

Students Show Much Interest in Election.

(Continued from Page One.) these were scattered, no one was declared elected. Students began flocking to the polls as soon as they were opened in the morning at 8 o'clock and before noon hundreds had voted. Much campaigning was in progress during the day for the different candidates. No solicitation for votes was allowed at the polls. Students at the Ag College voted on their campus with approximately fifty ballots being cast.

The race for several of the offices was very close and no one was sure of winning until the final ballots had been counted. The smallest number of votes cast by any college was by the College of Pharmacy. Only four scattered votes were cast by members of that college for a representative to the student council and no one was declared elected. Following is the detailed vote:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. Includes Frances Mc Chesney (391), Ruth Danielson (349), Burdette Taylor (236), etc.

Sophomore President.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. Includes Walter Cronk (135), Richard Peterson (131), Bryan C. Fenton (66), Marie V. Curran (24).

Freshman President.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. Includes Reginald C. Miller (322), Robert King (232), Robert Horney (23), Dorothy Abel (22).

College of Arts and Science.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. Includes Elsa Kerkow (20), Scattered vote (85).

School of Fine Arts.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. Includes Eloise MacAhan (73), Viola Forsell (31).

Frances McChesney, the successful candidate for honorary colonel, is in the Teachers College. She belongs to Xi Delta, Dramatic Club, University Players, connected with the Y. W. C. A., secretary of the University night committee last year, and a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

The senior president, Ralph P. Rickley, is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon and is in the College of Fine Arts and Science. He is a member of the Iron Sphinx and Vikings.

Melvin Kern, the newly elected junior president, is enrolled in the College of Business Administration. He is a member of the University Commercial club, Delta Sigma Pi, and the University band.

Walter Cronk, new sophomore president, is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, in the College of Arts and Science. He was on the freshman commission last year and won individual "compet."

The new freshman president, Reginald C. Miller, is a pledge of the Delta Sigma Lambda, and enrolled in the Arts and Science College. He debated for Lincoln high school for two years and was a member of the Forum.

Work on 1926 Year Book Has Started. (Continued from Page One) and Townsend are the photographers again this year.

Pictures for the section of campus scenes which will be in black and white half-tones, have already been taken. Favorable progress has been made in the new art section. The three-color work which is being taken from hand-paintings, will be used for the opening section of the volume and for the division pages. As in the past several years, the engraving contract has been let to the Bureau of Engraving. The editors, while they are not expecting to put out a bigger Cornhusker than it has been as far as size is concerned, are striving to make it a decidedly successful and typical annual.

Choose Time for Junior And Senior Pictures. (Continued from Page One.)

Brier, Esther Brinhoff, Victor Brink, George Brinkworth, Florence Brenton, Jenny Brodahl, Bertha Brod-fuehrer, Edna Brodhaage, Willard Bronson, Lydia Brooks, Bessie Brooks, Dorothy Brown, Horace Brown, Joe Brown, Richard Brown, Edna Brothers, W. J. Brynn, Glen Bushin, Wallace Burnell, Clarence Burds, George Burkard, John Busboom, Robert Bushnell, Florence Buto.

John Cameron, Caroline Campbell, Harvey Campbell, Lee Campbell, Hazel Cantlin, Chester Clarkoske, Lois arle, Carroll Carter, Veronica Carter, Marian Cass, Della Cater, Julia Celly, William Cojnar, Norris Chaddudon, Carl Changerom, Learn Chapman, Helen Chick, Jeanette Clark, Lovell Clark, Raymond Clark, Ray B. Clark, Zola Clark.

WANTED-A CHEERLEADER

It is the common belief that the cheerleader has fulfilled the duties of his office when he has been able to consolidate the cheers of a crowd into a single volume of sound. During the average athletic contest there is a great amount of emotional enthusiasm, much aimless yelling and shouting, and we have gradually taken it for granted that the only task of the cheer-leader is to get people to shout and cheer as one man. Sometimes crowd enthusiasm drops to a low level and in such cases the cheer-leader undertakes, by a violent display of gymnastics, to re-arouse a high level by excitement. We have fallen into the habit of judging the cheer-leader's success by the contortions of his body and, by the volume of sound he is able to pump out of the bleachers. Under this view of cheer-leading it is no wonder that many persons about the campus have seriously questioned the advisability of perpetuating such an office.

The time has come to set forth another idea about cheer-leading. Because of the presence in the Stadium of so many people who are merely spectators, the level of sportsmanship is much lower than it was for a number of years on old Illinois Field. The Stadium is so large, and it takes sound so long to travel from one side to the other that the cheer-leader can no longer hope to exercise intimate control over the crowd. The spectators who come in for one or two games do not know the best traditions of Illinois. They often express their enthusiasm, therefore, in any way that comes to them. They boo, hiss and ridicule; they shout un-sportsmanlike remarks; they let their emotions run away with them; they make the most noise just when our opponents ought to be shown every courtesy; and in many other ways they often help to tear down the reputation for fair play and sportsmanship which has characterized Illinois crowds.

The cheer-leader is not merely a semaphore; he is a strategist in the art of handling and controlling public opinion, crowd action and crowd thinking. The cheer-leader should be the director of a school in sportsmanship and high-minded enthusiasm. His pupils sit in the bleachers. The products of his instruction and leadership are noteworthy traditions and clean, hard fighting. He is not a spectator of the game but an interpreter between the hard physical facts of instinct and emotion on the one hand and sportsmanship on the other.

For these reasons and for others we must consider with all seriousness the office of cheer-leader. The new cheer-leader must be a man having unique qualities. He must be a good student of athletic contests so that he will lose no time in sizing critical situations. He should know football, basketball and baseball strategy, the name of every man on the team, the name of each of his opponents. He must be a man with good imagination so that he can look ahead a little and prophesy accurately what is going to happen. He must be mentally alert so that he is always one step ahead of the moods of the crowd. He must be sensitive to the changes in the moods of the crowd. He must be a serious student of the forces that stir crowd emotions and that arouse different forms of crowd behavior. He must be a strategist in handling such forces. He must be a man whose personal traits appeal almost immediately to the majority of the people in the bleachers, for then, and then only, will he command instant and willing obedience.

Sachem has been far-sighted enough to provide a valuable instrument for the school of sportsmanship and of earnest enthusiasm that might be founded by a clever cheer-leader. With the Sachem block "I" as an instrument through which to work the cheer-leader ought to be able to call for yells and songs just a fraction of a minute ahead of the general yelling of the bleachers so that in every game he and the block "I" will be setting a standard for enthusiasm, encouragement and sportsmanship which the rest of the crowd will be glad to follow. He will be anxious to cheer every exceptional play, whether it is made by one of his own men or by one of his opponents. He ought to express encouragement to every man who is injured. He ought to give his opponents as good an opportunity to call signals as he gives his own men. Illinois would never damage its reputation even if it leaned backward a little in attempting to stand straight on the question of the most open-hearted kind of fair-mindedness.

It is conceivable that if Sachem were willing to loan the block "I" to the Athletic Association for a time, we might see such an example of the right kind of enthusiasm, courage, confidence and sportsmanship that Illinois would gain its great victories in the realm of public opinion and interest as she gains on the field of physical contest. And while the Athletic Association is working out its scheme it behooves Sachem to have out on the field a man of its own, appareled after some peculiar fashion, who will be the distinctively Sachem cheer-leader. The association will yet have its opportunity to work with the I, and the prestige of the I will not suffer from the lack of a regular varsity man. The Illinois believes that the Athletic Association will see the value of this special man, and accord to Sachem the privilege of picking a man to carry its block "I" through this season. It is the purpose of the Board of Athletic Control to find a man of good standing upon the campus who views the office of cheer-leader as an office that can make a genuine contribution to University life. The Athletic Association will be glad to send such a man to all foreign games, knowing that it can entrust the reputation of Illinois to his constructive leadership.—The Daily Illini

The College Press

Oklahoma University has an organization called the Jazz Hounds, whose official pledge button is a rope about the neck.

Paul Sunday, son of Billy Sunday, the evangelist, has enrolled as a student at De Pauw university, Green Castle, Ind.

Every man must be able to swim 100 feet before he graduates from the University of Kansas.—Iowa State Student.

University of Colorado.—Students attending dances here are not allowed to serve refreshments, smoke, or use wax on the dance floor.

The University of Pavia, in Italy, claiming the distinction of being the oldest European university, recently celebrated its eleventh centenary.

There is one consolation for freshmen at the Kansas State Agricultural College. Caps being worn by them this year have been reduced from $1 to 75 cents.

Fifteen fraternity houses of the University of Chicago must either pay their 1924 and 1925 taxes or be put up for auction at a tax sale according to a warning by the judge.

The financial control of student organizations at Oberlin college is being revised by members of the joint student council of hopes that the affairs can be managed in a more economical manner.

Darkness forced the calling of the University of Chicago-University of Meiji baseball game in Tokio, Japan, yesterday, after the teams had battled for ten scoreless innings.—The Daily Californian.

Students at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., who buy student enterprise tickets, receive a small white button with a red "C" on it to show that they are supporters of the University activities. Each student is urged to wear his button at all times.

Freshman began wearing caps at Kansas Wesleyan university Friday, Sept. 25, the day of the first football game. The women of the class will wear green earrings. The caps and earrings will come off at the end of the season.

The University of Kentucky reports a student who entered the institution with but $2.67 as his financial resources and at the close of his four year law course had not only put himself through school, but had a savings account totalling more than three thousand dollars.

There are 1,218 students enrolled in the Junior College at Kansas City, Mo., this year, with the result that the faculty has had to give up its special dining room so that classes may be held there. The teacher's table now occupies one of the corridors of the building.

Student activities at the University of Denver cost $25,563.93 last year. Of this sum $16,651.25 was expended on athletics. The publications received $5,043.75. Further disbursement of funds went to the band, individual school funds, glee club, debate and miscellaneous activities.—The Denver Clarion.

The Jazz Hounds, pep organization at the University of Oklahoma, accepted 20 pledges at a recent meeting. The initiation was scheduled for Thursday night at 10:30. The Jazz Hounds expect to accompany their team to Dallas, Tex., Oct. 24, when the Sooners meet Southern Methodist University.—Kansas State Collegian.

A large amount of new apparatus amounting to about $500 has been ordered by the gymnasium department, and will soon be installed.

The first meeting of the senior class was held, and it was decided that officers would be announced next week.

The football management is selling season tickets another week longer due to the number of down town purchases.

Careless driving during the rush periods of the day—at 8, 12 and 1 o'clock—is also becoming more serious. That there are not more accidents is remarkable. At intersections there are tangles of battered Fords scraping and roaring, until it is a marvel that many are not hurt. With a little thought the students can do much to improve this situation. Care i parking would allow more cars room, and a willingness to lose a few minutes in a traffic jam in the rush hours might prevent many accidents.

New Scarfs IMPORTED FROM ENGLAND Women's Wool and Rayon and Wool scarfs, long and wide and finished with fringed ends. Charming effects in plaids, checks and stripes in attractive shades. These are warm and comfortable and very smart for sport wear for cool weather. priced $3.75 and $6.00 First Floor Miller & Paine Have you seen our beautiful corsage flowers—for street and party wear? Prices range from 75c to $4.00. First Floor

CORNHUSKERS Buy Your Season Ticket for the UNIVERSITY PLAYERS Seven Plays for $3.00 or $4.00 THE PLAYS Goose Hangs High Hell Bent for Heaven One Act Plays Outward Bound He Who Gets Slapped Romeo and Juliet Caesar and Cleopatra The Place---TEMPLE THEATRE Exchange your season ticket coupon at Ross P. Curtice Co.

FRESHMEN, SOPHOMORES, JUNIORS, SENIORS, ATHLETES Do You Know? "HOW TO STUDY" The Student's Hand-Book of Practical Hints on the Technique of Effective Study by WILLIAM ALLAN BROOKS A GUIDE containing hundreds of practical hints and short cuts in the science of learning, to assist students in securing MAXIMUM SCHOLASTIC RESULTS at a minimum cost of time, energy and fatigue. ESPECIALLY RECOMMENDED for overworked students and athletes engaged in extra-curriculum activities and for average and honest students who are working for high scholastic achievement. Some of the Topics covered Scientific Shortcuts in Effective Study Preparing for Examinations Writing Good Examinations How and When to Study How to Take Lecture and Reading Notes Advantages and Disadvantages of Crammering Why You Need This Guide It is well to say that the failure to guide and direct study is the weak point in the entire educational machine. Prof. G. M. Whipple, U. of Michigan. "The successful man in college is not born to be very happy. Most of them, especially the athletes are overworked." Prof. H. S. Conly, Yale. "Methodical labor, though heavy and well intentioned may lead to naught. Among the most important things for the student to learn is how to study without knowledge of this his labor may be largely in vain." Prof. G. F. Swab, M. I. T. "To students who have never heard 'How to Study,' work is very often a punishment, a hardship, and an insupportable obstacle to contentment." Prof. A. T. Lewis, Harvard. "HOW TO STUDY" will show you how to avoid all unproductive effort. Get a good start and make this year a highly successful one by sending for this hand-book and guide NOW. You Need This Intelligent Assistance CLIP AND MAIL TODAY. American Student Publishers, 32 West 43rd St., New York, City. Get a good start and make this year a highly successful one by sending for this hand-book and guide NOW. Name Address

LYRIC THIS WEEK Entertainment You'll Enjoy CECIL B. DEMILLE Presents Rod LaRoque In a gorgeous drama "The Coming of Amos" A new comedy based on "THE MARRIED LIFE OF HELEN AND WARREN" Also News and Travel Pictures On The Stage THREE MELVIN BROS. Sensational Entertainers SHOWS AT 1, 3, 5, 7, 9.

COLONIAL THIS WEEK Be sure and see this amazing and thrilling romance Norman Kerry IN "LORRAINE of the LIONS" with Patsy Ruth Miller "THE ADVENTURE OF MAZIE" Another laughable story EXTRA THUR. "PLAY BALL" last chapter. SHOWS AT 1, 3, 5, 7, 9.

LINCOLN ALL WEEK THEATRE FIRST AND LAST A PICTURE OF SUPREME ENTERTAINMENT. Douglas Fairbanks SON OF ZORRO Special Musical Score Played by LINCOLN SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA SHOWS AT 1, 3, 5, 7, 9. ADULTS—ALL SHOWS 50c—CHILDREN 25c.

Rialto Theatre TODAY Betty Bronson IN A ROMANCE THRILLING "THE GOLDEN PRINCESS" PARAMOUNT PICTURE COMEDY—NEWS—TOPICS RIALTO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA SHOWS AT 1, 3, 5, 7, 9. Mat. 25c, Night 40c—Chil. 10c.

LORETTA WHERE EVERYBODY GOES BIG WONDERFUL BILL MON—TUES—WED The Ophelum Circuit Feature Karyl Norman Presents "THE TUNEFUL SONG SHOP" BY KENO CLARK & BOBBY SIMONDS The World's Cleverest Dancers THE TEN English Rocketry Late of the New York Success "The Battling Butler" with EDWARD ALLEN Late of Flo Ziegfeld's "Annie Desars Co." PIERCE & ROSSLYN International Vocalists in "A WHEEL OF MELODY" DRISCO & EARL In a Comedy Skit "CROSSROADS" HURIO "As In The Days of Nero" "THE DEATH RAY" Also Comedy and News Pictures SHOWS AT 2:30, 7:00, 9:00

WHEN IT'S TIME FOR THE DATE Phone B-2125 FOR RENT-O-FORD and GEAR SHIFT CARS We Deliver and Take You Home National Motor Car Co. 1918 O St.

It Has The Snap! This latest arrival in the Fall Ties—It's plain toe and neatly creased vamp are the thing in oxford style. The welt sole and rubber heel are practical for school wear. Shown in patent and tan calf— TEN STYLES OF SCHOOL OXFORDS AT $4.85 "First With The Latest" Ben Simon & Sons FURNISHED GENTS' APPAREL AND CHILDREN

Do You Puzzle Over New Words? over exact definitions or pronunciation of words? over the identity of historic characters? over questions of geography? over points of grammar, spelling, punctuation, or English usage? Look them up in WEBSTER'S COLLEGIATE The Best Abridged Dictionary—Based upon WEBSTER'S NEW INTERNATIONAL More than 105,000 entries. A special section shows, with examples, rules of punctuation, use of capitals, abbreviations, etc. 1,700 illustrations. 1,256 pages. Printed on Bible Paper. A desk book for every student. See It at Your College Bookstore or Write for information to the Publishers. Free specimen pages if you cover this paper. G. & C. Merriam Co. Springfield, Mass.