Schulte Has Developed Many Stars in His Coaching Career

Coach Henry F. Schulte predicts that Valley records are due to fall at the annual Missouri Valley field and track championships. Coach Schulte knows for he has developed track stars in every branch of the sport. He has developed stars at Nebraska in his four years here, and is developing stars now.

Perhaps the big headliner of "Indian" Schulte's career was the development of Bob Simpson, star hurdler and sprinter who held the world's records in the hurdle races up till last year. Other big men he has developed in the hurdle races are Sylvester of Missouri and Floyd Wright of Nebraska.

Jackson Scholtz, joint holder of the Missouri Valley record in the 100-yard dash, and one time Olympic man, tops the list of sprinters. Along with him stands Ed Smith of Nebraska who divides honors with Scholtz in the 100-yard dash and holds the Valley 220-yard dash record. Locke is the latest development of Schulte in the sprints.

Such men as Rider and Parker are 880-yard runners who are on record as men of speed. Maurice Gardner, captain of the 1924 team is perhaps the best half-mile runner that Schulte has developed. Gardner has come within one and one-fifth of a second of the Valley record. He is a possible

CAMP MEN RECEIVE ENTRAINING ORDERS

Snelling Camp Will Open June 12 and Close Late in July.

Entraining orders are being given this week to cadets who are going to Camp Snelling this summer. The camp will start the morning of June 12, and will close July 23. The men will go to St. Paul and from there take the interurban cars to the camp. The first meeting of the camp men will be held tonight at a dinner at the Grand hotel. Tickets for the dinner can be got at the military office for 50 cents.

The Nebraska contingent of over 150 men will be divided into two platoons of advanced course men and one platoon of basic course this year, making a complete Nebraska company. It is hoped that with the grouping of all the men in one company, Nebraska will have a better chance at winning first place at the camp. For the past two years Nebraska has been second and Missouri first.

The men going to the camp will be reimbursed for transportation at the rate of 5 cents a mile. The round trip fare from Lincoln is $22.50, and the one way reimbursement is $21.65. Advanced course men will receive commutation of rations while at camp, Basic course men will not.

One hundred dollars will be paid to any University of Nebraska student submitting the best manuscript and music for the 1925 production. Both manuscript and music must be entirely original. Plays will be received up until November, 1924. The production this year, "The Wishing Ring," proved a hit in both Lincoln and Omaha, playing to capacity crowds.

The Kosmet Klub will sponsor the interfraternity song-fest to be held Ivy day afternoon. A cup will be given to the winning fraternity in the sing. Alpha Sigma Phi is the present holder of the cup. Announcement of further plans for the sing will be made soon.

The geology department of the University has found positions for all majoring geologists both for permanent positions and for summer work. Many students are going to the iron mines of Minnesota, the gold mines of the Black Hills, and the oil fields of Wyoming and Oklahoma.

Two big features of the Missouri Valley track and field championships are the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes, in which "Gip" Locke, Husker sprint demon, and Captain "Red" Erwin of the Kansas Aggies are going after each other's scalps. Erwin has defeated Locke on several occasions, but Locke is only getting his fighting ire up.

OKLAHOMA COMES TO PLAY HUSKERS

Valley Title Holder to Meet Nebraska in Two-Game Series.

LOCKE AND RHODES ARE OUT OF LINEUP

The championship Sooners, who have captured premier honors in the Valley baseball race for the past two years, come here for a two-game series today and Thursday. The contest today at Rock Island park will be called at 4 o'clock.

Coach Kline will again change his lineup in an effort to stop up the weak places left by injuries and absences. Lewellen will be on the mound for the Huskers today and Hubka will perform behind the bat. Hubka smashed his fingers in a car door a few weeks ago, but has now fully recovered. Lang will pitch the second game.

Patton, Husker outfielder, twisted his ankle while running bases in the game Monday, but will be back in the game.

Reports reaching the Husker camp are that Oklahoma has a good team this year. At present they hold second place in the Valley standings. They have lost but two games, one to Missouri and one to Ames.

Sipe, who refereed the game Monday, will call the strikes in both games of the series.

REGULARS ARRIVE IN LINCOLN TODAY

All Units in Readiness for Ex- hibition at Fair Grounds Friday Afternoon.

OVERLAND MARCH ENDS WITH PARADE AT NOON

Approximately 200 mounted troops and 300 men in the artillery and cavalry units of the regular army will march north on Eleventh street and then east to Seventeenth and O streets at about noon today. This will end the march started several days ago from Fort Riley, Kansas, these troops being sent here to take part in the military celebration at the Fair Grounds Friday afternoon.

The troops will camp on the Fair Grounds and make final preparations for the exhibition. A number of pieces of artillery, the regular cavalry units, and the air squadron will compose the military elements sent here to take part in the military celebration. Company L of the R. O. T. C. and the Pershing Rifles will take part in individual exhibitions.

Starting at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, the Pershing Rifles will give a ten-minute drill. This will be followed by the field artillery exhibition and then the sham battle to be staged by a specially-trained company. No admission will be charged for the celebration.

Tonight the Liberty theater will be open to all troops connected with the units that came here from Fort Riley. Capitol Beach will also be open to the men. The American Legion is making other plans for the entertainment of the men.

The parade Friday noon, composed of a National guard band, the R. O. T. C. band, all of the visiting troops, members of the American Legion, and the R. O. T. C. regiment, will open the two days of military and athletic activities. This will be followed by the events at the Fair Grounds, the military ball in the evening, the competitive drill Saturday morning, and finally the Missouri Valley track meet Saturday afternoon.

SPEAKS ON IDEALS OF ANCIENT GREEKS

Prof. J. A. Rice Lectures to Freshmen on "Culture and the Classics."

The ancient Greek, his ideals and how he would respond to our civilization were the subjects of a lecture by Prof. J. A. Rice of the department of ancient language, who spoke on "Culture and the Classics" to freshman lecture students of College of Arts and Sciences, Monday and Tuesday.

The courage and the independence of the Greeks were their outstanding features, declared the speaker. In modern society these traits have not been lost but they have been weakened.

"If an ancient Greek were to visit us today, he would find some things that would please him and others that he would not approve of," Professor Rice asserted. "He would approve of young folks dancing and enjoying themselves, although he would not understand the music. He would delight in the training of young men for military duty. A baseball game would please him but he would wonder why all did not take part instead of a few.

"He would wonder why all young men look like Kuppenheimer clothes ads and why all the young women wore practically the same style of dress. He would wonder at our lack of individuality in clothes.

Believed in Freedom.
"The Greeks believed in absolute freedom and they carried it through. Freedom to do right means freedom to do wrong' is the motto frequently found in early Greek literature. They had a freedom of religion which was not again known until the last hundred years. They were not afraid of their gods because they made their own gods. They had nothing like the (Continued on Page 4.)

OPEN TICKET SALE FOR VALLEY MEET

Student Athletic Books and Passes Not to Be Accepted.

TASSELS AND VIKINGS WILL CONDUCT DRIVE

The ticket sale for the Missouri Valley track meet to be held in the Memorial stadium Friday and Saturday of this week, will begin today on the campus. The price will be one dollar for reserved seats and one dollar and fifty cents for box seats. Student tickets and N mens passes will not be accepted.

The Vikings, junior mens interfraternity organization, and Tassels, girls pep organization, will conduct the sale. Each buyer will receive a tag with a receipt attached. The tag will distinguish the bearer as a booster of the big meet. The receipt can be exchanged at Latsch Bros. for a reserved seat ticket.

The gate receipts will be divided among the schools of the Valley to pay, in part, for the expense of transportation of the teams to Lincoln. It is a Valley meet and none of the returns will go to the Nebraska athletic department so the students of Nebraska are required to pay admission as well as the rest of the public. The meet was not granted to Nebraska until December so no allowance could be made on the student tickets. N men, who are admitted free to all athletic contests, will have to pay for this meet. No passes can be granted because the money received belongs to all the Valley schools.

John Selleck, business agent, made the statement that Nebraska hopes to make the meet a paying proposition to the other schools; a thing that has not been accomplished at Missouri Valley Championship meets in the last few years.

"If Nebraska students are behind the meet and put it over, the Missouri Valley championship will in all probability be held at Nebraska every year, and in time become permanent as the Drake relays are to Drake, or the Kansas relays to Kansas," Mr. Selleck said.
