This two strapped sandal comes in airdale and gray suede or in black patent.

Blink Your Lights.

Once again it is possible to eat at the Green Lantern. This is deservedly one of the most popular places to eat, for here you can be confident of getting the very best food procurable, served in immaculate polished glassware. These good things are not limited to the parties there, but are delivered at your own house. To get them drive to the Green Lantern and blink your lights or telephone your order for delivery.

FOR EASTER DAY
this spring's fashion offers three different types of costume. Which will yours be? Will you select the youthful high-color coat, worn with a harmonizing dress and a close-fitting cloche-crowned hat? Or, the black satin ensemble—coat or costume suit—accompanied by the formal hat, flower or feather trimmed? Or, will you be as well turned out as your escort in a tailored suit, mannish waistcoat and a buckle-trimmed tricorneror top hat?

One of these styles is especially suited to you. Which will yours be? Ridge & Guenzel Company, the Fashion-Ready store, is now showing all three of these Easter costumes and many, many others.

the laws. If a student has a sincere conviction that prohibition is wrong; if he believes in light wines and beers he has a perfect right to work for modification of the law. That is his right as a citizen of the United States. He has no right, however, to break the law.

"Pride in Appearance" A Nationwide Movement

There are a few men who are not proud of their homes. A home is one of the things the world judges a man's social standing by, and as a consequence he wants it to be as good as he can make it. It is not merely a place to live, but one to which he is glad to invite his friends, where he may entertain them comfortably and be proud to do so.

Likewise there are a few men who do not insist that their wives or daughters be well dressed—that their appearance be a credit to them.

Today there is sweeping throughout the country the "Pride in Appearance" movement. It is a movement for better clothes for men, a movement for correct dress. It has been brought about by the attitude of men themselves, who are everywhere paying more attention to correct appearance, and who are insisting on finer things. Everywhere men are coming to know more about clothes, and are becoming more careful in their buying. They insist that a suit of clothes should do more than wear well. They insist also that it be correct, smart, well tailored and well cut. This movement is also evidenced by the attitude of manufacturers, who realize that they must offer better values and are doing so. It is not limited to one city or section of the country, but extends throughout the nation.

This movement means that men have realized the importance of clothes in everyday life, and are giving them the attention they deserve. Today no man cares to be incorrectly dressed, but on the contrary he takes pride in correct appearance. "Pride in Appearance" means that men have realized that clothes are a large factor in their impression upon other people, and that a man's appearance is a matter which will repay his most careful attention. He owes correct dress to himself for the added ease and self-confidence it gives him. He owes correct dress to his family because it gives them as much pride in his appearance as he takes in theirs. He owes it to his position, because clothes that are either conspicuous or ill-fitting are no help in business, but on the contrary are frequently a detriment.

In short, "Pride in Appearance" is sweeping the country because men everywhere have realized that no man can run the risk of seeming poorly dressed, but that his clothes, like his home, serve as a standard by which the world at large judges him and measures his standing.
