

Each fall, for the past four years now, Tuxedo Week at Farquhar's has attracted scores of Nebraska men. The opportunity to buy a new Tuxedo outfit at a decided reduction from the regular price is an opportunity too good to miss.

Our fifth annual Tuxedo Week begins tomorrow morning--featured by the most complete stocks of smart new Tuxedos--and the best values--that we've ever offered.

The outstanding value is at $53.50--for an outfit which includes a new English Tuxedo, vest, shirt, studs, cuff links, collar and tie. It goes without saying that only the newest and most correct clothes are included--clothes chosen with your college requirements especially in mind. It's a formal wardrobe that will be good as long as you're in school.

If you're not in need of a complete outfit, you'll find splendid Tuxedo suits here from $35 to $67.50; vests from $6 to $13.50; shirts at $3, $3.50 and $4; links and studs $3.50 and $4.50; hose 75c to $2; ties $1 and $1.50 --and all at a discount of 10 per cent during Tuxedo Week!

Coming right at the start of the formal season, Tuxedo Week offers the best opportunity you'll have to get your new outfit at a substantial saving. Take advantage of it now--while we've just the style to please you.
