

TO HOLD TRACK PRELIMINARIES

Tryouts for K. C. A. C. Indoor Meet Are Planned at the Stadium Thursday.

MUST ENTER DURING FIRST PART OF WEEK

Entries for preliminary tryouts for the K. C. A. C. indoor track meet February 7 must be received at the stadium early this week. The prelims will be held on the indoor track in the Stadium Thursday.

Coach Henry F. Schulte is progressing rapidly in his work with the indoor squad. Daily workouts are rounding the men into shape so that the team should be in excellent condition for the first meet of the season. "We are shooting at a record record this season," says Coach Schulte. "Our motto is '500 men in track.'"

Workmen are putting the finishing touches on the track. Dragging and rolling have put the cinders in excellent shape for practice. The jumping pits have also been improved and a board straightaway has been laid down running the length of the track. Lights and heat make the stadium an ideal place to work out.

Freshmen as well as upperclassmen are urged to sign up on the bulletin board in the locker rooms and to try out for positions on the team which will represent Nebraska at Kansas City. The number of the squad has not been definitely determined. The events are as follows: 50-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 660-yard dash, 880-yard run, mile run, 2-mile run, 60-yard high hurdles, 50-yard low hurdles, shot put, high jump broad jump, and pole vault.

ABANDON TRIP FOR WRESTLING SQUAD

Ineligibility of Team Members Causes Southern Journey to Be Called Off.

The bugbear of ineligibility has hit the Nebraska wrestling camp. The result of it is that a southern trip for the wrestlers this week has had to be definitely called off and the grapplers will not meet the teams of the University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma A. and M. College, and the University of Texas as previously planned. The meets were to have been this week.

Although actual ineligibility has not been found in many of the wrestlers the grades of some are so low that the executive dean thought it unwise for them to be gone the week before examinations. Therefore the trip which was to have rounded the men into good shape for the season has been abandoned.

The open home wrestling meet will occupy the attention of the Cornhusker wrestling fans this week. It will start next Thursday and is open to all men in the University, whether eligible for Varsity competition or not.

Among the interesting mat developments of the week is the possibility of a match with the University of Indiana on February 23, at Bloomington. The Cornhuskers will be in Iowa City February 21 to contest the University of Iowa, and it is probable that they will slip across Illinois the Sunday following and match against the Indiana wrestlers Monday.

The premier event in Nebraska wrestling lately is the winning of the world's championship by Wayne Munn, former Nebraska wrestler. Munn carried off heavyweight honors when he was at Nebraska in 1917.

Wayne Munn, Former University Star, Wins World Championship

Defeats "Strangler" Lewis in Match Held at Kansas City Thursday Evening.

Wayne "Big" Munn, Cornhusker athlete of 1916 and 1917, is the new heavyweight wrestling champion of the world as a result of his defeat of Strangler Lewis, two falls out of three, in the title match in Kansas City Thursday.

Munn is one of three brothers who have been prominent in Nebraska athletics for the last seven years. He won three letters in his first year of Varsity competition. As a sophomore he was Varsity tackle, shot put, and wrestler. He was the heavyweight champion of the Mississippi Valley Intercollegiate Wrestling association, now the Western Intercollegiate Association, meet of that year.

The new champion won his crown with apparent ease. He won the first and third falls, the second going to Lewis on Munn's foul. The first fall came in twenty-one minutes, with a crotch and body hold, his favorite, and he used the same grapple in winning the third fall and the championship.

Twelve minutes after the first fall the Strangler attempted his famous headlock which has put many of his opponents to sleep and which was the means of his winning the championship. Munn shook him off and lifted the 228-pound Lewis bodily from the floor, holding him high in the air. Lewis threw out his arm, broke the hold, and fell outside the ropes to the platform and the cement floor.

The fall was awarded to Lewis on the charge that Munn threw his opponent out of the ring. The challenger won the third fall in less than a minute, however, Lewis being too weak to offer any opposition.

Big Munn's rise in the wrestling world has been phenomenal. Entering the game only last spring, he defeated a string of opponents with great ease, including Toots Mondt, Montana wrestler. Munn merely toyed with Mondt, recognized as one of the game's foremost men.

The champion entered the University of Nebraska in 1916 as a freshman and in 1917 began active participation in all athletics. He made three letters, in football, track and wrestling. He was a shot-putter on the track team. At the end of the college year he enlisted in the army and did not return to school after the war.

Munn's brothers, Monte and Wade, have also been prominent in Cornhusker athletics. Wade Munn played Varsity football for three years, as did Monte Munn, who is now a representative in the Nebraska legislature. Monte played basketball for three years also.

Still another Munn is coming to Nebraska and it is probable that he will also star in athletics. He is Glenn Munn, prominent in high school athletics in Idaho, and who has refused offers of western universities in order to follow his brothers at Nebraska. He will enroll here next fall.

"The talk that we do no studying at Notre Dame and only play football is all pure bunk," said one of the Notre Dame players Thursday. "Naturally, when a school gains a nation-wide reputation in football there is a certain amount of 'dirt throwing.' If you want to see whether we study or not I advise you to drop in at Notre Dame any time."

The grid champs expressed genuine appreciation of the hospitality shown them by the Cornhuskers. "I know of no other thing so admirable in universities than pure, clean, whole-hearted competition between schools," said Chancellor Avery last night. According to assertions of Notre Dame men themselves fraternals relation between Notre Dame and Nebraska were boosted more than ever at Thursday night's banquet.

Rockne is losing twenty-three men by graduation this year. "It looks now from a betting standpoint that Nebraska has the edge," said Tom Leap the other night, "but when we come to Lincoln next year there is going to be sixty minutes of the hardest football we ever played, and as you are going to give the same it ought to be a good game."

Chet Wynne was highly recommended for the coaching job at Nebraska by Harry Stuhldreher, quarterback of the Notre Dame team which was in Lincoln Thursday. Wynne is an old Notre Dame and has been suggested by alumni to fill the job left open by the resignation of Fred T. Dawson.
