

TWO MEETS FOR MATMEN SIGNED

Coach R. G. Clapp Will Go to Chicago to Confer with Wrestling Mentors.

DECLARES PROSPECTS FOR SEASON ARE GOOD

Two home meets are already scheduled and another almost assured, as the season for the mat artists advances. One meet away from home has been considered so far. Dr. R. G. Clapp, wrestling coach, president of the Western Intercollegiate Gymnastic, Wrestling and Fencing Association, will go to a meeting at Chicago, Friday and Saturday, where the present season schedule will be arranged and changes of rules discussed. Early-season prospects for the team are good, according to the coach.

Northwestern University and Iowa State College will meet the Husker bone-crushers on the local mat, according to a two-year contract signed by each school last season. A new two-year contract has been signed, and will probably be passed by the athletic board of control, calling for a meet with Iowa University at Iowa City this season and another here next year. Kansas University is willing to sign another two-year contract which will bring the Jayhawk team to Lincoln.

Decide on Rules.

Dr. Clapp was elected president of the Western Intercollegiate Gymnastic, Wrestling and Fencing Association at the last meeting, which followed the Western intercollegiate meets in the three sports. The next meeting, to be held Friday and Saturday of this week, will be to decide upon the present schedule, and any changes in the rules. A meeting of the Missouri Valley conference coaches will also be held soon.

"Nebraska has good prospects for the coming season," stated Coach Clapp. "The 125-pound class will be the hardest place to fill on the team." Ex-captain Kellogg, who won the western intercollegiate championship in this class will in all probability wrestle in the 135-pound group this year.

Captain Skinner Returns.

Captain Skinner, who also won his match at Chicago last year, will be wrestling in the 145-pound section as usual. Blore, 115-pound wrestler, who placed third in the same meet in his event is working out daily. Joy, a new prospect will make a good bid for the 125-pound group. He is taking up the sport for the first time this year.

Thomas, who wrestled in the 156-pound class last year is not in school so this class is also open. Three men are making a strong attempt at winning a place on the team in this class, but Lundy is the best prospect.

Highley, who wrestled the heavyweight division, may go down to the 175-pound group this season. In the heavyweight field a group of football players who have signified their intention of going out for the sport. Uhler and Mooberry are the other two letter-men lost by graduation. They both wrestled in the 135-pound group. Claude Swindell, who assisted in the coaching last season, is back on the job this fall.

gears were expected soon and it was said that the sophomores were expecting to indulge in a big celebration as soon as they arrived.

Considerable comment was rife among the students on the campus regarding the public posting of a certain student's name, who for general inefficiency in work, had

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA WANTS NEBRASKA GAME

Schedule-making, which has all the thrills and uncertainty of a high-class poker game, is now in progress with University athletic authorities. Four Valley opponents are now on the schedule, having two-year contracts. Drake, which finished this season with only one defeat, may also be added to the list. The Bulldogs have been seeking a game for some time and their wish may be granted this year.

Notre Dame, minus the "four horsemen," will come to Lincoln next year. Illinois will be played at Urbana, as the Illini are held by a two-year contract.

Loses Standing.

The University of Southern California is said to have made attractive offers for a game on the coast. There is considerable doubt in the minds of the fans whether this offer will be accepted. U. S. C., through recent been requested to withdraw from the University. The general opinion was that the branding of the student as a failure would work no good for either the school or the student. The feeling was that a private dismissal would have been more beneficial and at the same time would have accomplished all that a dismissal could.

The annual county fair of the Y. W. C. A. was to be held in the Armory. It was said that all objectionable features had been eliminated and there was to be nothing worse than striking machines and nigger-baby throwing contests. To please the freshmen, a well known juvenile entertainment entitled "Punch and Judy" was to be presented. Each of the sororities and a number of the fraternities were to conduct exhibits.

wrangles with California and Stanford, has lost caste, and it might not be the best policy to enter into athletic relations with them.

Oklahoma, Missouri, Notre Dame and either the Kansas Aggies or K. U. will make up the home slate. There is some possibility that the Aggies or K. U. will be played away from home, to equalize the schedule with Kansas teams.

Colgate and the Oregon Aggies, on this year's schedule, will not be played next year. Neither team offers anything startling in football or gate receipts.

The scheduling of Big Ten teams is still in the air. The Big Ten directors have been very coy about entering into contracts with Nebraska. They are not looking for particularly stiff opposition from non-conference teams, unless that opposition is provided by some representative of the effete east. In that case a victory would be particularly delightful.
