

MEET KANSAS IN CAGE FRAY

Results To Determine if Jayhawkers Are Out of Race After Loss to Aggies.

RESUME VALLEY GAMES SATURDAY AT ARMORY

Coach Kline's basketball team will resume the Valley contest in a game with Kansas next Saturday in the Armory. It is the second home game of the season.

The cage men have been working out daily in the Armory and are expected to be in top condition for the fray. Hard scrimmaging with the freshmen and seconds has prepared them for almost anything.

The Kansas game is expected to decide definitely whether or not the Jayhawkers are out of the Valley race. Kansas lost to the Kansas Aggies and the Aggies lost to Nebraska. However, the Ags were in their first game of the season when they met the Cornhuskers.

The Jayhawks will come to Lincoln after over a week's rest. The team is said to be renewed and strengthened. The probable starting lineups will be as follows:

Nebraska—		—Kansas
Usher	f	Ackerman
Black	f	Campbell
Goodson	c	Weddle
Volz	g	Belgard
Tipton	g	Hodges

Dr. Condra Will Give Lectures on Nebraska

Lehigh President To Give Charter Speech

President Charles Russ Richards, Lehigh University, formerly dean of the College of Engineering, University of Nebraska, is to be the speaker at a Charter day banquet of the Cleveland Nebraska alumni club. Approximately forty alumni live in Cleveland and vicinity. C. B. Cornell, '05, is president of the club.

Swindell Assists Wrestlers Again

Claude Swindell is starting his second year as assistant wrestling coach at Nebraska. Swindell, working with Dr. R. G. Clapp, had remarkable success last year and has fair possibilities now of turning out a winning team.

The diminutive tutor is well known in Kansas City wrestling circles and is considered one of the best men in his class, the 115-pounders. He wrestles fast and has a great knowledge of the game. His work as coach has been commended several times.

Valley Sports

Nebraska is leading the Valley on defensive tactics in the basketball race and stands seventh on offense, according to figures compiled before the games last night. The Cornhuskers and Washington University are still holding down the top positions, with the Pikers showing up first in offense and second in defense. The figures, excluding Saturday's games:

	Games.	Pts.	Avg.
Nebraska	3	12.5
Washington	2	19.
Missouri	4	21.
Kansas	4	22.5
Kansas Aggies	3	23.3
Oklahoma	3	23.3
Grinnell	3	27.
Ames	3	29.6
Drake	5	32.4

	Games.	Pts.	Avg.
Washington	2	36.
Kansas	4	32.
Kansas Aggies	3	28.
Missouri	4	23.5
Oklahoma	3	23.3
Grinnell	3	23.
Nebraska	3	22.
Ames	2	14.
Drake	5	12.2

Nebraska's defense has been noticed in the first games of the season. According to Coach Kline's tutoring, that department outshines the offense by a large margin. Yet the Cornhusker attack is believed to be strong enough to carry the team through. However great the value of a brilliant attack may be, the team with a well-organized defense is among those to finish first.

The defeat of Kansas by the Kansas Aggies seems to demonstrate this well. The Jayhawkers have a fine scoring aggregation, and it is certain that more time was spent in developing this branch of the game than in any other. Their ability to make long shots and pile up a large score won them the championship last year, but unless Coach F. C. Allen works on his defense a lot they are liable to be out of the running.

The Kansas Aggies won from Kansas because of their defense. They were instructed to get on the long shots and when the Jayhawks met with that kind of opposition they were bottled up.

Washington is preparing for an active season in the tank. The swimming team, coached by Vincent Johnson, has challenged Oklahoma A. and M. to a meet and will probably schedule several other dual meets. The Missouri Valley championship meet will be held at the St. Louis university.

Athletics have taken a remarkable leap in popularity at the newly-admitted school in the conference, Oklahoma Aggies. A few years ago athletics were practically dead there, but when a chance of gaining admission to the Missouri Valley appeared, interest was increased. They are turning them away at Stillwater now. The gymnasium, although practically new, has been found to be too small and plans are being made for the relief of the situation. Over one thousand persons were turned away from the last basketball game.

Motorists are still trying in vain to solve the cross-road puzzle.—James J. Montague.
