

VOL. XXIV—NO. 13.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1924

PRICE 5 CENTS

EDITOR WILL SPEAK TODAY

Dr. Oswald Garrison Villard to Address Special Convocation.

EXCUSE JOURNALISM STUDENTS FROM CLASS

All Journalism students will be excused from 9 o'clock classes today, Tuesday (October 7), to hear the address, Temple Theater, on "Journalism and Politics" by Dr. Oswald Garrison Villard of New York.

C. C. ENGBERG.

Dr. Oswald Garrison Villard of New York, editor of The Nation, will address a School of Journalism convocation at the Temple Theater Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock on "Journalism and Politics." The meeting will be open to the public. Journalism students will be excused from classes to attend.

Dr. Villard, prominent student and author in the field of Journalism, became reporter on the Philadelphia Press soon after his graduation from Harvard, where he served as instructor in history. From 1897 to 1918 he was editorial writer on the New York Evening Post and president of the company that published it. Since 1918 he has been editor and owner of The Nation. Washington and Lee University conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Literature and Lafayette College the degree of Doctor of Laws.

Dr. Villard is the author of "Some Newspapers and Newspaper Men," published in 1923, and of "John Brown—An Autobiography After Fifty Years." In 1923 he made a tour of Europe, writing a series of articles on economic and political conditions.

One hundred and fifty seats in the central section will be reserved for Journalism students.

LITERARY SECTION IN '24 CORNHUSKER

Applicants for Positions on Staff Asked to Report To the Editor.

"The Cornhusker of Service," the theme of the 1925 Cornhusker, will be concentrated in the literary section entitled "Nebraska and the University." There is a chance for the student who enjoys research work and who can write to do his part here. Applicants should see the editor in the Cornhusker office this week.

This section, which will consist of twenty or twenty-five pages, is under the direction of Douglas Orr. Mr. Orr has been working on it all summer but there is still considerable to be done. English instructors are asked to cooperate by advising students with ability along this line to apply.

The work of this part of the annual will be a written survey of the state and University and of their relation. The introduction will be an explanation of the state, of the natural resources and advantages. This will be followed with a description of the University, a survey of the present, and a glimpse of college life, and a sketch of the outlook for the future.

PROFESSOR'S FATHER DIES

Dr. Philo M. Buck, sr., Was Famous Missionary.

Dr. Philo M. Buck, sr., father of Prof. Philo M. Buck, jr., chairman of the department of comparative literature in the University, died at Mussoorie, India, September 8.

"Dr. Buck was probably the greatest district superintendent the Methodist Episcopal church has ever had in India," said Bishop Brenton Thomas Bradley. "He showed men how to live and he taught men how to preach."

Born at Corning, New York, in 1846, he began preaching in Kansas, where he moved with his parents, at the age of seventeen. He petitioned for admittance to the Kansas conference but two years later. At the age of twenty-four he was in India as a missionary. In 1876 he found it necessary to return to this country for his health. During this visit he was graduated from Drew Theological Seminary in New Jersey.

He returned to India, only to be forced back nine years later. He came back to this country in 1896, 1908, and 1916 as a delegate to the General Conference of the Methodist church.

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS—Contracts for the new Students' Union building will be let this fall.

Hauck and Townsend Studios Are Arranging Appointments.

Junior class pictures for the junior section of the Cornhusker are now being taken at Hauck's Studio and at Townsend's Studio. Students may make appointments at either studio for any time Tuesday and Wednesday.

Beginning Thursday, the Cornhusker staff will assign students for a definite day. Those having any choice of time or photographer are advised to have their pictures taken the first two days. Each studio is able to care for about thirty-five persons a day, so there should be no difficulty in obtaining an appointment.

A list of students and the time of their appointments will be printed in The Daily Nebraskan each day.

Freshman Gridsters Resume Daily Grind

The freshman football squad after a week-end rest reported for practice Monday afternoon. Little time was spent in passing and punting but the squad was divided into three teams each one running signals. The first team was given several Oklahoma plays by Coach Owen Frank who scouted the Oklahoma game last Saturday. No scrimmage was slated for the freshmen yesterday but they will probably be sent against the varsity today. The freshmen are developing rapidly, and Nebraska is represented by one of the strongest first-year teams in the country.

WOMEN'S TENNIS TOURNAMENT STARTS

Expect Many Strong Players to Enter in Annual Competition.

Preparations are now under way for the women's fall tennis tournament which is to start Thursday. Interest in the tournament will be keener than usual because there is no title holder in school. Dorothy Supple, last year's champion, did not return this semester.

A poster has been placed in the west entrance of the Armory on the W. A. A. bulletin board for all entrants to sign. No signatures can be added after Wednesday, because the drawings for the first round must be made that evening. All who enter the contest should meet at 5 o'clock Wednesday in the Armory.

There are a number of strong contenders for the championship this year. Kathro Kidwell, tennis leader, has developed a speedy, accurate game during the summer. Dorothy Dugan, Ruth Wright, Anna Jensen, and Sylvia Kune are showing up well in practice and are among the best players.

The freshmen and sophomore physical education classes are now offering instruction in tennis. This should add interest to the sport and encourage more to enter the tournament.

Hold Tryouts for Men's Glee Club

Special tryouts were held Wednesday of last week and will be held Wednesday of this week for members of the Glee Club. Fifty-six men were selected at the first tryout.

This number will be reduced to forty and they will then begin special work on selections to be sung at the first annual Missouri Valley Glee Club "compet" to be held at Kansas City, February 14, 1925.

The winner of the group will go to New York City later in the spring as representative of the Missouri Valley. The schools to be represented at Kansas City are those in the Missouri Valley athletic conference.

HOLD TRYOUTS FOR PERSHING RIFLES

Will Select New Members of Honorary Military Organization.

Tryouts for the Pershing Rifles, honorary organization of the basic military course, will be held on the drill field at 5 o'clock this evening. All sophomores taking military science and freshmen who have had previous military training are eligible.

Candidates will be rated according to their military ability. The active membership of the Pershing Rifles, assisted by Captains Harding and Hunt of the military department, will judge the candidates.

The men successful in the tryouts will be pledged immediately and will be initiated after the first demonstration drill, which will probably be on Armistice Day.

To Make Plans for Interclass Debates

Announcement of the question and the time for team tryouts for the annual interclass debating tournament will be made within the next few days. The tournament is staged by Delta Sigma Rho, national honorary organization for intercollegiate debaters. A meeting of the society will be held late this week to decide on a question for the debates. The interclass championship was won in 1923 by the freshman team.

Missionaries to Be Guests at Banquet

Dr. and Mrs. E. Stanley Jones, interdenominational missionaries to India, will be the honor guests at a banquet for Methodist young people at St. Paul's Methodist church, Twelfth and M Streets, Friday, October 10, at 6 o'clock. It is under the auspices of the Topeka Branch of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society.

PLAYERS OPEN TICKET SALES

Students Given Opportunity to Purchase Seats for Seven Performances.

UNUSUALLY ATTRACTIVE PROGRAM IS ARRANGED

Season tickets for the University Players go on sale this morning. It is expected that at least fifteen hundred student tickets will be sold during the three days campaign. Student tickets for the matinee are limited to three hundred, due to the demand for matinee seats by the people of Lincoln.

Seven plays will be given during the season, for the evening price of $4, or the matinee price of $3. Single admission for the evening performances will be seventy-five cents, and the matinee price is fifty cents.

However, it is predicted that there will be no single admissions on sale for the matinees because of the large advance sale. An increase in the price of admission is due to the addition of a seventh play to the program.

Ten years ago, the University Players were started by Miss H. Alice Howell, of the Dramatic Department. In 1914 the first play, Ibsen's "Doll House," was presented under the direction of Miss Howell.

The University Players are celebrating their tenth anniversary by presenting five plays for the first time in Lincoln. The season opens October 23, 24 and 25, with "Rollo's Wild Oats." "Thank-You" will be given in November. Other plays to be given are: "Loyalties," December 4, 5 and 6; an evening of one-act plays, February 5, 6 and 7; Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing," February 19, 20 and 21; Pinero's "The Masquerader," March 12, 13 and 14; and either "The Devil's Disciple," "Whispering Pines," or "The Rear Car," will conclude the season's program March 26, 27 and 28.

The sales committee met Monday and campaign work started. Their advice is "to come early and avoid the rush."

The executive committee is composed of Benneth Martin, Pauline Gellatly and Nova Jones.

Following are the members of the sales committee: Benneth Martin, chairman, Marguerite Nichols, Joyce Adair, Louise Hillsbeck, Myrth Alyne Cheney, Margaret Long, Fern Maddox, Frances McChesney, Delores Bosse, Alice DeWitt, Winifred Steele, Martha Dudley, Pauline Barber, Elizabeth Raymond, Eleanor Flatemersch, George Johnson, Royce West, Minor Baird, Joseph Edwards, Frank Mooney and Cecil House.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN—At the end of the first day of balloting in the presidential straw ballot, being conducted at the university by the Detroit Times, the count stood: Coolidge, 342; La Follette, 78; Davis, 48. The School of Engineering cast the majority of the votes for Coolidge.

Discuss Conference At Tuesday Vespers

At the Vespers meeting Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith Hall, the Y. W. C. A. Conference, which was held this summer in Estes Park, will be discussed.

The program will be as follows: Betty Raymond will read the conference report, Freda Barker, president, will discuss the Convention Bible Study activities, Margery Williams will tell of the recreation while at Estes Park. Miss Erma Appleby, secretary of the University Y. W. C. A., will read the resolutions drawn up at the Conference.

The Vesper services are held every Tuesday. Last week Arthur Jorgenson, secretary of the University Y. M. C. A., spoke at the service.

PLAN MONTHLY "COMPETS"

Scabbard and Blade to Give Rings to Best Companies.

Scabbard and Blade, honorary military organization, will give a gold ring to the winning company of monthly "compets." The award will be decided at a parade each month, the companies being judged upon their general excellence at drilling, and their line in the parade.

The ring will be engraved with the name of the Captain of the company, and the date, and will be placed upon the staff of the guidon flag which is carried in the lead of each company.

The ring will remain on the staff. The winning company will carry the colors of the University during the month following the winning of the award. There will be nine inspections during the year.

SELECT CAST FOR FIRST PRODUCTION

University Players Start Rehearsals for "Rollo's Wild Oats."

The cast for "Rollo's Wild Oats," the University Players' opening number, October 23, has been chosen and rehearsals have already begun.

The play is a comedy concerning a young man who aspires to play "Hamlet." The story of his ambitions, trials and the final result furnish some good humor.

The cast follows: Rollo Webster—Dwight Merriam, Lydia Webster—Pauline Gellatly, Goldie—Martha Dudley, Mr. Stein—Harold Sumtion, Hewston—Edward Taylor, Mrs. Parke-Gales—Ruth Schrank, Mrs. Camperdown—Bernard Max-ey, Mr. Lucas—Darrell Starnes, Aunt Lane—Dolores Bosse, Horatio Webster—Hart Jenks, Bella—Lillian Shimmick.

Xi Delta Will Give Dinner This Evening

Xi Delta, sophomore honorary society, will give a "get-acquainted" dinner at Ellen Smith Hall, this afternoon at 6 o'clock. The dinner will follow the Vesper services.

New Xi Delta members will be appointed at the next regular meeting to take the places of those who did not return to school this year.

Ag College Team Defeated at York

The Ag College football team was defeated by York College by an 8-to-0 score Thursday at York. The Ag team made a very creditable showing against the strong York team. The Aggies were greatly handicapped by their lack of experience and practice.

Coach Rufus Dewitz promises better results for the next game.

CHOOSE CLASS LEADERS TODAY

Students Vote at Polls in Council Office From 9 to 5 O'Clock.

WILL ALSO SELECT HONORARY COLONEL

Four class presidents and an honorary colonel for the R. O. T. C. regiment will be elected at the first semester elections held today. Twenty-seven candidates are in the field.

No persons are to be present at the polls today except those who are voting at the time, Emmett V. Maun, president of the student council, declared yesterday. "Each candidate is allowed to have one representative at each voting place, but he must not be inside the room where the ballots are cast," said Mr. Maun. "Students are to enter the room, vote, and immediately leave." The general rules as set forth in the University catalog are as follows:

"Each voter shall check the name of the candidate or candidates for whom he wishes to vote on a ballot furnished him by the election officials, which ballot shall then be deposited by the election officials in its respective box. There shall be a separate ballot for each class.

"No vote shall be solicited by cards or otherwise at the polls in the building in which the election is being held. Nor shall any money be spent on behalf of any candidate. Any candidate violating this rule either in person or thru his porters shall thereby become ineligible.

Balloting will take place on the city campus in the Student council room in the southwest corner of the basement of the Administration building, from 9 o'clock until 5 o'clock. At the College of Agriculture students may vote from 9 o'clock until 5 o'clock at the office of the dean. Results will be known about 6 o'clock and complete returns will appear in The Daily Nebraskan Wednesday.

Biographical sketches of the candidates follow:
