

WILL DISPLAY NEW MAGAZINE

First Chance to Subscribe to Missouri Valley Sports Given Tonight.

ARTICLES ON WEIR AND VOLZ IN SECOND ISSUE

Nebraska students will have their first opportunity to subscribe to the Missouri Valley Sports magazine at the Cornhusker Banquet tonight at the Scottish Rite Temple. There will be a table on the main floor of the temple where valley athletic supporters can obtain the second issue of the weekly, and fill out subscription blanks.

Cornhusker athletics have been featured in the second issue of the publication. On the first page there is a writeup about Captain Ed Weir and his all-American honors. A picture of Weir is included with the story.

Under the heading "Captains of Valley teams," there is a feature story about the college life and athletic achievements of Mathias Volz, captain of the Scarlet and Cream cage quintet. A full-length cut of Volz in basketball suit accompanies the article.

Walter Eckersall devotes his weekly column to a discussion of the inter-sectional football games during the holidays. His all-Western selections are also included. Grantland Rice in his feature article discusses the selections of all-American teams.

Complete dope on the basketball outlook at the various conference institutions is included in this issue. Practice has begun at all valley schools, and, according to the reports, the valley cage race will be fiercely contested this year. An article on basketball by Forrest Allen, director of athletics at Kansas University, is included in the second issue.

A full account of the proceedings of the Missouri Valley conference association meeting at Kansas City last Saturday is included this week. A story of the athletic career of Bob Simpson, one time world's champion in the hurdles is found in the department "Athletes of the Past."

This Missouri Valley Sports is published every Friday at Kansas City, and is devoted to the interest of Missouri Valley conference athletics. The price of the publication is ten cents per copy, or two-fifty for a year's subscription. Miss Durkee in the Athletic office is taking subscriptions from those unable to see the publication representatives on the campus.

THIRTY TURN OUT FOR RIFLE TEAM

Candidates Hear Speech From Major Erickson in Meeting Wednesday.

Thirty men turned out for the meeting of the Varsity rifle squad at the indoor range in Nebraska Hall Wednesday evening. The men worked out and heard speeches by Major Sidney Erickson, Donald P. Roberts, and Paul Treadwell.

No official tryouts were held as the meeting was held to acquaint the men with each other and to work out some on the range. Several matches are being planned with other universities.

LEWIS WATCHES WRESTLING TEAM

Famous Athlete Sees First Workout of Minnesota Grappling Squad.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA, Minneapolis.—"Strangler" Ed Lewis watched the University wrestling team, which will probably meet Nebraska at Lincoln during February, work out here at one of the Varsity practices.

Lewis, the peer of heavyweight grapplers, and Grebmir, Curtis, and Ordeman, other prominent figures in the mat sport, were present and saw a fast workout. Lewis may be persuaded to establish his training quarters in the University gym during his stay in the Twin Cities, according to reports.

Many valuable pointers will be picked up if the leaders of the wrestling game train at the University, says the Minnesota Daily. A winning team is expected.

Twenty Years Ago

A new constitution had been formulated by the Inter-Class Athletic Board to take care of all disputes in the inter-class athletic meets. Among the conditions laid down were these:

1. A man could serve on only one class team during the season.
2. "N" men were barred from the department in which they had received their letters.
3. Everyone was considered a freshman who had less than thirty hours credit; sophomores between thirty and sixty-five; juniors between sixty-five and ninety-five; and seniors with ninety-five to one hundred and twenty-five hours credit.

Fourteen members of the football team received the "N". The men who played a full half game in any one of the three "Big Nine" games received the letters.

CAGEMEN WORK ON OFFENSIVE

Coach Kline's Basketball Squad Now Going Through Stiff Practices.

PROSPECTS FOR SEASON EXCEPTIONALLY BRIGHT

With the basketball season opening soon after Christmas vacation, Coach Kline is putting his men through a stiff pace of offensive playing every day. Seven letter men are among the men out for the sport this season, and the prospects for the present season look exceptionally bright. Last year the Huskers finished the season in third place, and the majority of the games lost by the Husker quintet were lost with close scores.

The first team lineup as they have been sent against the second team include Captain Volz and Milo Tipton at guard; ex-captain Usher and Leo Black are hitting the pace in forward position while Orr Goodson is playing at pivot position. This is no time to pick teams, however, and every man out is getting a chance to show his goods with the letter men.

Wilmer Beerke, who played forward last season, is out for this position again, while Fred Extrom is taking turns with Goodson at center. Extrom is also a clever guard.

Kenneth Cozier, forward of last season will be missed this season, but the three other forwards of last season who won letters will be setting a stiff pace by the time the teams swing into action. Rufus Dewitz and Harlan Wyant are the other two men lost by graduation. Mathias Volz and Milo Tipton are a pair of guards who will make it hard on any opponent.

Besides the seven letter men back this year there are some freshmen of last season who are showing ability at the game. Coach Kline has a better line on the material than was possible last season, and with the interfraternity basketball tournament at the first of the season he will be able to pick new men of ability for his squad. Coach Kline has always developed great teams and the prospects are bright for the Husker quintet. Kline is generally considered the man who originated the now-famous five-man defense.

For Young Men There is nothing like a STETSON

MOST young men today know the importance of looking fit. Good appearance counts much in the game of life. The young man who dresses with taste has a decided advantage.

But—it is surprising how little thought the average man gives to his hat. It is his crown, yet he seems to stop dressing at the neck.

Be careful in your selection of your headwear. When you buy a hat, select a Stetson. Its style is right, its quality means long wear.

Mr. Mason Wheeler, '06, Columbia, '09, Lincoln, were judges at a debate last night between Lincoln high school and Abraham high school of Council Bluffs at the Lincoln high school auditorium. The debate was on the League of Nations.
