

WILL SPEAK ON ORIENTAL VIEWS

Jorgenson Will Present Eastern Ideas of Life at World Forum Luncheon.

CHINA AND JAPAN TO BE FIELD OF SPEECH

"The Oriental Views of Life" will be the topic of the weekly World Forum address and discussion tomorrow at the Grand Hotel.

The address is part of a series of lectures and discussions being held by the Forum group on the different views of life.

Should Increase Respect. "We should be impressed by Oriental and Eastern views," said Mr. Jorgenson.

The inspiration and direction of Confucianism and Buddhism in Japan and the far East will be a main topic of the address.

The address will start promptly at 12 o'clock in order to allow time for discussion after the speech.

Will Meet at Ag College to Finish Dolls Started for Omaha Hospital.

CAMPUS CLUB TO COMPLETE GIFTS

The Campus Club will meet this evening on the third floor of the Home Economics Building on the College of Agriculture campus.

Those who wish to go to the farm cafeteria for dinner will meet at 5:45 o'clock in the lobby of the Temple, where transportation will be provided.

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS—A sure cure for freckles has been discovered. This remarkable discovery was made by a senior girl after she had complained about the number of freckles which showed on the proofs of her picture for the Jayhawker.

UNIVERSITY OF OHIO—University students as well as business men will be affected by the enlargement of the two-hour parking zone.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA—Two thousand men are needed to participate in the bleacher stunts which are being prepared for the Pennsylvania-California game.

GISH WILL MANAGE INDOOR TRACK MEET

Valley Officials Vote to Hold Annual Contest at Kansas City Gymnasium.

Herbert Gish of the athletic department will manage the annual Missouri Valley indoor track meet at Kansas City this year.

Prof. Lawrence Bruner, instructor in entomology, is slowly recovering from a serious operation at St. Elizabeth's hospital.

WILL SPEAK AT VESPERS

Former Cuban Missionary Will Tell of Quaker Faith.

Miss Mary Cracken, a former missionary in Cuba, now a special student at the University, will speak at Vespers in Ellen Smith Hall, at 5 o'clock tonight on the subject of "High-Lights in a Quaker Girl's Faith."

UNSOLD ARTICLES TO BE AUCTIONED TODAY

Surplus from Y. W. C. A. Bazaar Will Be Sold the Hour Before Vespers.

Articles not sold at the annual Y. W. C. A. bazaar will be auctioned from 4 to 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Several of the articles from the novelty and baby booths were left, and a great many handkerchiefs, guest towels and aprons were not sold in the linen booth.

It is necessary that these things be sold in order to complete the fund used to send the Y. W. C. A. representatives to the annual conference.

ANNUAL SIGMA TAU BANQUET IS GIVEN

Prof. J. B. Davidson Is Honored Guest of Honorary Engineering Fraternity.

Professor J. B. Davidson, '04, Grand President of Sigma Tau, was honored guest of the honorary engineering fraternity at its banquet at Hotel Lincoln Saturday evening.

Don J. Young, engineering instructor, acted as toastmaster. Talks were given by Professor Davidson, Dean O. J. Ferguson, of the College of Engineering, C. A. Sjogren, instructor in mechanical engineering, C. W. Roberts, '06, contractor, and Homer Kinsinger, '26.

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS—A sure cure for freckles has been discovered. This remarkable discovery was made by a senior girl after she had complained about the number of freckles which showed on the proofs of her picture for the Jayhawker.

UNIVERSITY OF OHIO—University students as well as business men will be affected by the enlargement of the two-hour parking zone.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA—Two thousand men are needed to participate in the bleacher stunts which are being prepared for the Pennsylvania-California game.

IRVIN COBB DISPUTES WITH PHILOSOPHY PROFESSORS ON WEARING OF KNICKERS

A controversy is raging between Irvin S. Cobb, well-known author, humorist and newspaperman, and Prof. Charles Gray Shaw of the department of philosophy of New York University, over the social and political implications of the wearing of knickers.

"To be or not to be, that is the question. But in the discussion raging between Irvin S. Cobb, and Professor Charles Gray Shaw of the Philosophy Department, the question is knickers. Mr. Cobb hotly maintains that knickers are democratic, and Professor Shaw stoutly takes the opposite position.

"Mr. Cobb points out that, 'The only reason Professor Charles Gray Shaw can possibly believe that knickerbockers are aristocratic is because he hasn't seen me wearing a pair.' He further adds, 'Not only do I expect Professor Shaw to be smothered in a high and rising tide of pants discarded by the unfettered legs of democratic Americans but I will go so far as to say that Professor Shaw, for anatomical reasons, having none of the democratic spirit which inspired me to show the great expanse of my legs to an uninterested world, dares not expose his underpinnings.'

Former Nebraskan Is With Oregon School

John L. Osborne, who worked for his M. A. degree in this university, is now connected with the department of zoology and comparative anatomy at the Oregon State Agricultural College at Corvallis.

MRS. MORRISON TO READ DRAMA

"The Fool," by Channing Pollock Will Be Presented at Temple Tonight.

FIVE COMPANIES ARE STAGING THE PLAY

Bess Gerhart Morrison, a native of Nebraska, will give a reading of "The Fool," at the Temple theater, Tuesday evening.

Unusual interpretation is given the play by Mrs. Morrison, who performs the difficult task of making her hearers feel the characterization of the individuals who figure in the play without the advantages of any stage settings or costumes.

Two years ago, Mrs. Morrison gave "The Copperhead" at the University of Nebraska. The drama in which she is appearing this year is being played by five different companies throughout the country.

ENGINEERS PLAN FOR SMOKER IN JANUARY

Plans were made for the Engineers' smoker to be held the second Wednesday following the Christmas vacation at a meeting 10 o'clock Friday.

The tickets will sell for twenty-five cents. The following committees were appointed by Willard Tumball: Location—R. V. Hughes, chairman, Ted Strong, and E. R. Beckord.

M. C. Kimberly, '20, With Edison Company

Mervyn C. Kimberly, '20, is doing engineering work in connection with the underground service department of the Commonwealth Edison Company of Chicago.

Three battles will compose the card of today's interfraternity basketball tournament games in the second round of play which will be finished this week.

THREE GAMES ARE ON PROGRAM TODAY

Interfraternity Contest Enters Second Round; To Be Finished This Week.

GAMES TODAY.

Phi Gamma Delta—Silver Lynx, 4 o'clock.

Delta Tau Delta—Sigma Nu, 4:20.

Pi Delta Chi—Alpha Tau Omega, 5:20.

MATMEN SLATE FOUR CONTESTS

Schedule Meets With Northwestern, Ames, Iowa, and Probably Minnesota.

VALLEY CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNEY WILL BE HERE

Nebraska Wrestling Schedule. Jan. 31.—Open. Feb. 7.—Open. Feb. 14.—Ames at Nebraska.

DORSEY BARNES GETS INDIVIDUAL HONORS

The livestock judging team which represented the University of Nebraska at the international contest returned Sunday after winning the championship at the world's largest judging contest.

A Nebraska man, Dorsey Barnes, Loretto, received the first individual honors in the contest and Honor M. Oschner, Madison, received fourth individual honors.

This judging team has a better record than any other stock-judging team that has ever represented the University of Nebraska.

Dr. Clapp was re-elected president of the Western Intercollegiate Gymnastic, Wrestling and Fencing Association at the meeting. E. G. Schroeder of Iowa was elected to the post of secretary of the association.

PALLADIANS GIVE ANNUAL BANQUET

Seventy-five Attend Fifty-third Affair of Oldest Literary Society.

The Palladian Literary Society held its fifty-third annual banquet at the Lincoln Hotel, Saturday, December 6. About seventy-five members of the society attended.

The Palladian Literary Society has the distinction of being the oldest organization on the campus.

Professor Boots Reviews Two Books

Prof. R. S. Boots is reviewing "Political Parties of Today," a book written by Arthur Holcombe of Harvard University, for the American Political Science Review, a quarterly publication.

"Color Organ" Will Be Played at City Auditorium by its Inventor, Wilfred

Songs without sounds, cadenzas of color, ceaseless rhythmic motion of fantastic forms on a large white screen—this is what happens when Thomas Wilfred, pioneer in the art of light, its down at the keyboard of his instrument, the Clavilux which is coming to Lincoln on Tuesday, December 16, under the auspices of the American Legion.

"The Clavilux contains formless white light plus all possibilities, and if an unskilled person moved the keys the result on the screen would be only ugly splashes of muddy colors. The artist, however, bends the light into beautiful forms and makes them move gracefully over the screen in slow rhythm. He then fills them with interlacing gorgeous colors that change with the rhythm, brings in other forms in other rhythms and colors, finally working up to a climax that well nigh takes your breath away.

To Attend Meeting of National Educators

H. E. Bradford, chairman of the department of vocational education, and Miss Helen Halm, professor of vocational education, will attend the meetings of the National Society for Vocational Education at Indianapolis, December 10-13.

HUSKER JUDGING TEAM IS WINNER

Livestock Pickers Take Championship at International Meet at Chicago.

DORSEY BARNES GETS INDIVIDUAL HONORS

The livestock judging team which represented the University of Nebraska at the international contest returned Sunday after winning the championship at the world's largest judging contest.

A Nebraska man, Dorsey Barnes, Loretto, received the first individual honors in the contest and Honor M. Oschner, Madison, received fourth individual honors.

This judging team has a better record than any other stock-judging team that has ever represented the University of Nebraska.

PALLADIANS GIVE ANNUAL BANQUET

Seventy-five Attend Fifty-third Affair of Oldest Literary Society.

The Palladian Literary Society held its fifty-third annual banquet at the Lincoln Hotel, Saturday, December 6. About seventy-five members of the society attended.

The Palladian Literary Society has the distinction of being the oldest organization on the campus.

Professor Boots Reviews Two Books

Prof. R. S. Boots is reviewing "Political Parties of Today," a book written by Arthur Holcombe of Harvard University, for the American Political Science Review, a quarterly publication.

"Color Organ" Will Be Played at City Auditorium by its Inventor, Wilfred

Songs without sounds, cadenzas of color, ceaseless rhythmic motion of fantastic forms on a large white screen—this is what happens when Thomas Wilfred, pioneer in the art of light, its down at the keyboard of his instrument, the Clavilux which is coming to Lincoln on Tuesday, December 16, under the auspices of the American Legion.

"The Clavilux contains formless white light plus all possibilities, and if an unskilled person moved the keys the result on the screen would be only ugly splashes of muddy colors. The artist, however, bends the light into beautiful forms and makes them move gracefully over the screen in slow rhythm. He then fills them with interlacing gorgeous colors that change with the rhythm, brings in other forms in other rhythms and colors, finally working up to a climax that well nigh takes your breath away.

ART CLUB INITIATES SIX STUDENTS

Students Are Taken in at Meeting Held Last Thursday.

Six students were initiated into the Art Club last Thursday evening. Following is a list of the initiates: Rose Faytinger, '26, David City. Gertrude Whiting, '25, Albion. Isabelle Van Landingham, '27, Lincoln.

PARTY COMMITTEE WILL MEET TODAY

Will Form Plans for Christmas All-University Affair Saturday Evening.

Plans for the annual all-University Christmas party, which will be held Saturday night in the Armory, will be made at a meeting of the committee Tuesday afternoon.

The Christmas party is an established custom and has been held regularly in years past with the exception of those of the war. It has generally been followed by an all-University program around the Christmas tree before the close of school for the holidays.

The Christmas party is an established custom and has been held regularly in years past with the exception of those of the war. It has generally been followed by an all-University program around the Christmas tree before the close of school for the holidays.

DAVIDSON SPEAKS ON ENGINEERING

Sigma Tau Guest Addresses Orientation Class of Agricultural College.

Professor J. B. Davidson, week-end guest of Sigma Tau, honorary engineering fraternity, spoke on "Agricultural Engineering—Its History and Development" before the orientation section of agricultural engineers at the College of Agriculture campus Saturday morning.

In his lecture, Professor Davidson sketched the origin and history of agricultural engineering, and its field—past, present, and future. He mentioned the achievements of several prominent graduates in that branch of engineering.

Professor Davidson is a graduate and former faculty member of the University of Nebraska. He is now head of the departments of agricultural and mechanical engineering at Iowa State College.

VASSAR COLLEGE—The influence of the cross-word puzzle has reached Vassar, where a group of women have banded together for the purpose of working out the latest "brain-wracker."

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE—All students entering college who did not make high grades in high school will be placed in a B class where they will be given the counsel and sympathy of a faculty member.

McGILL UNIVERSITY—Freshman rules are somewhat strict: no freshman may walk on the sidewalks of the campus; each new man must wear his faculty colors in the button of his coat.

SAYS TICKET SALE IS GOOD

Martin Wants Students to Buy Admissions to Cornhusker Banquet Early.

SELLING WILL STOP AFTER FRIDAY NOON

The first few days' ticket sale for the Cornhusker banquet, to be held next Friday night, December 12, at 6 o'clock at the Scottish Rite Temple, was successful, according to Bennett S. Martin in charge of the sales.

Plans have been made to have the 1924 Cornhusker banquet the "best yet." The dining room is being planned to accommodate about 1,300 according to the latest estimates.

All fraternity houses have been requested to close their tables Friday night, and attend the banquet. Tickets have been sent to fraternity houses for the convenience of students, and may be obtained from the various representative sellers.

Leon Hamilton Comes Back for Short Visit

Leon S. Hamilton, Civil Engineering, '19, paid a brief visit to the campus last week.

NEED MORE MEN OUT FOR SWIMMING TEAM

Candidates for Diving, Plunging and Backstroke Events Are Scarce.

More men are needed in all classes on the swimming team, which is working out every day at the Y. M. C. A.

Letters are given to all men who average at least two points to a meet or place in the Missouri Valley meet. Freshmen are asked to attend the class even though they will not be eligible until next year.

HOUSE ANIMALS IN BESSEY HALL ROOMS

Few students have ever heard of, much less seen, the animal quarters on the third floor of Bessey Hall. Here are housed all specimens used for experiments by the departments of parasitology, anatomy, and zoology.

There is a cage of pigeons in one corner that are being used in an experiment in inoculation by Dr. D. D. Whitney. The cages on one side house a jackrabbit, a night heron winged near Lincoln by a hunter, and a duck which met the same fate.

Rabbits are used for much the same purposes, and guinea pigs are important to the research in genetics. In addition to the third floor quarters, animals of a different species are housed in the basement quarters.

Here are found the frogs, turtles, alligators, and such additional water animals as are in demand in the laboratories.