Douglas Fairbanks
THE THIEF OF BAGDAD

Do you still believe in love?
Does adventure stir you?
Do you like the idea of your heart missing several beats in ecstatic moments of exciting suspense?
Do you enjoy the surprise of seeing things that you hadn't even dreamed were possible?
Here are all these things—in a background of beauty and splendor.

A Winged Horse flies through the clouds.
A Magic Rug soars above the housetops.
Wonder after wonder—
Surprise after surprise.

Will not be shown anywhere else in this city, this year.

SOCCER PRACTICE TO BE HELD SATURDAY

Will Take Place of One Scheduled for Thursday; Few Out for Teams.

An extra practice in soccer is to be held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Anyone who wishes may sign on the bulletin posted in the west entrance of the Armory. This additional practice has been arranged to take the place of the one which will be missed by the holiday next Thursday. Those who have not yet been out for soccer still have time to make the ten practices necessary to make the team. There are more than three weeks of the season in which to play. With three practices each week any coed could manage to get the specified number. Fewer women have signed for the sport than in the past few years and the teams will be easier to make for that reason.

Monthly Meeting of Chaperones Is Held

The monthly meeting of the Chaperones Club was held Tuesday afternoon at the Delta Delta Delta house with Mrs. Sam Waugh, Mrs. Emma Holyoke, Mrs. Anna Knapp, and Mrs. F. H. Beedle acting as hostesses. Several musical numbers consisting of piano solos, flute numbers, and singing were given by Jeanette Olson, '26, Lincoln; Charlene Cooper, '27, Aurora; and Grace Rogge, '27, Elmwood.

WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY—A special pink paper was put out in the celebration after the Washington and Lee eleven scored on the powerful West Virginia team in the last quarter. They had been scheduled to lose by at least four touchdowns but in the last two minutes of play they scored the only touchdown of the game, making the final score 6-0.

"Too Lovely for Words!"

You'll sigh when you see the Handkerchiefs at Rudge & Guenzel's, for hankies seem to excel even themselves this year. Feminine ones, in white or gay colors, made exquisite with handwork and lace. Whether your purse permits only half-a-dozen plain linen ones, or the most fairylike of hand-made affairs, I know you'll be pleased with your purchase of handkerchiefs if you buy them at Rudge & Guenzel's.

chine on her own field 16 to 7." This was the opening sentence of the story of how Nebraska defeated the University of Iowa at Iowa City. The kicking of Captain Halligan scored ten of the Nebraska points; he made three of the four place-kicks he tried. The one touchdown made by Nebraska was carried by Rutherford.

All kinds of resorts were tried by the Nebraska students to get to Iowa City. One of the favorite ways was raffling-boards which were carried over the campus. About twenty-five dollars could be realized on every board. Dean Engberg was inclined to think that "raffling-boards are all-fired nuisances and petty gambling games."
