$333 IS RAISED THUS FAR

Luncheon Will Be Served at Ellen Smith Hall at Noon on Each Day of Campaign

Three hundred and thirty-three of the eighteen hundred dollars has been raised at the close of the mass meeting of the team captains and workers of the Y. W. C. A. finance drive, held on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in Ellen Smith Hall, which opened the drive. The sum includes the pledges of team workers and the initial gifts obtained by pre-campaign work.

A luncheon at Ellen Smith Hall will be served at noon Wednesday at which all the workers will report to their team captains the result of their morning's work. Cyrena Smith will be in charge of the devotionals, and Marial Flynn will be chairman of the committee on food. A short business meeting will follow the luncheon. Similar luncheons will be held on Thursday and Friday noon at Ellen Smith Hall and are under the direction of the finance staff. The price of the luncheons are twenty-five cents.

Chairman of Finance Staff Presides

Ela Kerkow, chairman of the finance staff presided at the mass meeting held at Ellen Smith Hall. The meeting was opened by a prayer by Doris Trott, followed by a short talk by Elizabeth Tracy on the way to approach a girl when asking for a pledge. She stressed the idea that each girl would not be asked to give any certain amount but as much as she feels she can. Miss Erma Appleby's talk preceded a short speech by Winifred Sain who explained the Y. W. C. A. budget and the eighteen hundred dollar appropriation from the Community Chest. The Y. W. C. A. has an annual budget of thirty-six hundred dollars, eighteen hundred of which must be raised on the University campus from students not subscribing to the Community Chest. Katherine Krieg then directed each group of workers to the place where they met with their team captains and made their individual pledges.

The team captains for the drive include, Marion Eimers, Eloise McAnan, Viola Forsell, Virginia Raymond, Gertrude Brownell, Esther Zinnecker, Katherine McWhinnie, Kathro Kidwell, Helen Aach, Caroline Buck, Ida Mae Flader, Grace Modlin, Mary Kinney, Kate Goldstein, Blanche Stevens, Alice Sanderson, Sylvia Lewis, Virginia Taylor, Lucille George and Alice Leslie.

SILVER SERPENTS HOLD BREAKFAST

Will Be Held in Ellen Smith Hall Instead of on Drill Field Because of Weather

An old-fashioned country breakfast will be served to all junior women in Ellen Smith Hall Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

Tickets are on sale now for twenty-five cents and may be purchased from any member of Silver Serpents. Ticket booths will be in the Library and Ellen Smith Hall Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and in the Social Science building on Friday also.

Plans to have the breakfast an open air one on the drill field have been discarded. Instead the breakfast will be served in Ellen Smith Hall.

Silver Serpents have tried to get in touch with every junior woman on the campus that she might receive a personal invitation to the affair. The organization hopes that every junior woman will have been called on the phone by Friday evening. In case anyone is missed, it will be due to errors in the phone lists.

Dean Amanda Heppner and Genevieve Clark, president of the Mortarboards, will be the honor guests.

All Silver Serpents who have not checked out their quota of tickets to sell as yet are asked to get them immediately.

HARRIERS RUN OVER-DISTANCE

Huskies Put Through Seven Miles Of Running on Tuesday

Over-distance was the schedule for the Scarlet and Cream runners Tuesday evening in spite of the rainy weather and muddy roads. Coach Schulte took the harriers out on the S. Y. A. highway and put them through seven miles of running on the gravel. The runners averaged better than six minutes for each mile.

The Husker coach expects a stiff meet with the Ames and Drake harriers Saturday and hopes to have his team in better condition than they were against Oklahoma. Lawson was running up to usual form yesterday while Searle was showing more speed than in previous workouts.

SPEAKS ON AIM OF BIBLE STUDY

Doris Trott Discusses Purpose Of Meetings at Vesper Service

GROUP LEADERS NAMED

"What He was, what he thought, and how He thought man should live," Doris Trott stated as the aim of the Bible study groups of which she is the leader, at the Vesper services Tuesday night. "There are three ways a person may come to what is in life that gives satisfaction," asserted Miss Trott. Satisfaction here is something deeper than pleasure. The first means is one's own experience in those moments that are most real—in moments in which we get the greatest proof that God is; that the God that Jesus talked about is. Were this the only means, our life would be one of trial and waste for some how we are not always capable of interpreting these moments. Outside influences are the second means. By books, sermons, and mingling with people, one comes across an idea by which one finds Jesus' way.

"We don't know how much our lives are dependent on the lives of others," declared Miss Trott, "but there is a real danger in this dependence on other people to tell you how to live." People judge a theory or idea by the way it works out in others' lives. "Would you be happy to think that in your life Jesus' way is being tested?" demanded the speaker.

The third way to find the abundant life is to go to the only record we have of His teachings and His mind. Speaking to the girls who joined the organization by the symbolic service last week, Miss Trott reminded them that they said they wanted to try Jesus' way and that they are still responsible to find what He said. "We must know what He said to judge the other sources as to whether they conform to it. His records are the nearest we can come to what He believed and what He thought has the most satisfactory life. Through Jesus, we find God, she stated and that is the ultimate aim."

Six groups of Bible study was announced which plan to discuss problems of University women and to find what the opinion of Jesus would be on those same subjects. Mary Doremus will conduct a group at 3:00 Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

University Pastors Wish to Get in Personal Touch with Every Student

Not many are aware of the work that is being carried on by the University pastors, and the important part they play in the student life of Nebraska. It is the aim of these men to come into personal touch with each student belonging to any of the various denominations represented in the Federation of Church Workers, under which they are organized. Each of the more prominent Protestant faiths have a pastor delegated especially to administer to the needs of his particular parishioners.

The University pastors are subject to call by the students at any time and are anxious to render any service they can, whether it be religious or secular. The different pastors urge their members to call on them for any kind of consultation, and to make their offices the student's religious headquarters. Much help is being given students in selecting their vocation for life, a question that often the pastors find, is most difficult for the average student to decide.

Pastors that make up the Federation of Church Workers are as follows: Frederick W. Leavitt, Congregational, Dean R. Leland, Presbyterian, Rev. H. Erck, Lutheran, Miss Martha Harder, United Lutheran, Rev. E. H. Fey, Disciples of Christ, L. W. McMillan, Episcopal, Harry F. Huntington, Methodist, Rev. C. J.

Y. M. C. A. FINANCE DRIVE GETS OFF TO SLOW START

Workers Fail to Attend Tuesday Night Meeting—Reports Incomplete

FIRST DAY TOTAL SMALL

Official Emphasize Necessity of Canvasers Keeping on Job and Attending Meeting

Only a small number of the workers in the Y. M. C. A. finance drive made reports at the meeting in the Temple last night. For that reason the total amount of money raised the first day of the drive—as shown by the reports compiled last night by those in charge—was not large. It is believed, however, that there is a large amount of money that has not been checked in.

Arthur Jorgensen, general secretary of the "Y," and Judd Davis, in charge of the finance drive, emphasize the necessity of every worker and team captain attending the short meeting in the Temple at 9:30 this evening. Light refreshments will be served after the business has been cleaned up.

The team captained by Douglas Orr had the highest total Tuesday evening. It had checked in something over eighty dollars, with several team members not reporting. "If the drive is to be satisfactorily carried through, every man must do his part," said Judd Davis at the meeting. "Every worker should attend the meeting tonight so that we can get an accurate line on the progress of the campaign."

Lists of prospective subscribers to the "Y" fund were distributed to the workers last night. These are so arranged that each team will have a definite territory. By use of such a system it will be possible for the canvassers to get to every man in the University. Subscriptions received so far indicate that students are supporting the "Y" with much larger individual subscriptions than has been the custom in past years. A number of twenty-five dollar pledges, and numerous ones for five and ten dollars were reported. "Y" officials regarded this as indicative of the growing appreciation of the work that the association is carrying on.

"Students are coming to realize that the 'Y' really stands for something and is an active organization," said General Secretary Jorgensen.

days in which the study of Matthew gives an idea of what the mind of Jesus was. "Is campus popularity worthwhile" is the subject of Grace Modlin's group which meets at 4:00 o'clock Wednesdays. Mary Kinney's group will discuss the question that frequently troubles students: "What are we in college for?" In the group conducted by Cyrena Smith, on Wednesday at 11 the women will try to find a satisfying conception of God. The subject reads: "Is there a God, and if so what kind?" Katherine Sider Krieg's group at 4 o'clock Tuesdays will consider whether the questions raised about whether the fraternity system is Christian or not, are legitimate. "Our attitude toward other races," is the topic for consideration in the section conducted by Abie Brich at 1 o'clock on Wednesdays.

FBW GROUPS SIGN FOR ANNUAL SPACE

Organizations Should Decide Now How Many Pages They Want In Cornhusker

Organizations have been slow in reserving pages in the 1926 Cornhusker. Only a few groups have signed for their pages. Presidents of organizations are urged to see that a page is reserved within the next week.

Organizations which should make reservations include all fraternities and sororities, clubs and societies, organizations in the various colleges, honorary societies, committees and boards which appeared last year. The amount of space will be about the same as last year. Groups should decide now how many pages they desire.

Many organizations can have their picture taken now and avoid the rush which will take place in the winter months. Groups can arrange for their picture in the office when they sign.

Rhodes Scholarship students have been granted a raise of $250 a year in order to meet the increased cost in living expenses. The trustees have increased the annual allowance for holders from the British domains and the U. S. from $1,750 to $2,000. Heretofore the Rhodes Scholarship students have been obliged to go to work and to pay their heavy vacation expenses out of their own pockets since the scholarship term lasts but six months.

Five Hundred White Rats Used at Stanford to Test Learning Ability

Five hundred white rats are being used by Professor Calvin P. Stone of the psychology department at Stanford University in research work to determine the learning ability with respect to age. The study is being financed by a grant from the Carnegie Corporation of $12,000 to be extended over a period of three years.

After the first year higher animals, such as a cat, will be studied. The problem in the case of animals is to test the ability to learn at successive stages of development. With rats ages of twenty, thirty, fifty, one hundred, and two hundred days are used. Intermediate ages may be used later in further expansion of the work. Both the learning of new habits and the breaking of the old ones are to be tested.

Two types of tests are being conducted by Professor Stone at present, the problem box and the maze. The problem box is a square box of wire leading to another box containing food. The door can be opened by stepping upon a small platform projecting from the side of the box. When the rat depresses this platform with his feet an electric circuit is closed which releases the door leading to the food. A rat is given this test once a day for twenty days, and the time required for him to depress the platform is noted. Then a period of fifty days is allowed to elapse be-

BARBECUE WILL BE IN STADIUM

Fraternities Are Closing Their Tables This Evening to Freshmen

TICKETS ARE FIFTY CENTS

About 500 freshmen are expected at the annual freshman barbecue to be held in the east stand of the stadium at 6:30 this evening. Tickets are on sale by all members of the Iron Sphinx, sophomore men's organization, and at the College Book Store. The price of the tickets is fifty cents.

Dean Engberg, Coach E. E. Beary, Captain Ed Weir and Robert Lang, president of the Innocents, will be the speakers of the evening. Robert Lang will talk on "The Olympics." Ray Randels, president of the Iron Sphinx, will act as toastmaster.

Fraternities Close Tables
The fraternities are co-operating with the Iron Sphinx by closing their tables to freshmen this evening. Reports from ticket sales committee show that the tickets have been selling rapidly and it is hoped that a large number will be present.

The program for the evening includes speeches, music furnished by a popular orchestra, and cheers and songs led by the freshmen cheerleaders.

The original plans were to hold the barbecue on the drill field, but, due to the weather conditions, the place was changed to the east stand of the stadium.

Each year the barbecue is sponsored by the Iron Sphinx to aid the freshmen in creating and organizing a class spirit for the Olympics, the annual sophomore-freshman clash, which will be held November 21. Last year over 300 freshmen attended the barbecue.

Will Extend Hockey Season Indefinitely

Owing to the weather conditions, the Women's Athletic Association will extend the hockey season as long as necessary. The tournament will be postponed, until a later date. If it is necessary, there will be no soccer season, in case the hockey season extends too far into the time set aside for soccer.

Grade Point System Adopted

DRAKE SPECIAL CARRIES MANY FANS TO GAME

One Hundred and Fifty Students Have Signed Up For Trip

SEVEN CARS ARE ASSURED

Officials in Charge Ask That Tickets For Those Intending to Go Be Bought Soon

The Cornhusker football team is assured of a good rooting section at the Nebraska-Drake game next Saturday, according to reports from the Rock Island ticket offices regarding the number of students and Lincoln business men who are going to Des Moines on the special train at 12 o'clock Friday night.

Seven cars of Nebraska representatives are already assured by the ticket sales. One hundred and fifty students have signed up. A full car of business men had been sold out Tuesday afternoon. The other five cars will be occupied by the forty-piece band, freshman football squad, Corn Cobs, and some members of the Varsity team. Twenty-five members of the regular team will leave early Friday.

The officials in charge of the special train ask all persons intending to make the trip to buy their tickets in the near future. There is usually a rush at the last minute to secure accommodations, when other arrangements have to be made by the railroad company. Everyone is urged to sign up by Thursday night at the latest.

Drake Dedicates New Stadium
"Nebraska should have as large a representation as possible at the Drake game because it is the dedication of their new stadium," was the statement of Herbert Gish, director of athletics. "Drake will play at this dedication as they have never played before, doing everything possible to beat Nebraska. It is hoped that this game will see the establishment of a rivalry between the two schools, as is the case of the annual Nebraska-Kansas contest. If we succeed, this team will prove a good competitor for us each year."

The special will arrive in Des Moines at 7 o'clock Saturday morning, and will observe the same schedule in returning. The round trip fare is $7.38. Prices for pullman berths are $3.50 for lower berths and $2.80 for upper. Tourist sleeper rates are $1.88 for lowers and $1.50 for uppers.

TO HOLD MIXER IN ARMORY SATURDAY

Block and Bridle Club Wish to Raise Money to Send Judging Team To Chicago

"Come to the mixer and help send the judging team to Chicago," is the slogan adopted by the Block and Bridle Club for their mixer to be held at the Armory next Saturday night. Ed Crowley, chairman of the committee on arrangements, reports everything in readiness, and promises a good orchestra.

The money realized from the mixer is to be used by the judging team in their trip to the International Live-stock Exposition held at Chicago, where they will compete with more than twenty other teams for the Union Stockyards and Transit Company trophy. This trophy is to become the permanent property of the first school winning it three times. Three schools have won it twice, the University of Nebraska, Texas A. & M. College, and Purdue University.

Nebraska won last year by a comfortable margin. The team this year has already competed in the national swine show, winning first place there in competition with some of the strong teams of the United States.

University Players Announce New Plays

The University Players announce several changes in the schedule of the series of children's plays to be given in the Temple Theater on Saturday afternoons this winter.
