Dr. Morrow Presents Collection to Museum

Dr. J. Morrow of Seward has given the University Museum a very interesting collection made while spending his vacation in Arizona and New Mexico. It includes specimens of volcanic rock, petrified objects, hand shots from the ancient buried city of Pecos, and other Indian implements. Dr. Morrow also visited the Canyon Diabolo while in Arizona. This canyon is believed to have been caused by a meteor nearly three quarters of a mile wide striking the earth. Efforts are now being made to extract platinum from it.

HARRIERS WIN OVER KANSAS

Five Nebraska Cross Country Men Come in Before First Jayhawker

MEET OKLAHOMA NEXT

The Nebraska cross country team came through with a second decisive victory yesterday afternoon on the Belmont course when they placed five men ahead of the first Kansas runner scoring 15-40. Lawson was the first Husker to finish, won easily, running the five miles in 29 minutes 8 seconds. The time was slow due to the cold weather and the bad roads.

The Huskers were decidedly better than the Kansas team and took the lead from the start with five of the six men leading as the teams left the stadium. This position was maintained practically throughout the course. On the home stretch the four leading Huskers began to pull away from the rest of the runners with Lawson leading by fifty yards. This position was maintained into the stadium, Lawson winning easily with Zimmerman, Hays and Reller tying for second place. With a sprint Searle, the fifth Nebraska runner, beat Jarboe of Kansas.

The prettiest race of the afternoon came when Lewis of Kansas and Capt. Lewis of Nebraska raced down the home stretch for the ninth place, with the Husker captain winning by almost a yard. Lewis of Nebraska was decidedly off form with a pain in his side caused by an operation last summer.

With the Huskers taking the first five places, and ninth, Kansas had to be content with sixth, seventh, eighth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth positions. The Kansas runners and the order in which they placed are: Captain Jarboe, Ernst, Brown, Lewis, Bronson and Coffin.

The next Husker race will be held on the home course next Saturday with the Oklahoma harriers who are serious contenders for Valley honors this fall.
