PREMIER ATHLETES ENTER VALLEY RACE

Joie Ray and Ray Watson Will Compete in Special Half-Mile Run.

"As great as the Notre Dame game," slogan for the Missouri Valley championship track meet at Lincoln May 24, is fast coming to realization as the entry lists record the names of some of the premier track and field athletes in the country. The special half-mile run between Joie Ray, champion half miler of the United States, and Ray Watson, will be one of the added attractions that will make the classic meet an event long to be remembered in sport annals of Nebraska.

The 1924 Valley meet is the first conference championship meet that Nebraska will be host to. The new Husker track on stadium field will be one of the fastest cinder paths in the west on the day of the meet, and Valley records can be expected to topple if the weather is at all favorable.

Every school in the Valley conference has sent in entry lists for the championship meet. Oklahoma A. and M. has entered a complete team—men entered in every event. Tarkio college of Missouri has entered one man in the two-mile run. Other entries from non-conference schools are expected this coming week. Colleges in states where Valley conference schools are located are eligible for entry in the meet.

The meet is of special importance this year on account of its rank as an accredited preliminary meet for the American Olympics tryouts. Winners in the meet here on May 24 will be eligible for entry in the all-American tryouts at New York and Cambridge.

It will be the first opportunity that Nebraskans have ever had of seeing the Valleys finest performers on a Nebraska cinder path. The meet is being advertised throughout the state as widely as the Notre Dame and Syracuse football games of last fall, and many out-state people are expected to come to Lincoln for the meet. As an additional attraction for visitors there will be the military exhibition on the fair ground by United States troops, reserve officers, and local military organizations.

McGlasson Speaks to Lincoln High Classes

football star, gave a talk on "Good Sportmanship" to the junior and senior classes of Lincoln high school, Thursday, May 8. He told of some of the junior-senior fights that used to be held and lead up to the Olympics which have now taken their place.

McGlasson recalled some fights that took place while he was in high school and told of one in particular when many of the participants were thrown into Salt Creek near Epworth park. It was such occurrences as this that brought on the Olympics.

MICHIGAN—The women of Michigan over-subscribed their $50,000 quota by $10,000 for the University of Michigan league building.

OREGON—Priming is not done by O. A. C. co-eds according to reports recorded by thirty women in the home management class.
