

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

VOL. XXV. NO. 13.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1925.

PRICE 5 CENTS

PLAYERS WILL OPEN CAMPUS TICKET SALES

Student Sale of Coupons for Season's Productions Begins Tuesday.

PRICES ARE $3 AND $4
Four Performances for Each Play Are Scheduled; Freshmen May Go Thursday Evenings.

University Players season tickets are on sale on the campus. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday are the days set aside for the student sale of coupons entitling purchasers to view seven performances of the University Players productions this winter.

Four performances of each play will be given. Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, and Saturday matinee presentations are scheduled. Dates have been arranged so that they will in no way conflict with other University activities.

The company making up the University Players is in the eleventh year of its organization. It is a distinctly professional organization, the players being in advanced dramatic work or alumnus members with wide experience. The shows have come to be known widely by Lincoln theatergoers, the city ticket sale indicates.

Coupons sold are to be exchanged for the actual season tickets at Ross P. Curtice's music store. Reservation should be made as soon as possible," according to A. L. Erickson, business manager of the Players, "due to the fact that the first show is Thursday evening, with an indicated heavy sale."

Evening season tickets are sold for $4.00, a saving of fifty cents over the seven performed. Matinee prices are $3.00, the same saving being in effect.

Freshmen will be allowed to attend Thursday evening productions, according to an official University announcement. A large freshman sale is expected for this night, since the University has made it possible for them to become "first-nighters."

A ticket sale committee of approximately fifty members will make it possible for every one desiring tickets to secure them easily. The committee list follows:

V. Royce West, '27, Elmwood, chairman; Frances McChesney, Ardath Srb, Ida May Flader, J. Arthur Ralston, Claire Swanson, Carroll West, Florence Plodeen, Margaret Long, Helen Aach, Frank Mooney, Ruth Schrank, Viola Allen, Eloise McAhan, Elizabeth Tracy, Doyt Avery, Austin Gunnell, David Harries, Virginia Eubank, Dorothy Howe, Charles Brown, Kenneth Anderson, Warren Marshall, Marion Stone, Helen Cowan, Genevieve McNeil, Lucille Mousel, Virginia Crooks, Helen Henderson, Jessie Kerr, Bibbie Hall, Mildred Stageman, Evelyn Frohm, Margaret Nichols, Bernice Cozad, Grace Windle, Daisy May Little, Mildred Orr, Julia Drath, Little, Mildred Orr, Julia Drath, Margie Ann McQuistan, Virginia Powell, Viola Mercer, Drusilla Gartner, Pauline Campbell, Mary Jane Tidball, Oscar Norling, Dorothy Lewis, Geraldine Hicks, Mildred Saul, Bernard Maxey.

Huska To Present Plan To Rifle Unit

At the next meeting of the Pershing Rifles, Captain Victor Huska will submit plans for intensive drilling of the unit, as the crack exhibition platoon of the basic R. O. T. C. unit. The junior exhibition platoon would be a companion platoon for the advanced course, filling the same place that the Pershing Rifles does in the basic course.

A meeting of all juniors taking the advanced course is to be held Tuesday evening next week, for the purpose of discussing the new drill platoon, and other matters of interest to Junior R. O. T. C. men.

Yale Will Build Library

Yale University plans to erect within three years what will be the largest and best university library in the world.—Minn. Daily.

Chancellor Avery Is Speaker at Dedication

Chancellor Samuel Avery left Monday afternoon for Beatrice to speak at an evening dedicatory program, which was held last night, for the new junior high school building.

Chancellor Avery began his work as a teacher of chemistry at Beatrice more than thirty years ago, in 1893.

Will Give Programs from Station KFAB on Tuesday Evenings

Beginning with tonight and from 8:05 to 8:30 on every Tuesday night following, the University School of Music will give programs of classical music from the University of Nebraska radio broadcasting studio KFAB.

A number of students will perform tonight and on October 13 the program will be in charge of faculty members.

Remote control has been established from the College of Agriculture and the Memorial stadium to the thousand-watt line amplifier at KFAB. The stadium has two amplifiers of its own so that listeners may hear the football crowd as well as the announcer.

FRENCH DEBT IS FORUM SUBJECT

George Woods, Lincoln Banker, Will Be Speaker at Weekly Luncheon Wednesday.

"The French Debt" will be discussed by George Woods, a Lincoln banker, at the World Forum luncheon, Wednesday noon at the Grand hotel. Tickets are twenty-five cents and are now on sale by members of the committee and at the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. offices.

The war debt problem is an important one for the United States, but very few people really understand that matter, the committee feels. For that reason it was decided to devote one meeting of the forum to that question. The speaker is a man who will be able to explain the debt situation in a way that students can understand, members say.

Students who wish to attend the luncheon must purchase tickets today. No tickets will be sold at the door Wednesday.

TEMPLE THEATER IS REDECORATED

Patrons Will Find a Transformed Play-House at Formal Opening on October 8.

The formal opening of a blue and violet toned theater, richly trimmed with bronze, will take place Thursday evening October 8, on the University campus at 8:15 o'clock. The theater will be found in the Temple building at 12th and R street.

Former patrons of the University Players will be delighted to view the transformation of a most interesting but used and worn theater into a soft-colored, coolly-lighted, new ly-finished theater, rich in the harmonization of color and design.

The front curtain creates an atmosphere suitable for a forest scene in a Shakespearian play. As the curtain moves in the circulation of air, so does the towering trees and dripping branches bend with it. In the reality of it all, one has only to let his mind run free and he will find himself recalling Greek myth, folktales and fantastic poetry or creating characters of his own, moving and speaking on the stage.

The students, players and patrons of the theater are indebted to Mr. Dwight Kirsh, art instructor, who was in charge of the redecoration. Besides the work, Mr. Kirsh himself painted the front drop.

Engineering Society Will Hold Meeting

The local section of the society for the promotion of engineering education will meet at dinner at the Temple cafeteria at 6 o'clock Friday, October 23. All members of the faculty of the College of Engineering are invited to attend. Dean Ferguson will present a summary of the past year's progress in the investigation of engineering education undertaken by the society with the assistance of funds provided by the Carnegie Corporation. Plans will be discussed for the meeting of the Kansas-Nebraska section of the society to be held at Manhattan, Kansas in November.

Horace Mann Club to Hold First Meeting

The first meeting of the Horace Mann Club will be held at the city Y. M. C. A. lobby Tuesday, October 6 at 8 o'clock. A dinner, Dutch treat style, will be served to the members in the Y. M. C. A. cafeteria. Dean Sealock will be the speaker of the evening.

The Horace Mann Club, an organization for all University men who are pursuing or intend to pursue educational work, was organized last year. Educational questions are taken up in open forum discussion at the meetings.

Y. W. WILL HOLD VESPER SERVICES

Delegates to Estes Conference Will Give Reports at Meeting This Afternoon.

Vesper services, which will be held Tuesday, at 5 o'clock at Ellen Smith hall, will have as a program reports by three of the delegates to the Estes conference which they attended this summer. The joint conference of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., and was held in Estes Park, from August 22 to September 1.

The speakers will be Cyrena Smith, Dorothea Dawson and Dorothy Thomas. Miss Thomas will also preside at the meeting. There will be special music by the vesper choir and Helen Cowan will sing "Comin' Home."

In addition to the three already mentioned, the delegates from Nebraska were: Wilhelmina Shellak, Elsie Gramlich, Katherine Krieg, Constance Almy, Freda Barker, Ruth Barker, Ruth Virtue, Florence Brinton, Frances Dorn, and Nellie McCreynolds. In addition there were five delegates representing the local Y. M. C. A.

CHOOSE MEMBERS OF VESPER CHOIR

Twenty-Three Women Selected from Forty Applicants to Serve in Y. W. Organization.

New members of the vesper choir have been chosen for this year. Of the forty women who tried out last Thursday, twenty-three were selected as there are about fourteen of the old members back. The following list includes all the members, both old and new: Eloise McAhan, Margaret Moore, Editha Reed, Joy Schaefer, Alice Cook, Mary Dudley, Betty Durham, Adelaide Kash, Marjorie Bone, Laverne Hans, Geraldine Heiker, Lisle Clayton, Edith Stander, Alice Criss, Lucile Ingham, Harriet Cruise, Beth Taffenrath, Lola Heiker, Katherine Douglas, Betty Coleman, Ruby Damm, Frances Bolton, Marion Eimers, Blanche Steven, Vera Stevenson, Helen Cowan, Audrey Dealer, Doris Segur, Dorothy Struble, Catherine Beckman, Doris Young, Katherine Dean, Beatta Krause, Mary Elizabeth Bell, Virginia Neville, Maxine Smith, Frances King, Mary Kinney is the accompanist.

Members of the choir are to report tonight at vespers. As many as possible should meet in the Pan-Hellenic room in Ellen Smith hall a few minutes before vespers begin. Others who tried out may have an opportunity to sing in the choir later as some of the members frequently drop out in the course of the year, which leaves an opening that is filled at the time.

Law Freshmen Hold Election of Officers

Orr Goodson was elected president of the freshman law class at the annual election of officers held last Friday evening. Other officers elected were: David F. Foster, vice president; Milton Tappan, secretary; Norman Gray, treasurer.

The class also adopted "Quality Beque Quantity" as their motto.

Yenne Will Appear in Juvenile Role of Play

Herbert Yenne, one of the experienced actors who will play in the University players' first production, "The Goose Hangs High," is Herbert Yenne, who takes the juvenile lead as Hugh Ingalls. Mr. Yenne has had several years of experience with the Players and is well known to University playgoers.

STAR CAST IN OPENING PLAY

Members of Players' Coaching Staff Included Among First Performers.

MISS HOWELL TO APPEAR

An all-star cast will be the feature of the University Players first production of this season, "The Goose Hangs High," by Lewis Beach, which will be presented in the Temple Theater, October 8, 9, and 10 with a Saturday matinee.

Miss H. Alice Howell, head of the dramatic department, will appear in the play in the role of the mother. The patrons of the Players are anxiously awaiting the return of Miss Howell to the stage after a year's absence. Those who saw Miss Howell in the year 1924 will remember her strong interpretation of Lady Mabeth and her most dramatic portrayal of Madam X.

Mr. Theodore Diers has been secured to take the place of Hart Jenks who has gone to New York. Mr. Diers will play opposite Miss Howell. He is a professional stock actor and has had several years of successful experience in New York.

Herbert Yenne is cast as Hugh Ingalls. Again we find him playing the part of a juvenile in which he is always so winning. Mr. Yenne is another player of whom the public saw very little last year.

Harold Felton plays the part of Bradley Ingalls, another juvenile part. Mr. Felton has been with the Players several for several years so that he needs no introduction. Frances McChesney, who played the lead in Kosmet last year, is playing the grandmother.

Fern Hubbard, Ruth Jamison, Henry Ley, Harold Sumption, Ray Ramsay, Mary Yabroff, Blanche Green, Thad Cone and Jack Rank are other well known players who complete a most splendid list of actors who have been most excellently cast for their parts.

Student Councils Argue

Men's and women's student councils at the University of Kansas are engaged in a controversy over the right of the men's council to regulate the price of varsity dances. The women insist that they should have as much voice in the matter of varsity dance prices as the men.—Kansas State Collegian.

Big Sisters Observe Official Calling Day

Three hundred big sisters called upon their little sisters on Sunday, October 4, the official big sister calling day. Each big sister visited two little sisters and arranged to take them to a Big and Little Sister banquet to be given in the Armory on October 22, a tentative date. The little sisters were also urged to attend the teas for all University women given in Ellen Smith Hall, on Thursday afternoons from 4 to 6 o'clock.

The purpose of the Big Sister organization is to assist the new students in getting acquainted with the campus and University activities. Freshmen women, who live in Lincoln, have not been assigned Big Sisters as it was thought, they needed no assistance in getting acquainted with the University. There are approximately 700 freshman women at the University this year.

BEGIN WORK ON ANNUAL PHOTOS

Juniors and Seniors Assigned to Down-Town Studios for Pictures.

TO PUBLISH NAMES DAILY

The assignment of juniors and seniors to the down-town studios to have their picture taken for the Cornhusker will begin today, announced Donald F. Sampson, editor-in-chief. An even number of juniors and seniors will be listed daily. At the same time that the names appear in The Daily Nebraskan some member of the Cornhusker staff will notify them.

Students are being urged to have their pictures taken as soon as possible after being notified. Such cooperation by the upperclassmen will do away with the congestion and confusion during the last few weeks. All pictures must be taken by November 11.

The pictures can be taken at either Townsend's or Hauck's studios. The price will be the same as that of last year—four dollars. Additional prints to be used for other sections of the Cornhusker can be secured for 50 cents. Other pictures for individual use will vary according to the quality chosen.

The following juniors have been assigned to have their pictures taken today:

FACULTY MEETS NOTED VISITORS

Professor Marshall, Mr. Fieck and Miss Spearman Are Campus Guests This Week.

Prof. L. C. Marshall of the University of Chicago, Mr. Fieck of Prague, Bohemia and Laura Spearman, Memorial fellow, at the University of Chicago, are among the prominent visitors on the University of Nebraska campus this week. Professor Marshall and Mr. Fieck were guests of honor at a meeting of the faculty dinner club at the University Club Monday evening.

Professor Marshall, chairman of a committee appointed by the American Association of Collegiate Business, visits and reports on the work of all the schools belonging to the association. The president of the association is Dr. J. E. LeRossignol, dean of the Nebraska College of Business Administration.

Dr. Marshall was until recently, dean of the College of Commerce and Administration of the University of Chicago. He was graduated from the Ohio Wesleyan with the class of 1900 and Harvard with the class of 1901. Professor Marshall is a noted economist and author of a number of books among which are "Readings in Industrial Society," "Business Administration" and "The Story of Human Progress." During the late war he was the economic advisor of the War Labor Policies board.

New Supply of Green Caps on the Way Here

The Farquhar Clothing Company reports that the green caps are on the way but as yet have failed to put in an appearance.

Freshmen who have not received their caps are asked to wait a little longer until the new shipment arrives. As it is a traditional proposition, the Iron Sphinx are anxious to see all first year men wearing the symbolic green caps.

Thousands of Rooters Greet Team Returning from Illinois Battle

Approximately five-thousand Husker rooters met the special train carrying the Nebraska football team at the Burlington station Sunday afternoon. Long before the train was due a crowd, made up largely of students, began to congregate. Lincoln went wild Saturday when the news flashed over the wires that Nebraska had defeated Illinois and the reception given the Cornhuskers Sunday was the largest ever accorded a Nebraska team.

As the train pulled into the station the University band struck up that popular tune, "There is no place like Nebraska." The music of the band, however, was soon drowned out by the bedlam of cheers that broke loose from the voices of the crowd.

The reception, however, came as a disappointment to many of the students as the team and coaches evaded the crowd by getting off the last two cars of the special. It was hoped to have a few speeches from members of the team and coaching staff but such was not the case. The crowd dispersed rapidly when it became known that the coaches and members of the team had disappeared.

CORNHUSKER DRIVE STARTS NEXT WEEK

Annual Subscription Campaign Will Be Handled by Men; Begins October 12.

The Cornhusker subscription drive will start October 12, announced Tom Varney, business manager. The campaign will be handled by men this year, although Varney hopes to be able to use the girls' class organizations to aid in the drive.

If these class organizations agree to enter, prizes will be offered to the winner. Further details concerning this offer will be announced next Thursday.

Donald Sampson, editor-in-chief, and Tom Varney, business manager, are striving this year to develop individuality in the building of a successful year book that will meet with the approval of not only the entire student body and faculty but with the public as well.

The Cornhusker of 1926 will be individual. The designs are being carefully selected with this idea in view. The scene section will in years to come bring back memories of former campus life.

The photographs which are being secured of the campus are something new in the way of composition and technique.

TO PLAY EXHIBITION MATCH

Tennis Stars Will Meet in College of Agriculture Tournament Wednesday.

Gregg McBride, former Nebraska tennis star, and Dean M. E. McProud, Wesleyan University, will play an exhibition tennis match at 4 o'clock Wednesday, October 7, on the College of Agriculture courts. Both men are former champions in the sport. This exhibition game is a feature of the tennis tournament being held this week at the College of Agriculture campus.

All College of Agriculture men, both students and faculty, are urged to sign up at once if they can take part in the tournament. Dr. Clapp, head of the department of physical education, has planned to furnish coaches who can give some assistance to players wishing to become proficient in the game.

A cup is being offered by the Agricultural Club to the winner in the tournament.

Hear Noted Lawyers Delta Theta Phi to

Chief Justice Morrissey of the Nebraska Supreme Court, former Justice Felton and Attorney Dibble will give short talks at the next meeting of the Delta Theta Phi, professional legal fraternity, Thursday evening at 8:15 in the court room of the Law building. All members and pledges are requested to be present.

Delta Theta Phi has been completely reorganized, has pledged new men, and has made new plans for the ensuing year. Plans were made at the last meeting to arrange for weekly discussion meetings. Efforts are also being made to secure a new home.

Money for the site of the southern branch of the University of California has been raised by the four cities in the vicinity. The total cost of the 253 acre tract is more than $1,000,000.

CHOOSE NEW OFFICERS BY VOTE TODAY

Will Elect Class Presidents, Honorary Colonel and Council Members.

BEGIN AT 9 O'CLOCK

Polls in Basement of Administration Building Will Be Open Until 4 This Afternoon.

Four class presidents, an honorary colonel for the R. O. T. C. regiments, and one student-council member from each of the colleges of Fine Arts, Pharmacy, and Arts and Sciences will be chosen today at the first semester elections in the west basement of Administration building from 9 to 4 o'clock. Twenty-one candidates are in the field.

No persons are to be present at the polls today except those who cast their ballots, Leo Black, president of the student council, declared today. Each candidate is allowed to have one representative at the place of voting, but he cannot enter the room where the ballots are being cast. The general rules regulating elections are set forth in the University catalog as follows:

"No vote shall be solicited by cards or otherwise at the polls in the building which the election is being held. Nor shall any money be spent on behalf of any candidate. Any candidate violating this rule either in person or through his porters shall thereby become ineligible.

"Each voter shall check the names of the candidate or candidates for whom he wishes to vote on a ballot furnished him by the election officials, which ballot shall then be deposited by the election officials in its respective box. There shall be a separate ballot for each class."

Students at the College of Agriculture will vote at their campus. A booth has been erected and the election is in charge of Glen Buck.

Notes concerning the candidates follow:
