

The Daily Nebraskan

Station A. Lincoln, Nebraska. OFFICIAL PUBLICATION UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA Under Direction of the Student Publication Board

Published Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Sunday mornings during the academic year.

Editorial Offices—University Hall 18. Office Hours—Afternoons with the exception of Friday and Sunday.

Subscription Rate $1.25 a semester Single Copy, 5 cents

Editorial Staff Editor Victor T. Hackler Managing Editor J. A. Charvat

Business Staff Business Manager Otto Sheld Asst. Business Manager Simpson Morton

GREETINGS With this edition, a new editorial staff assumes charge of The Daily Nebraskan.

First of all, we wish to mention "service." As that word is used in restaurants and similar public places it means special favors or accommodations given in the expectation of financial reward.

John Green, the oldest employee of the University in point of service resigned from his position.

Inter-departmental athletics was given a boost when the Ag College club elected a board for athletics to arrange for contests with other colleges in various lines of sport.

The Business Women's Club of the University was organized in the school of commerce.

The University Glee and Mandolin Clubs gave an entertainment at Seaward.

Walter Booth, who coached the Nebraska football team for six seasons, announced that he would not return.

The representatives of the Nebraska and Kansas Boards met and patched up all differences existing between the two Universities.

Most of them will be unprepared if they attend classes. For why should they concern themselves with unimportant things like French, or economics, or mathematics, when the grand old tradition of raising hell with the freshmen demands attention?

Those silly fanatics who keep insisting that the real reason for attendance at the University is to go to school should utterly disregard it.

For the greater part of this week fraternity freshmen—and to some extent sophomores, juniors, and seniors—will find the class rooms convenient places to sleep.

Having spent the nights going through those stunts that are necessary to the welfare of any well-regulated fraternity, they will slumber sweetly while the drone of the professor's voice lulls them.

THE NEW FIELD HOUSE The dedication of the Field House Saturday will open a new epoch in indoor winter sports at the University of Nebraska.

The completion of this latest unit to the University plant, at a cost of over $400,000 without a cent of expense to the tax payers of the state, shows the extent to which athletics have grown in popular favor during the past decade or two.

Not for mere exploitation of athletics itself, but for the good of the general student body and the public at large.

The Nebraska Field House in particular has been planned not with the sole aim of helping develop a winning basketball team or a great wrestling team, but with the vision of providing a building where the whole student body might have ample facilities for exercise and recreation, and which might in addition be used as a public hall for large gatherings.

The fundamental mission of the Field House will be accomplished only in so far as the individual student is benefitted. That this will be so from the very beginning is an accomplishment for which the Athletic Board may be justly proud.

The University owes a deep debt of gratitude to the men who have planned and carried through to completion this latest step toward a greater and greater University.

Ten Years Ago

The "Awful" number of The Awgwan was published. There were "awful good" editorials, "awful good" cuts, which were quite a shock to some, "awful" poor jokes along with some "awful" nice ones, and on the whole it was an "awful" big number.

John Green, the oldest employee of the University in point of service resigned from his position.

Inter-departmental athletics was given a boost when the Ag College club elected a board for athletics to arrange for contests with other colleges in various lines of sport.

The Business Women's Club of the University was organized in the school of commerce.

The University Glee and Mandolin Clubs gave an entertainment at Seaward.

Walter Booth, who coached the Nebraska football team for six seasons, announced that he would not return.

The representatives of the Nebraska and Kansas Boards met and patched up all differences existing between the two Universities.

Most of them will be unprepared if they attend classes. For why should they concern themselves with unimportant things like French, or economics, or mathematics, when the grand old tradition of raising hell with the freshmen demands attention?

Those silly fanatics who keep insisting that the real reason for attendance at the University is to go to school should utterly disregard it.

For the greater part of this week fraternity freshmen—and to some extent sophomores, juniors, and seniors—will find the class rooms convenient places to sleep.

Having spent the nights going through those stunts that are necessary to the welfare of any well-regulated fraternity, they will slumber sweetly while the drone of the professor's voice lulls them.

THE NEW FIELD HOUSE The dedication of the Field House Saturday will open a new epoch in indoor winter sports at the University of Nebraska.

The completion of this latest unit to the University plant, at a cost of over $400,000 without a cent of expense to the tax payers of the state, shows the extent to which athletics have grown in popular favor during the past decade or two.

Not for mere exploitation of athletics itself, but for the good of the general student body and the public at large.

The Nebraska Field House in particular has been planned not with the sole aim of helping develop a winning basketball team or a great wrestling team, but with the vision of providing a building where the whole student body might have ample facilities for exercise and recreation, and which might in addition be used as a public hall for large gatherings.

The fundamental mission of the Field House will be accomplished only in so far as the individual student is benefitted. That this will be so from the very beginning is an accomplishment for which the Athletic Board may be justly proud.

The University owes a deep debt of gratitude to the men who have planned and carried through to completion this latest step toward a greater and greater University.

Not for mere exploitation of athletics itself, but for the good of the general student body and the public at large.

The Nebraska Field House in particular has been planned not with the sole aim of helping develop a winning basketball team or a great wrestling team, but with the vision of providing a building where the whole student body might have ample facilities for exercise and recreation, and which might in addition be used as a public hall for large gatherings.

The fundamental mission of the Field House will be accomplished only in so far as the individual student is benefitted. That this will be so from the very beginning is an accomplishment for which the Athletic Board may be justly proud.

The University owes a deep debt of gratitude to the men who have planned and carried through to completion this latest step toward a greater and greater University.

Not for mere exploitation of athletics itself, but for the good of the general student body and the public at large.

The Nebraska Field House in particular has been planned not with the sole aim of helping develop a winning basketball team or a great wrestling team, but with the vision of providing a building where the whole student body might have ample facilities for exercise and recreation, and which might in addition be used as a public hall for large gatherings.

The fundamental mission of the Field House will be accomplished only in so far as the individual student is benefitted. That this will be so from the very beginning is an accomplishment for which the Athletic Board may be justly proud.

The University owes a deep debt of gratitude to the men who have planned and carried through to completion this latest step toward a greater and greater University.

Not for mere exploitation of athletics itself, but for the good of the general student body and the public at large.

The Nebraska Field House in particular has been planned not with the sole aim of helping develop a winning basketball team or a great wrestling team, but with the vision of providing a building where the whole student body might have ample facilities for exercise and recreation, and which might in addition be used as a public hall for large gatherings.

The fundamental mission of the Field House will be accomplished only in so far as the individual student is benefitted. That this will be so from the very beginning is an accomplishment for which the Athletic Board may be justly proud.

The University owes a deep debt of gratitude to the men who have planned and carried through to completion this latest step toward a greater and greater University.

Notices

W. A. A. General meeting of the W. A. A. Wednesday evening at 7:15, Social Science auditorium. Special program.

W. A. A. Meeting of all women who played in soccer this season at noon in West Armory 101 Wednesday.

Ag Convocation A play entitled "The Life of Mary Ellen Richards" will be given Thursday, February 4, at 11 o'clock in Agricultural Hall at the agricultural campus.

Art Club Regular monthly meeting, Thursday at 6:00 in the Art Gallery. Important business.

Iota Sigma Pi Iota Sigma Pi meeting Wednesday, February 3, at 7:15, Chemistry Hall.

Girls Commercial Club The Girls Commercial Club dinner and initiation of new girls, Wednesday, February 3, from 5 to 8 at Ellen Smith Hall.

Xi Delta There will be a meeting of Xi Delta Thursday at 7:15 at Ellen Smith Hall.

The Instantly Interchangeable "Multi-Use" Pencil

The only pencil that writes in five different colors containing five compartments with Red—Green—Blue—Indelible and Black leads.

For Teachers, Students, Accountants, Bookkeepers, Clerks, Salesmen, Secretaries, etc.

Now selling to introduce at $1.15 each. Every Pencil Guaranteed.

M. John Goldstone, 201 Marcy Place, New York City, N. Y.

Corncoats

Corncoats picture for the Cornhusker will be taken at Campus Studio, Thursday, February 4, at 12:15. Members wear a black bow and the Corncoat sweater.

Komensky Klub Komensky Klub will meet Saturday, February 6, at 8:15 in Temple 204.

Chess Match A Faculty-Student chess match, Saturday at 2 o'clock at Faculty Men's Club rooms in the Temple.

Freshman Council

The Freshman Council will meet at 6:00 Thursday at the University Y. M. C. A. Business meeting from 6 to 7.

Faculty Issues Marriage Law The faculty members at Baylor University have made a ruling where by any undergraduate student or special student who marries must retire from the university at once and may not re-enter for twelve months thereafter. The ruling does not apply to graduate students.

Reed Is Named New Committee Chairman

Prof. A. A. Reed, director of the University Extension Division, has been appointed chairman of the committee on nominations for officers of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

--our shop scout says:

George Brothers' "Smokers" promotes neat Puffing!

—here is the handy, good-looking ash receptacle, men, if you would keep your ashes sub rosa! The Smoker is a decorated metal stand which literally swallows the ashes, and can't be tipped over.

"Co-eds prefer Blondes" at Mayer Bros. Co.

—and so will campus 'gentlemen', out not in the sense that Anita Loos refers to in her new book! The blondes this time, are new spring shoes at Mayer Bros. Co., and quite the last word in style are these trim fitting pumps.

Adorable Spring Hats for $3.00 at Ben Simon & Sons!

—think of it, fashion-plates! Just the clever little felt and silk numbers you've been looking for. Their paltry price is due of course, only to the fact that Mrs. Yarwood made a fortunate special purchase; otherwise these identical hats would be priced as high as $10.

Welcome, New Students, to the Grand Cafe!

—quite as important as getting the right start in your head-work is finding the right place to satisfy the three-times-a-day hunger! You'll like the Grand Cafe—so will your pocketbook and your feet.

'Lady Windermere's Fan' at the Lyric all week!

—you've probably read Oscar Wilde's play of this name; perhaps you've seen it on the stage. Now come to the Lyric and witness this brilliant comedy on the screen, with Irene Rich as the fascinating if indiscreet Mrs. Erylne; with good-looking Ronald Colman as Lord Darlington; with May McAvoy and Bert Lytell as Lady and Lord Windermere; and with a supporting cast worthy of such stars!

Showing Them Early-- Spring Top-Coats. Not too early—the fellows are beginning to long for a change from Winter Clothes. These new coats are in single and double breasted—some what longer than in the past—form tracing models with broad shoulders and extremely wide lapels.

Don't Forget The Greenback Family. Students Demand Quality and on that have we built our fine School Business. If by chance you buy from us and are not satisfied we feel grateful when you tell us. This is your store and we want to serve you as you feel you should be served.

On The Air University Studio broadcasting over KFAB (340.7) Wednesday, Feb. 3 9:30 to 9:55 a. m. Weather report by Prof. T. A. Blair. Road report and announcements.

The largest selling quality pencil in the world. VENUS PENCILS. Superlative in quality, the world-famous VENUS PENCILS give best service and longest wear.

3 handy packs for 5¢. SANFORD'S FOUNTAIN PEN INK. WRIGLEYS P.K. NEW HANDY PACK. Fits hand ~ pocket and purse.

More for your money and the best Peppermint Casing for any money. Look for Wrigley's P.K. Handy Pack on your Dealer's Counter.

Greenback Dividers. Are a happy departure from the old style Division sheets. Note The Handy Tab.

Special. Free with every Royal, Brown Leather, metal hinge Note Book. One ream (its Boyer) of our Famous Greenedge History Paper.

Special. Free with every ream of Greenedge History one of our "Latsch Handy Note Book Covers."

Special. Greenback Dividers 4 for 10¢. Start This Semester with a Sheaffer Lifetime Pen and Pencil. Latsch Brothers, Inc. 1118 O Street.