THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

VOL XXV. NO. 60.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, 'SUNDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1925.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

in as many varieties of costumes, made merry at the annual Girls Cornhusker party in the Armory Friday evening while the men were honoring the football team at their annual banquet.

The costumes wer all so clever dent of the Nebraska State Teachers' celebrate the football season and and unique that the judges had a association at the annual business honor the team-and then he threw hard time deciding which were the meeting of the organization, which it at Lonnie Stiner. best, but, after long deliberation, was held in Omaha, Friday. Repre- The big tackle, whom the Mis the winners were announced. Clara sentatives of six districts were at souri Valley committee has just de Logg, dressed in red and white as a the meeting.

Christmas box, won the first prize for the prettiest costume, while Doris for the prettiest costume, while Loris Segur as a Spanish senorita, received SCHEDULE UP

"Black Cat" Wins

First prize for the most unique costume was awarded to Margaret Richards, who was dressed as a black cat.

Pearl Diller, as Charlie Chaplin, was given the prize for the funniest costume, while honorable mention went to Miss Miriam Wagner and sical education department, who were dressed as Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy.

impressive.

freckled and toothless boys rubbed schedule. Beau Brummels, Turkish ladies, ifornia the past several days, pro- at Nebraska.

Dutch children and natty little bell-posing a two-year home and home hops appeared among the party contract and for some time it was guests, and as usual there were sol- thought that a game could be scheddiers and sailors, farmers, hoboes, uled to take the place of the Notre and old-fashioned people, with a gen- Dame game on November 6. gross sprinkling of little children. A Red Riding Hood, a stunning Mexi-

IS HONORED AT ANNUAL DINNER Six Hundred Men Attend An-ANNOUNCE NEW CAPTAIN Lonnie Stiner, Declared Eligible for this football will be the new captain," said Ed Weir, retiring captain of the Nebraska football team, at the close of the annual Corn-Dean W. E. Sealock, head of husker banquet at which six hundred Teachers' College was elected presi- men gathered Friday evening to clared eligible for another year of competition, ,handled the ball familiarly. Then, amid the rousing

FOOTBALL

nual Cornhusker Banquet

Friday Evening

Another Year, Will Lead 1926

Cornhuskers

"The man to whom I pass

TEAM

shook hands with the old one. Valley Rules on Eligibility quieted down enough for him to Southern California Cannot make a brief speech. Holding the Arrange Slate for 1926 ball like an old friend Stiner prom-Game Here

University of Southern California played two years at Lombard and it Mary Wheeler, as the Shiek of in 1926. This was finally settled was necessary to determine whether Araby, and Wilhelmina Shellak, as Saturday morning when Nebraska his participation there made him ina policeman, were mentioned as authorities received a telegram from eligible for another year at Nebrasthe California school. The telegram ka. It depended upon the class of pation at Lombard would count as shoulders with Hawaiian maids and Cornhusker schedule drafters had but one year for the valley, thereby prizefighters. Cowboys and college been negotiating with Southern Cal- enabling Stiner to play another year

Announcement of the new captain was the culmination of one of the

It was held in the Masonic Temple Monday morning on Edward Arling. in the volume.

Ref Eiding Hood, a stunning Mexi-cun beauty, Chinese and gypsies, all had their place among the variety of party guests. Stuate Given Lonnie Stiner, of Hastings, who was elected to captain the 1926 Cornfall. husker machine. The announcement of Stiner's election was made at the cheers which echoed through the annual Cornhusker banquet Friday evening. Ed Weir, captain for two banquet room, the new captain years, made the announcement as he presented a football to the captain-MODERN ART elect.

Stiner played right tackle this season and was praised by every "This is a 'sweet apple,'" said official who watched him play. Due to injuries he did not play in every Lonnie, after the banqueters had game. Before coming to Nebraska Stiner played two years at Lombard College where he was a star.

"N" men cast their ballots about ten days ago but the results were not checked because of the question of Stiner's eligibility. Word was Collection of Works by Amerireceived Friday that the Missouri Valley eligibility committee had declared him eligible for another season's play. The ballots were then read and it was discovered that four men had received votes. Another vote was taken just before the banquet and it resulted in Stiner's election.

> Second Volume of Essays By English Professor Issued

"Criers of the Shops," is the title 9 to 4 o'clock on weekdays. of a new volume of essays by Sher- This collection is especially inter- under whose instigation the local lock Bronson Gass, professor of esting because all of the artists in- vote was taken. Results were sent

Prof. C. Cestre, of the University of Paris, who was to have lectured just been issued by the Marshall been represented in the best recent Court conference then in session at at convocation on Thursday, Dec- Jones company of Boston. The es- collections and have achieved suc- Princeton, N. J., where student opinember 11, will speak on Monday, De- says deal with the current art, mu- cess in the artistic world. He will lecture at a convocation contributions to The Atlantic Month- "Rose to Rose" has achieved rocog- comes December 17.

He paints the unusual and remote ization He Founded

Police Take Robber

of Fred Hardy at the Lincoln Y. M. C. A. confessed Saturday to the reta fraternity house. The prisoner, an escaped dope addict from the Kansas state penitnentiary, admitted that he was responsible for a number of house robberies near 19th and A streets, but firmly denied that he had robbed fraternity houses around

Hardy remembered having taken

ON DISPLAY

cans Hung in University

Gallery

an overcoat and suit from the Phi 16th and R streets.

lice station by victims.

POLL INDICATES OVERWHELMING of Phi Gam House FAVOR OF COURT A man registered under the name cent robbery of the Phi Gamma Del- Vote Taken in Classes Friday Shows Students Want U. S. in World Court

PREFER HARMONY PLAN

Compromise of Peace Leaders Draws Most Votes-Less Than 200

Against Entrance

Gam house and clothes from the Seven hundred and eight votes for various other houses. These were the Harmony Plan in the poll taken sold by him in Omaha and Lincoln. in ten o'lock classes Friday morning Part of the loot recovered by de- indicated that the students of the tectives was called for at the po- University would be willing for the United States to enter the World Fraternities were warned by police Court under the Harding-Hughes-officials not to relax their vigilance Coolidge reservations providing that in watching for intruders, as it war be outlawed, international law is by no means certain that the ar- codified, and the court be given afrest of Hardy means that all the firmative jurisdiction within five danger is over. Robberies of fra- years.

ternity houses have occurred at The votes on the four proposals on alarmingly frequent intervals this the ballot were as follows:

> (1) Harding-Hughes-Coolidge Plan 535 (2) Harmony Plan 708

(3)	Borah Terms	176
(4)	Against Entrance	159
	Sixteen Hundred Vote

The poll on the "World Court was taken Friday after a weeks intensive "education" from all points of view preceded by a number of informational addresses relative to the World Court. Students in ten and cleven o'clock classes voted. About EXHIBIT OPEN EVERY DAY three thousand ballots were circulated with the result that about six-An exhibition of modern art, se- teen hundred were cast. Quarterly ESSAYS BY GASS PUBLISHED cured through the American Feder- examinations prevented some classes ation of Arts, will be exhibited in from participating.

the University art gallery until the Ballots were counted Friday afterend of December. The exhibit will noon by a selected student commitbe open to the public from 2 to 5 tee. Results were at once wired to o'clock Sunday afternoon and from the New York headquarters of the national student World Court poll English in the University, which has cluded are Americans who have from there to the student World ion was concentrated as a final presic, and literature. Professor Gass's Arthur B. Davies represented by paration for Senate action which

Comment on Results

The results of the vote have caused some comment among observers. The fact that the second proposal on the ballot got the most

Siamese twins mingled through the from U. S. C. stated that they were the school. It was ruled by the com- Prof. C. Cestre, University of Paris, crowd with limp rag dolls, while sorry but could not arrange a mittee that the two year's partici-

Joyce Toastmaster

best Cornhusker banquets ever held. in the Temple theatre at 11 o'clock ly under the same title are included nition in this country and abroad.

Governor Is Guest

at 15th and L streets. Robert M. ton Robinson, the Virginia poet. At This is the second collection of and employs at times striking methter: Silver Serpents presented left are November 6 or 20. Missouri Valley. The open dates nocents, who were in charge of the dress in French. M. Cestre is p "Pyrmies in Pantomime," and Xi art, "Freshman Days" and Janice O'Brien, dressed as Freshie, jigged. The Tassels presented a highly dra- Former Professor matic entertainment, a "Fire in an Apartment House."

A grand march in which all the girls took part followed the proistration.

St. Louis Game Fixed

Rhodes, and Wostoupal.

Here Issues Book were seated at a long table just in front of the speaker's table which was on a platform in the center of A new book entitled "Real Estate gram, with the guests passing by Merchandising," by Prof. A. G. Hin-of the temple. The guests of honthe judges, Miss Margarite Mc-Phee, Miss Louise Pound and Miss and Prof. H. E. Dorau, of North-Regent George Seymour, the athletic Mabel Lee, who selected the prine western University, will appear in board, and old "N" men.

contumes. Dancing occupied the re-mainder of the evening, while the announcement received by the Col-squad are John Brown, Frank Dai-Mortar Board members sold candies, lege of Business Administration. ley, W. A. Dover, Harold Hutchitaffy, apples and ice cream sand- Professor Hinman was formerly a son, W. V. Lawson, Avard Mandery, member of the University of Ne- Frank Mielenz, Roland Locke, E. G. of Mechanical Engineers heard two named secretary-treasurer. brasks College of Business Admin-

CHRISTMAS PARTY Work of Native Nebraskan In Art Collection Displayed Here Engineers, which he attended in New terial offered by a company in York last week. He described the Texas which sells briefs for debate

Largest Crowd of Year Attends All-University Christmas Party Saturday Night

OVER THOUSAND AT

entered the door, he was given a pieces in the exhibit. numbers.

furnished music throughout the eve- ated from high school; but Nebras- Design in 1913. were served.

"Formal Number" of Awgwan Oui Monday

The December issue of the Awgunn will be distributed Monday morning at 10 o'clock in the Sorial Science building. The magazine, "The Formal Number", will include a review of the formal season.

A native Nebraskan, Robert Spain, but was then falling to ruins. branches of the organization, of cre- League decided that they would not Spencer, is one of the artists whose Hard To Get Started work was selected by the American Over one thousand students at- Federation of Arts for inclusion in easy to acquire at first. Mr. Spen tended the All-University Christmas its traveling art exhibition, which is cer decided to paint a lot of "potparty held at the Armory last night. hung in the University of Nebras- boilers," sunsets, etc., which he schools are doing. The turnout was the best so far this ka gallery this month. Mr. Spen- signed by the name "John St. John," Par. The room was decorated by cer's picture "Little Village," which recommending this young man as a a large Christmas tree in the center was lent to the American Federation "friend of Robert Spencer" to varof the floor, with colored lights, tin- of Arts by the Ferargil galleries. jours art dealers, who spoke well of the Wentz Plumbing company and ad, and streamers. As each person It is one of the most interesting Mr. Spencer, but did not purchase the work of Mr. St. John. But installing.

numbered ticket, corresponding to Robert Spencer was born at Har-shortly thereafter the Metropolitan * number in a box. During the eve- ward, Nebr., in 1879, the son of a Museum of Arts bought one of Mr. More Extension ting numbers were drawn and gifts Swedenborgian clergyman. In con-Spencer's works, "Repairing the Presented to those holding the lucky sequence of his father's calling, he Bridge," and from that time forspent a somewhat transient child ward, success came rapidly. He hav

The V.sper chorus rendered sev. hood, moving from Nebrasks to won numerous awards of importance, etal curols during the intermission. Kansas, thence to Missouri, Virginia including the second Hallgarten The Hastonian eight-piece orchestra and Yonkers, N. Y., where he gradu- prize of the National Academy of ting. Novel Yule-tide refreshments ka, the state of his birth, still has a Critics declare that he can paint Nebraska," and "Nebraska Beauti- the Venetian orchestra. valid claim upon him.

He was never interested in study they seem to be things of beauty and to be conducted under the supervis- August Leubs, all members of the He was never interested in story they seem to be the story in the does not idealize them ion of Dr. G. A. Condra of the faculty in the College of Engineering a forestry school and university in say, but when he tool, up the study "I paint genre mostly, sometimes Conservation and survey division. faculty in the College were the chaperones. of art under William M. Chase in landscapes," he says, "but I hate be-New York he displayed considerable ing classified, and generally paint is descriptive geometry have been add-islent and was greatly encouraged anything I am interested in, regard-ing classified, and generally paint descriptive geometry have been add-in charge consisted of Theodore apent some time during the fall on by his instructor. He continued this jess of classification.

work zealously, later studying under "I hate any painting restrictions home management has been pre-F. V. DuMond, Henri, and Daniel Hates Restrictions Garber, in New Hope, Pennsyl- of any kind save chemical ones," he vania, where he acquired an old confesses. "I generally use oil, mansion for the extraordinary rent and am very careful about the lastof $2 a month. It had been the pa-(Continued on Page Three.) latial home of an ambassador to

FRENCH PROFESSOR

TO SPEAK MONDAY

Will Make Two Addresses

Tomorrow

M. Cestre is professor of the lit-Athletic authorities are still busy Joyce. The speakers were Governor grature and civilization of the Un-Delta the "N Co-Ed chorus." Each in an endeaver to schedule some Adam McMullen, Chancellor Avery, ited States at the University of Pamember of the chorus was dressed in representative team for the re- Coach E. E. Bearg, Captain Ed ris, and is now the Alliance Fran- Professor of English Re-elected white knickers, red socks and sweat- maining game. Negotiations are Weir, and the other five Cornhus- caise lecturer to America. He spoke ers, and white football helmets. Mys- under way with several schools but kers who leave the squad this year. to members of the Alliance Frantic Fish presented a song and dance just who it will be is hard to tell. They are: Dover, Hutchinson, Locke, caise in Omaha on December 12, and will speak in Kansas City December 15. Both of his lectures in Lincoln Men of the 1925 football squad will be open to the public.

ENGINEERS HEAR HANEY'S REPORT gates in Omaha Saturday. Professor Form The the

Professor Tells of Convention of Mechanical Engineering Society in New York

interesting speeches at the meeting The subject for debate this year held Friday in Mechanical Engineer- is: "Resolved: that cabinet members ing building. Professor Jiles Haney should have a right to the floor of gave a report of the convention of Congress."

Engineers, which he attended in New terial offered by a company in plans they had of extending the on any subject was taken up. The Even two dollars a month was not and of getting new members. The students were given an idea of what the same organizations in other "BOOT DANCE" IS William Schneiber spoke on "Oil Burners and Their Installation." Mr. Schneiber has been doing work for correspondence study by the Univer- the affair. High-top boots, check- individaul artists, by the Kraushaar a row of tenement houses so that ful," have been introduced and are

Courses Offered

New courses in solid geometry and matics department, and a course in Wanek, and C. Carter.

pared by the home economics department. The courses in educational department. The courses in educational psychology is being revised and new textbooks introduced.

FOGG AGAIN HEADS his later work. DEBATING LEAGUE

President of High School Organ-

Rockwell Kent, who loves to paint snow covered landscapes and rocky

Prof. M. M. Fogg, director of the coasts, is represented by "Black-School of Journalism and professor head-Mohegan Island," off the coast of English, was again elected the of Maine, which was his early home. promises in case the other deadpresident of the Nebraska High The simplicity of the painting, with School Debating League at a meet- its suggestion of a biting cold, gray ing of the League district dele- day, and a touch of lonliness makes pression of opinion on them. Others it one of the most interesting pictures in the colection. Professor Fogg was the organ-Nebraska Represented

The delegates were chosen at recent district meetings of the Ne-C. K. Morse, superintendent of the tions.

Several changes have been made this term in the courses offered for About one hundred couples attended

Weather Forecast Sunday: Mostly cloudy and unsettled.

ing exhibited here is one of his early dent read and had given some period, yet it contains that poetry thought to the question. The fact and beauty so highly developed in that the first proposal ran a close "Little Princess" by Karl Ander- to an appreciation on the part of son has delicious color and entran- the students that this was the actual cing emotion of design. The frag- issue in that the Swanson resolution, rance of some hidden beauty so embodying the Harding-Hughescharacteristic of Anderson's work is Coolidge reservations, is the one which will actually come before the Senate.

> While the Harmony Plan and the Borah terms were suggested as comlocks the Senate, some persons believe that it is well to have an exbelieve that the substitute proposals should have been given a secondary place on the ballot.

Robert Spencer, who was born at Harvard, Nebraska, can paint a row C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., consistbraska State Teachers Association. of tenement houses so that they ing of Eisle Gramlich, Wendell seem to be things of beauty and Berge, Douglass Orr, Dorothy Olm-Members of the American Society Curtis agricultural school, was re- charm, yet he does not idealize sterd, and Cyrena Smith was in them. The every day life of ordi, charge of the ballot The Univernary people may be said to interest sity authorities permitted the use him most. This he makes the sub. of the classrooms to get the vote ject of his "Little Village" which and Black Masque chapter of Morhangs in the collection. Kent is tarboard endorsed the non as being represented in the Metropolitan Mu- of value to the students. The eduseum and other prominent collec- ational effect of the voting is considered worth while even if the im-

August V. Tack, is also of special pression made by a student vote on interest to Nebraskans since he is public opinion as a whole is not conto paint the mural for the new state sidered significant.

mont, 1.

capitol. He is represed ad by "Lake Louise," which owes much of its Over 1400 Study charm to the unusual quality of its design and composition.

Favorites Included

"Creation" by Eugene Savage demonstrates that unusual quality of color and design that is peculiar has had considerable experience in Hundred Couples Make Merry at to his paintings. In the annual exhibition held here last year Savage's is shown in a recent publication of prize picture, "The Recessional," received much favorable comment.

> Theresa Bernstein, William Glack-The "Boot Dance" sponsored by ena, George Luks, Eugene Higgins, the Nebraska Engineering Society at Ernest Lawson, John Sloan and the Knights of Columbus hall Satur- other able artists are also represented in the collection.

sity Extension division.New courses ered shirts and corduroys were much Art Galleries, the Phillips Memorial on "Visual Nebraska," "Industrial in evidence. Music was furnished by Gallery and the Ferrargil Galleries.

> Graduate on Soil Research Work Germany, is doing graduate work The committee that was directly at the University this winter. He Armstrong, Fred Wehmer, Edward soil survey work in Custer county, in company with A. W. Groeke, of the United States Bureau of Soils, and is now engaged in soil-research work for the convervation and survey division, under the direction of

Dr. G. A. Condra.

dents registered for correspondence In Nebraska there are now 1,469 correspondence students. Iowa is represented by 51, and others as follows:" South Dakota, 24; Kansas, 18; Missouri, 17; Colorado, 15; Wyoming, 10; California, 7; Kentucky, 7; Illinois, 6; Pennsylvania, 4; New York, 3; Indiana, 3; Minnesota, 3; Oklahoma, 3; Arizona, 2; Arkansas, 2; Montana, 2; Idaho, 2; Tennesee, 2; Texas, 1; Wisconsin, 1; and Ver-

By Correspondence

Geographical distribution of stu-

Only 10 Shopping Days Left Until CHRISTMAS

Engineers' Hard Time Party Saturday Evening

izer of the league.

