

QUESTIONS USE OF SORORITIES

Women's Pan-Hel Association Thinks Subscription Competitions Unfair.

COUNCIL IS ASKED TO MAKE RULINGS

A resolution questioning the fairness and good taste of competitive campaigns among women's fraternities was passed at a meeting of the Women's Pan-Hellenic Association held yesterday at 1 o'clock.

The Woman's Pan-Hellenic Association questions the fairness and good taste of the present practice of promoting sales for student undertakings by seeking to foster a spirit of inter-group rivalry among members of women's fraternities.

The Women's Pan-Hellenic Association suggests that the matter of sales campaigns be handled by the Student Council which may either call for volunteers or appoint sales committees.

Dorothy Brown, who was secretary of Pan-Hellenic last year, brought the suggestion of Valkyrie that Pan-Hellenic was the organization which should take up this matter.

DECLARES DAVIS IS GAINING STRENGTH

Judge Thomas, Democratic Senatorial Nominee, Says LaFollette Is Losing.

"LaFollette is losing and Davis is gaining strength every day," Judge J. J. Thomas, Democratic nominee for Senator, told the University Davis-Bryan Club at a luncheon in the Grand Hotel yesterday noon.

Judge Thomas expressed his appreciation of the interest taken in politics by the students and declared that the highest duty of every young man is to take an active and intelligent interest in such matters.

"It is not the number of people who go to the polls, but the number who vote intelligently," he continued.

"I am especially glad to see so many young women interested in politics," Judge Thomas declared.

225 JUNIORS HAVE HAD PHOTOS MADE

Only Two and One-half Weeks Left in Which Pictures Can Be Taken.

Two hundred and twenty-five juniors have had their pictures taken. Only two and one-half weeks are left in which junior pictures may be taken.

It is impossible for the editor to make any exceptions to this rule because the panels will have to be made up immediately after November 12 and sent to the engraver.

The same rule applies to sororities, with the exception of pledges, who may be added to the list later.

Both studios are doing the same quality of work, and the price is the same at each studio.

The first copy of the Awgwan will appear today. Each student who has subscribed may get his copy by presenting his receipt at the Station A postoffice.

Son John Writes Home to Ask Dad to Attend Banquet and Missouri Game

Dear Dad: Just a line to let you know that I want you to be sure and be here this Saturday, November 1, for Dads' Day and the Missouri football game.

We have set this day aside for your entertainment and you are to be the guest of the entire University.

There will be a banquet at the Armory at noon and several good speakers including Coach Dawson, director of athletics, Dean Engberg, and J. E. Miller, ex-regent, will talk.

The banquet is to be changed this year from other years because we are going to be seated at tables and we are going to have the women and their dads along with us.

Be sure and come down, Dad, because all the rest will be here, and I'll feel rather out of place if I don't have you with me.

Your son, JOHN.

WRIGHT WINS FIRST IN TENNIS SINGLES

Defeats Grace Modlin in Women's Championship; Is Ranking Player.

Ruth Wright, '27, Mendota, Ill., won the women's tennis-singles championship Tuesday afternoon by defeating Grace Modlin, '28, Ulysses, 6-2; 4-6; 6-4.

Accurate placement shots, ace services, and hard drives brought the champion the first and last sets.

Hard-fought duce games marked the last two sets of the match. The runner-up did not find herself until the second set but a rally gave her that score.

The women's doubles tournament will be played off by classes this week, the freshmen playing the juniors, and the sophomores playing the seniors.

THORPE WILL BE FORUM SPEAKER

Republican Candidate for Congress Will Give Address Today at Grand Hotel.

ASKS FOR SUPPORT OF UNIVERSITY VOTERS

The principles of the Republican movement will be presented to the University students today by R. H. Thorpe, Republican candidate for United States Representative from the first congressional district at a luncheon at the Grand Hotel, today at 12 o'clock.

At the last two meetings, the LaFollette movement was presented by C. A. Sorensen, a local lawyer, and the Democratic movement was explained by H. B. Fleharty of Omaha, candidate for state attorney-general. Mr. Thorpe, if elected, pledges to use his best efforts to "sustain the business of agriculture on an equal basis with all other industries of the nation."

During his term in the Sixty-seventh Congress, Mr. Thorpe spoke against the nullification of prohibition. He handled fifty-five claims for World War service men, and out of the twenty-eight appointments that were apportioned to him, eighty per cent went to service men.

If tickets are purchased before Wednesday morning for the luncheon, they will be 25c. They will be sold at the door for 35c.

HOLD TRYOUTS ON THURSDAY

Any Student Eligible for Tryout of Dramatic Club.

Tryouts for Dramatic Club will be held Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the Temple.

This year the members of the Dramatic Club plan an active program. As soon as the new members are initiated many new plays will be taken under consideration and work on public performances will begin.

During its existence on the campus the club has sponsored many public performances both at the University and at downtown theaters.

At the time of the war, however, many of its most active members became engaged in war work and the club lost much of its life.

Pi Phi Members to Be Barmaids

At Annual Military Carnival

The military carnival, to be held November 8 under the auspices of the Scabbard and Blade, the honorary military fraternity, will take the form of a "wild west" carnival.

Spanish dancing will be one of the features of the evening. The Pi Phi sororities have been adding new steps to the old ones, and a good-sized entertainment will be the result.

Dads' Day Nebraskan To Be Mailed Today

Copies of today's special Dads' Day Nebraskan will be sent out from booths on the campus today by the Vikings to the dads of all University students free of charge.

"But do more than that—after mailing the paper, write a personal letter of your own. Better do that today, before you forget it, and urge the 'old man' to witness the Missouri game," committee members urge.

FRATERNITIES TO SELL TAGS

Greek Freshmen Take Over Plans for Sending Band to Notre Dame.

IS IN ACCORDANCE WITH PAN-HEL RULE

In accordance with the ruling handed down by the Pan-Hellenic council Tuesday afternoon, the Tag Day scheduled for today will be conducted by the fraternities instead of the sororities.

The campaign, opening this morning, will last all day. Students will be asked to contribute but ten cents toward a "Nebraska band in South Bend." This money, plus the contributions of fifteen dollars by each member of the band and a donation from the athletic department, will send a band of forty pieces to Notre Dame for the football game November 15.

With the large number of students that will be sent by city stores and the large number that furnish their own transportation, it is predicted that five hundred students will be in South Bend for the annual clash between the Irish and the Cornhuskers.

"We hope that every student will contribute at least a dime toward sending the band on this trip," Emmett V. Maun, chairman of the campaign stated.

"The band is making many personal sacrifices to go and deserve the loyal support of every student. There is not a game nor an athletic event at which the band has not been present and the students may show a measure of appreciation by contributing to the fund to send the band with the team," Mr. Maun asserted.

FRAT HARRIERS TO HOLD ANNUAL MEET

Will Allow Any Man to Run; Combine Class and College Contests in One.

The annual interfraternity cross-country run will be held November 14, two weeks from Friday. Any man will be allowed to run in this meet according to present plans.

Each runner entered will be eligible to represent his college, class and fraternity for the final count. Last fall, there were almost sixty men entered in the meet.

DISAPPROVE ACT OF COMMITTEE

Student Council Members Pass Resolution on Action of Faculty Senate.

CLAIM CONTROL OF UNI ORGANIZATIONS

A resolution expressing disapproval of the action of the committee on student organizations in penalizing fraternities and sororities for violation of University rules on freshman "sneak nights" was passed by the Student Council at a meeting Monday night in University Hall 106.

Whereas, the Student Council is a representative of the student body, and

Whereas, all matters concerning student organizations and the student body should rightfully be referred to the Student Council for consideration, and

Whereas, the Committee on Student Organizations failed to refer to the Student Council the matter concerning the penalizing of certain fraternities and sororities, and

Whereas, the penalty declared by the Committee, in our estimation, falls in its purpose and is inadequate and insufficient,

We, the members of the Student Council, hereby resolve and publicly announce that we do not sanction the action of the Committee on Student Organizations and do not approve of the punishment imposed and the statements issued in explanation of such punishment.

EMMETT V. MAUN, President.

Eight sororities and nine fraternities will be deprived of the privilege of giving more than one house-dance this semester and of giving the first downtown party which they have scheduled, according to the penalty fixed by the committee on student organizations after investigating parties given by these groups on "sneak nights." These parties were held on week nights and were, in most cases, unchaperoned.

RULES READ TO ALL PRESIDENTS

Emphasis Is Laid on Party Regulations in Regular Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the presidents of all campus organizations was held last night at Ellen Smith Hall. Dean Amanda Heppner, chairman of the Committee on Student Organizations, presided.

Particular emphasis was made on the rules concerning the scheduling of parties and the listing of chaperones. All parties must be listed at the Dean's office at least two days in advance and the names of the chaperones must also be submitted.

Particular emphasis was made on the rules concerning the scheduling of parties and the listing of chaperones. All parties must be listed at the Dean's office at least two days in advance and the names of the chaperones must also be submitted.

Another point brought up was the fact that women have been entertained at men's houses on Sundays when there were no chaperones present and the men are to schedule the event and names at the Dean's office beforehand.

A question was put up for the consideration of the students by Dean Engberg. Because of the new trust formed, due to the control by one man of all the orchestras, he thought that it was a good time for the students to strike and bring down the prices.

Methodist Students To Meet at Banquet

A banquet for all Methodist students will be given Thursday from 8 to 8 o'clock at the Grand Hotel. Chancellor Schreckengast of the Nebraska Wesleyan University will speak on the subject "Life Building." Wendell Berge, chairman of the program committee, will introduce the speaker. Vocal solos will be given by Parvin C. Witte and Oscar Ben-
