

SIXTEEN MEN ON TRACK LIST

Schulte Selects Tracksters To Represent Nebraska at Indoor Classic.

"MUD" GARDNER WILL RUN IN SPECIAL RACE

Coach Schulte's selection for the Kansas City indoor track meet was posted on the bulletin board Thursday. Sixteen men will represent Nebraska at the midwestern indoor classic. The squad leaves tonight at 10 o'clock on the Missouri Pacific.

"Every man in good shape" Trainer McLean announced in the afternoon, as a possible presage for a commendable showing by the Nebraskans at the winter meet.

Capt. "Mud" Gardner of the 1924 track team will run in a special half-mile race against Ray Dodge, 800-meter Olympic runner. Gardner at present holds the indoor half-mile records at Nebraska, Missouri Valley conference, and also the Kansas City Athletic club indoor meets.

The initial Nebraska track team lineup for this year will present many familiar names from the com-

FOOTBALL MEN ARE WANTED FOR CLASS

Dawson Will Direct Workouts Until Bear's Arrival Late in February.

Ernest E. Bear, Nebraska's new football coach, has requested that all football men who are not regularly engaged in any other sports, report at the Armory at 4 o'clock for work. Fred T. Dawson, director of athletics, is in charge of the workouts until Bear's arrival the last of February.

The preliminary indoor work will consist of a combination of training and wrestling under the direct supervision of Owen Frank, assistant coach, and Harold Hutchison, member of the 1924 Cornhusker football team. Stress will be laid on footwork and handling of the ball. Coach Bear is anxious to have some of the inexperienced linemen do some wrestling under the supervision of Dr. Clapp, physical education instructor in charge of the men's gymnasium work.

Bear wishes to have the men ready for spring football practice, when he will take personal charge. Some preliminary work is necessary to get the squad in the proper shape.

FACES THREE TOUGH GAMES

Nebraska To Meet Oklahoma Saturday; Kansas and Grinnell Next Week.

KLINE WILL USE ALL TWELVE MEN SATURDAY

"Nebraska faces three tough games" are the words Coach Kline uses to describe the next three games on the Husker basketball schedule. Oklahoma, Saturday, will be the first to face the Nebraska team. Grinnell, Monday, and Kansas Aggies, the following Friday, are the other two.

Coach Kline's predictions for these three games are anything but cheerful for those who would see Nebraska roll up a good winning score. Steady improvement in the offensive and a maintenance of its standing as the best defensive team in the Valley may save the Nebraska quintet.

The lineup Saturday night will be changed about during the game, Kline said yesterday. He will use every one of his twelve men.

The squad has suffered no losses so far this season on account of in-

Oklahoma Basketeers Meet Nebraskans Here Saturday

"Doc" Ruppert, the oldest man on the Sooner squad, is playing basketball for his third and last year. Richard Wheeler, playing his first basketball for Oklahoma last year, received mention on the third all-Valley team last season. Floyd McBride, who placed second in the individual score column last season, has been doing the heavy work with the Sooners this season. John Dunlap, who has been playing as stationary forward will call for some watching Saturday night. Dewey Goodwin plays the other guard position. His guarding has been a feature of the Oklahoma defense this year.

petitions last year. Roland Locke and Bill Hein are present again as the mainstays in the short sprints. Ed Weir and Dailey will run in the hurdles.

Rhodes and Captain Crites will be the principals in the quarter mile dash. The half-milers will include Lewis, Hays, Cohen, Houderschildt, Lawson and Bechord. Zimmermann will run the mile. Krimmelmeier will be Nebraska's representative in the shot put. Wirsig, Rhodes and Gleason compete in the pole vault.

The relay teams will be picked from the quarter and half-mile runners. Lewis is entered in the 600-yard Shannon-Douglas cup race which is one of the big races of the meet.

The Husker team has been aided this year by good indoor training made possible by the added facilities in the east stand of the Stadium. The squad will be in better shape for the meet than for any other first meet of the season in the past.

Pictures for Student Life Section Are Due

Students wishing to turn in snapshots for the student life section of the Cornhusker are urged to do so within the next two weeks. Snapshots are to be given to Wendell Berge, editor, or Donald Sampson, managing editor. Any humorous snapshots or ones dealing with views of student life on the campus will be used. No promise is made to publish all of the pictures turned in but the staff wishes to have a large number from which to choose.

The 20th birthday of the Course in Journalism of the University of Wisconsin will be celebrated this year.

CONDRA TO DESCRIBE STATE TOPOGRAPHY

Will Depict Nebraska as Seen Along Burlington over Radio Station WOAW.

The country traversed by the Burlington system will be described by Dr. G. E. Condra, professor of geology at the University of Nebraska, over Radio Station WOAW, Omaha, this evening. The talk, which is a continuation of a series of lectures on the subject, will be divided in two 12-minute parts. The first part will be begun at 9:15 o'clock. It will be followed by a musical program after which the second talk will be given.

Dr. Condra describes the topographical appearance of the country as one sees it from a moving train.

The topography of the Niobrara and Pine Ridge regions will be described by Dr. Condra in his weekly illustrated lecture in Representative Hall next Wednesday evening.

eligibility. Every man is in the best of physical conditions for the Oklahoma contest Saturday.

In the Valley conference Kansas university still maintains the lead, two games ahead of Nebraska. Washington stands third. The Nebraska-Oklahoma game will not affect the relative percentage of the top three teams as Kansas is two whole games ahead of Nebraska.

After the Kansas Aggies game next Friday, the Nebraska five will play away from home at Kansas University for a return game. Tuesday, February 17th. The same week-end will be two other games away from home at Washington university and Missouri, on February 20, and 21. After two more games at home the team will again go on the circuit, beginning with Creighton at Omaha on the 28th.

There are a number of good freshman players in the school who are not reporting for freshman basketball practice according to Coach Kline. He is desirous of having all these report for the practice which is held daily in the Armory. Owen Frank is freshman coach.

For Young Men
There is nothing like a
STETSON

MOST young men today know the importance of looking fit. Good appearance counts much in the game of life. The young man who dresses with taste has a decided advantage.

But—it is surprising how little thought the average man gives to his hat. It is his crown, yet he seems to stop dressing at the neck.

Be careful in your selection of your headwear. When you buy a hat, select a Stetson. Its style is right, its quality means long wear.
