7 Weeks Trip to Europe
for $342.40

Made by Princeton Instructor
Including Round Trip Steamship Fare
and All Expenses for 34 days in Europe

THIS trip is fully described in a booklet written by Professor Nylander of Princeton University which gives the complete itinerary and itemized expenses. It will be sent you upon receipt of the coupon below. Also the folder "What's Going on in Europe in 1924" and illustrated literature about the United States Lines.

Steamship Fare—$85 and up
Thousands of students and teachers are sailing for Europe this summer in the third class cabins of United States Lines' ships. Separate exclusive space has been reserved on the
S. S. President Harding - June 24th
S. S. Republic - - - July 2nd
S. S. Leviathan - - - July 5th
Similar reservations have been made on other eastbound ships and also on westbound ships (including the Leviathan) for your return.

College women are invited particularly to make reservations on the S. S. Republic sailing July 2nd as special third cabin accommodations are available under proper chaperonage. Women will also be especially chaperoned on the other ships listed above and on the return trips.
Third Class Cabin on United States Lines' Ships Is Not Steerage
Third class cabins on these ships accommodate 2, 4 or 6 persons. They are clean, airy and comfortable. The berths have soft, sanitary mattresses and clean linen; —water and other conveniences in each stateroom. The food is wholesome, appetizing and plentiful and service of the best. Public rooms are large and inviting. Ample deck space is provided for games and dances. Daily concerts are a feature of the voyage.
This is your chance to enjoy the cultural and educational advantages of Europe at the lowest cost possible in years. Dozens of international events are taking place in Europe this summer including the Olympic games and the British Empire Exhibition.

DOROTHY SUPPLE WINS TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

Defeats Olive Huey In Most Spectacular Match of Tournament.

Dorothy Supple, '25, retained her right to the women's singles tennis championship yesterday noon when she defeated Olive Huey, '24, 6-2, 4-6, 6-4 in the final and most spectacular match of the tournament. There were 17 duce games in the match and each of the other games was long and hard fought.

The long volleys and return of seemingly impossible placement shots marked every game with brilliant plays. The champion's forehand drives, backhand placements, and splendid racket control won the match for her.

Anna Jensen lost to Olive Huey in the semi-finals Wednesday 6-3; 10-8. In the fall tournament Anna Jensen was runner-up in the finals.

This is Miss Supple's first year at Nebraska but she entered here as a junior. Her first two years were spent at the Chicago Normal School of Physical Education. She was recently elected president of the Women's Athletic Association for next year.

Chancellor Addresses Plattsmouth Seniors

Chancellor Samuel S. Avery went to Plattsmouth, Thursday evening, where he gave the commencement address of the graduating class of Plattsmouth high school. This evening, the Chancellor will go to Scribner to give the commencement address of the seniors there.
