UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, MAY 15, 1924

PRICE 5 CENTS

ANNUAL CONTEST OPENED BY KLUB

Kosmet Will Receive Manuscripts for Yearly Play Until November.

TO AWARD HUNDRED DOLLAR PRIZE

The Kosmet Klub will give $100 to the University student who offers the best manuscript and music for the 1925 Kosmet production. Competition is now open and manuscripts will be received up to the first of November, 1924. The story and music must be entirely original and will be judged for cleverness and originality. The members of the Klub will judge the plays.

Each year the Kosmet Klub, composed of fifteen members selected from the student body by invitation, produces a play written and acted by students of the University. A production has been given annually, except for four years during the war, since the organization of the Klub in 1911. The comedy this year, "The Wishing Ring," written by Cyril L. Coombs, law '23, was a great success and was pronounced one of the most successful University productions for years. The 1923 play, "The Yellow Lantern," also written by Mr. Coombs, proved a hit in both Lincoln and Omaha. More interest is being shown each year in the play and over one hundred students tried out for parts in this year's comedy.

The Klub also sponsors the annual interfraternity songfest which will be held this year on the afternoon of Ivy day. A cup is given to the winning fraternity. Announcement of further plans for the song will be made soon by the Klub. Alpha Sigma Phi is the present holder of the trophy. The pan-Hellenic formal, an annual university affair, is another activity of the Kosmet Klub.

GOLFERS TO BEGIN SEASON TOMORROW

Will Encounter Drake University Representatives at Country Club.

The University golf team will inaugurate the 1924 playing season Friday afternoon when the Varsity golfers will cross clubs with the Drake University representatives on the Lincoln Country club links. The Husker quartet of golfers will be announced today following the Varsity tryouts held during the past few days. Among the outstanding candidates for the Husker link crew are Henkleman and Whitten, both veterans from last year's team, and Fred Vette who recently equalled the local course record.

Cards of six of the candidates were not turned in yesterday and the four making the best scores for eighteen holes during the tryouts will be selected to uphold the Husker colors. All dual meets will be scored by the Nassau system which provides for individual competition with points being scored at the end of each nine holes of play.

Following are the groupings for the Varsity tryouts:

- Group 1—Don Reed, Fred Vette, Leland Goldberg, Dick Johnson.
- Group 2—Carl Henkleman, Arthur Eastman, Kenneth Cozier.
- Group 3—Edward Cox, F. W. Hepper, W. G. Schultz, A. F. Edee.
- Group 4—C. E. Clarke, Jack Whitten, H. Eckhardt.
- Group 5—Phil Wellman, Harold Gish, George Ready.

At the request of the American Geographical Society Prof. N. A. Bengtson of the department of geography has prepared a complete review of "Jorden Og Menneskelivet" published by professors of the University of Copenhagen. This article is to be published in an early issue of The Geographical Review. "Jorden Og Menneskelivet" is a world geography of four volumes with a total of more than 2000 pages, published in the Danish language. It represents one of the most creditable efforts that has recently appeared in collegiate circles.

MICHIGAN—On May 9 sophomores and freshmen clashed in the tug-of-war over the Huron river.

Inquiring Into Private Affairs Concerning Vacation Activities

"I want to get a job, but if I can't I'll give music lessons and make $100 a month." Thus the inconsequential co-ed. The reporter found vacation staring him in the face. He didn't know what he could do for employment, or rather he didn't know what he wanted to do, hence the earnest questioning. Perhaps valuable suggestions might be forthcoming.

The hundred dollar a month young lady was accompanied by a friend who took up the subject with vivacity: "I have to go home, but I'd love to go over the state and sell aluminum ware. There's scads of money in it for the right person, and all kinds of experience."

Uncertain Reporter decided that the co-ed was in much the same predicament as himself. He wanted definite plans, so he turned to the men.

He learned that fields of activity offered by city newspaper reporting are popular among male students. At least five of those approached had made certain arrangements in this direction, and as many more were considering the work.

Huskies Answer Wander-lust. Tent managers and stake drivers for chautauqua courses are recruited from the ranks of college students to a great extent, it was found, since eight or ten husky-shouldered fellows announced intentions of answering the wander-lust call in this profitable way.

And we have with us always the insurance agents. Investigation reveals that dozens of students fill out their spare hours during school year interviewing prospective clients for different agencies—and getting them too, more often than not. A percentage of the fruits of a weekly or monthly debit may legitimately remain in the collector's pockets, and a successful insurance agent may belong to the Independent Order of Self-supporting College Students without limit or restriction. Most of these, needless to say, will continue in their chosen line of activity through the summer months.

Operated Upon for Appendicitis

Agnes Kessler, president of the University Y. W. C. A., was operated upon Wednesday night at the Lincoln sanatorium after an acute attack of appendicitis. She is recovering as quickly as possible according to the physician's statement. Doris Trott, vice president, will act as president during Miss Kessler's absence from school.

Miss Kessler returned last week from New York city where she and Miss Erma Appleby, secretary of the Y.W.C.A., attended the national convention of the association. Miss Kessler is a member of the junior class. Her home is in Beatrice.

W. K. SELLECK TO ADDRESS BIZADS

State National Bank Director to Speak at Convocation at 11 O'clock.

W. K. Selleck, director of the Lincoln State National bank, will address the Bizad college convocation this morning at 11 o'clock in the Social Science auditorium on the subject, "Business Morality."

Philip M. Lewis, general chairman of the convocation committee, announces that the Candy Kids orchestra has consented to give a short entertainment preceding the address.

Dean LeRoussignol states that every Bizad should take advantage of the opportunity of hearing Mr. Selleck, who has recently returned from a trip to Germany and other European countries where he has made a special study of financial conditions and will undoubtedly give much valuable information in his thirty minute talk.

TO HOLD OCTETTE TRYOUTS FRIDAY

Mrs. Raymond Will Lead Judging with This Year's Members in Gallery.

Tryouts for the University Girls Octette will be held Friday, May 16, at 5 o'clock, in the Art gallery. Mrs. Raymond and the octette of this year will be judges. Girls who try out must be able to read music.

It will be necessary to have the organization almost completely reorganized, since five of the girls are graduating and one is leaving school. Harriet Cruise and Helen Rhoads will be the only old members to remain in the octette.

Tryouts are being held early in order to have the organization ready to start work immediately at the beginning of next year.

Prof. Louise Pound of the department of English has received from Dr. Wilhelm Horn, professor of English philosophy at the University of Giessen, a personal copy of his "Die Englischen Sprachwissenschaft." Professor Horn's study was written as part of a "Festschrift" for Professor Wilhelm Streiberg of the University of Freiburg.

ANNUAL WOMENS MEET TO OPEN FOR PUBLIC

Feminine Tracksters Will Compete in Class Relay for Big Event.

The annual women's track meet which is to be held in the stadium this afternoon beginning at 1 o'clock is open to the public. A class relay will be the big event of the meet. Other events are 50 and 75-yard dashes, pole vault, hurdles, high jump, running broad jump, hop-step-jump, baseball throw, basketball throw, javelin throw, and shot put.

Some good records have been made in track practices this year and all indications point to broken state records. The record-breakers of former meets who are expected to enter are: Irene Mangold—50-yard dash, 6 3-5 seconds in 1922; 75-yard dash, 9 2-5 seconds in 1923.

Laverne Brubaker—30-yard dash, 3 3-4 seconds in 1921.

Lois Shepherd Putney—hop-step-jump, 29 feet in 1923.

Harriett McClelland—running broad jump, 14 feet 7 1-5 inches, in 1922.

Pearl Safford—pole vault, 6 feet 4 1-4 inches, in 1923.

The officials of the meet are as follows: Head track judge, Coach Schulte; head field judge, Dr. R. G. Clapp; official starter, Herbert Gish. These officials will be assisted by the women faculty of the physical education department. They are Miss Della Marie Clark, Miss Lulu Mann, Miss Faye Breese, Mrs. Marguerite Lonam Stott, and Mrs. R. N. Westover. Pearl Safford, W. A. A. track leader, is in charge of the meet.

Following are those who will represent their class in the relay:

Freshman—Helen West, Dorothy Abbott, Mary Hermanek, and Ruth Wright; substitute, Ruth Kess.

Sophomore—Margaret Hymen, Florence Steffes, Angela Fangman, Elsie Gramlich; substitute, Katherine Krieg.

Junior—Ethelyn Gulich, Vivian Quinn, Luella Reckmeyer, Irene Mangold; substitutes, Thelma Lewis Petty and Louise Branstad.

Senior—Lois Shepherd Putney, Anna Hines, Elizabeth Armstrong, Bernice Ballance; substitutes, Irene Barquist and Irva Kirk.

PERSHING RIFLES ELECTS OFFICERS

Officers of both the national organization and the Nebraska chapter of Pershing Rifles, honorary drill company, were chosen at a meeting Thursday night at Nebraska hall. Marion Woodard was elected colonel, commanding officer of the grand organization, and Edward Senn was re-elected grand secretary-treasurer for the coming year.

The officers elected to take command of the Nebraska company were: Captain—John Ricker. First lieutenant—James Marshall. Second lieutenant—Charles Warren. First sergeant—Walter Key.

NEBRASKA HOST IN DUAL MEET FRIDAY

Kansas Aggie Track and Field Contest May Give Line on Valley Classic.

Nebraska will be host to a visiting track team on the new memorial stadium field for the first time tomorrow when the Kansas Aggies track and field athletes compete with Nebraska in the dual meet. The dual meet will give some line on the Valley meet a week later, as the Aggies are preparing to place up in the top division.

The dual meet of tomorrow will afford Locke of Nebraska and Red Erwin of the Aggies another chance to race it out for the 100-yard dash honors. At the Kansas relays Erwin beat Locke, and he was the next man in front of Locke at the Drake relays at Des Moines three weeks ago. Last year Erwin won the two sprint events in the Valley meet at Ames.

Aggies Strong in Mile.

The Aggies will be strong tomorrow in the mile in which they have Klimport who is expected to run it around 4:30 time. The fastest Nebraska time to date has been 4:35 by Lewis. Another good race will probably be the two-mile. Kansas Aggies have Balzerin this event, and he runs the two mile in less than two minutes regularly and is expected to do better than that if pushed. Nebraska's best entries in this number will be Cohen and Slemmons. Thus far Slemmons has shown up as the better of the two Nebraska two milers, but Cohen ranks pretty high on account of his sprinting ability at the finishes. Last year in the California dual meet Cohen made a spectacular finish of the two mile when he sprinted about all of the last eighth of it.

Field Prospect Looks Better.

Nebraska's hopes in the field events are brightening. In the tryouts Tuesday for the Aggie meet Wirsig equalled the Nebraska record of 12 feet in the pole vault. Gleason, Rhodes and Davis are the other Husker vaulters who have been clearing the bar just under the 12 foot mark all season so far.

Bassett and Hartman will uphold Nebraska colors in the shotput. Bassett has been improving steadily all season since the interfraternity meet in April and heaves the weight almost as far as Hartman himself.

In the quarter mile races tomorrow and the hurdles Nebraska men will probably have things much to themselves as the Aggie entries in these events have not done extra well so far. On the face of it Nebraska can be doped out to win the dual meet tomorrow, but Track is much like any other sport, and the Huskers may be surprised at unexpected winning competitions.

SIG EPS AND PI KAPS LINE UP FOR TODAY

Will Play Off Semi-final Game—P.A.D.'s and Sig Alphas Scheduled for Other.

Sigma Phi Epsilon and Pi Kappa Phi will play their baseball game in the semi-finals of the interfraternity tournament today at 1 o'clock at Rock Island park if the weather permits. The other game between the Phi Alpha Delta and Sigma Alpha Epsilon nines will be played late in the week.

The Sig Eps beat the A. T. O.'s on their last game 9 to 0. They have been going strong all year and are expected by many to win the skin this year. The Pi Kaps beat the Delta Chi nine in the third round 8 to 0. Joe Edwards, who may pitch for the Pi Kaps, is going strong this season, and the game today will probably be one of the closest of the whole tournament.

Mu Sigma Will Hold Initiation

Mu Sigma, professional engineering fraternity, will hold formal initiation at the Lincoln hotel Saturday beginning at 1 o'clock for the following initiates, the banquet to be given at 6 o'clock: Fred Bussemer, Don Roberts, Murray Miller, Joy Phelps, Clifford Rees, Oscar Yoder, Morris Hoag.

Weather Forecast

Thursday—Fair; rising temperature.

CONVOCATION TO BE HELD THIS MORNING

New Centurions and Vestals of the Lamp Will Be Announced.

Students of the Arts and Sciences college will meet in the Temple Theater at 11 o'clock this morning in a special convocation for the College in which the new members of the Centurions and the Vestals of the Lamp, will be announced.

One scene of the pageant "Academeme" written by Dr. H. B. Alexander, will be presented by the Vestals. The pageant, which symbolizes the Arts and Science college, its subjects, and its purposes, was written several years ago, and the various parts have been given since then. The scene to be given today is the one of initiation in which the new members of the Vestals will be announced.

The main address of the convocation also is to be given by Dr. Alexander. His subject will be, "Liberalism in the College." The Centurion met last night and selected the new members, whose names are to be given today.

TENNIS PLAYERS OUT FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Eight Will Represent Nebraska in Dual Meets and Valley Classic.

Weather conditions have not been of the best for tennis playing during the past few days and as the result the annual Varsity tennis tournament is progressing slowly. The eight racquet wielders who remain in the tourney longest will be selected to represent Nebraska in the several dual meets and Missouri Valley championship classic which comprise the Husker tennis schedule for the 1924 season. Last week end three veteran courtmen were sent to Ames to contest across the twine barriers with the Iowans but Shallberg, Colby and Newton were unable to solve attack and were sent home with a coat of whitewash.

The Varsity tournament was expected to be finished before last week in order that the winners might be determined. The next tennis dual meet is slated for next week and it is likely that the outstanding performers will be whittled down from the long list of contestants at present. All contestants in the Varsity tourney are urged to play their matches off as soon as possible.

Eleven courts are now in shape according to the University court management and more will be available the latter part of this week. The courts are open from 7 to 7 and this time limit will be extended as soon as warmer weather permits.

Following are the results of the tournament to date:

- First Round.
 - Hudson beat Eller.
 - Schildneck drew a bye.
 - D. Elliott beat Sweezey.
 - Lantz drew a bye.
 - Eyer drew a bye.
 - V. Northwall beat W. Sunderland.
 - F. C. Swanson drew a bye.
 - Colby drew a bye.
 - Newton beat Medlin.
 - Waite drew a bye.
 - Burke drew a bye.
 - Scharmon drew a bye.
- Second Round.
 - V. Northwall beat Eyer.
 - Rathack beat Lindley.
 - J. E. Newton beat Waite.

Ag's Announce Last Mixer of Season

The last Ag College mixer of the season will be held Friday, at the Ag gymnasium. All Ag mixers held this year have been very well attended and this one promises to be the biggest of all. A good orchestra has been secured for the occasion, and the floor is in excellent condition. Refreshments will be served.

ILLINOIS—The official freshman cap burning takes place May 14.

CHORUS CONCERT DELIGHTS MANY

Capacity Crowd Hears Program by University Singers and Symphony.

WEATHER CAUSES CHANGE OF PLACE

Playing to a capacity audience in the auditorium, the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra and University chorus gave a real treat to music-lovers last night. Inclement weather caused the concert to be changed from the stadium to the auditorium. The platform erected in the stadium was changed yesterday afternoon.

The concert consisted of two parts, the orchestra playing Liszt's Symphonic Poem No. 3, "Les Preludes," for the first time, and the University chorus accompanied by the orchestra presented the oratorio "Elijah" for the second. Fifty soloists from Lincoln and four soloists specially secured to take the leading parts, assisted the chorus.

Play as One Instrument.

The orchestra proved itself a truly wonderful organization. The eighty-six musicians played as one great instrument and responded to every movement of Henri Verbrughen the conductor.

The second part of the program was also a distinct success. Bernard Ferguson of New York took the leading role of Elijah in a manner that showed him to be a finished soloist. Mabel Beddo, Lenora Sparkes, and Walter Wheatley, were the other principals in the oratorio.

The chorus, led by Mrs. Carrie B. Raymond, caused many favorable comments. Although it had rehearsed only once with the orchestra, it gave its part of the program as if it were thoroughly familiar with the oratorio.

Program Given.

The program as it was presented follows:

- PART ONE.
- Introduction—As God the Lord of Israel liveth.
- Overture.
- Chorus—Help, Lord! Wilt Thou Yuite destroy us?
- Duet—Zion spreadeth her hands for aid; with chorus—Lord, bow Thine ear to our prayer.
- Recitative and air—If with all your hearts ye truly seek me.
- Chorus—Yet doth the Lord see it no.
- Recitative, air and duet—Help me, man of God! my son is sick.

INSTRUCTORS RECEIVE ADVANCED POSITIONS

Former Students in University Department of Philosophy Are Promoted.

A number of former students and instructors from the department of philosophy of this university will receive advanced positions in their work here and at other colleges and universities for next year.

Christian O. Weber and Charles Henry Patterson have been reappointed instructors for the coming year. Joy P. Guilford, who was in the psychology department this year has been appointed an assistant professor of philosophy at Cornell university and will assume his new duties next fall.

Frederick Lund, an instructor at Columbia university has been advanced to an assistant professor at the same university. Mr. Lund received his masters degree here last year. Miss Zora Schuapp, who received her masters degree at Nebraska several years ago will receive a doctors degree at Brynn Mawr college next year. Miss Gertrude Sanford has been appointed an assistant instructor of philosophy at Brynn Mawr to take effect next fall.

Miss Janet Pressley who recently won first prize in the University of Nebraska poetry contest will receive her masters degree this spring and expects to teach. A number of her poems were printed in the book of Nebraska Verse which was published last week by the University Press.

The following have been appointed assistants in the department of philosophy for next year: William Werkmeister, Arthur Jersild, Nell Whalen and Vernon Schopp.
