*And Here's a Change of Diet
for You Nebraska Men*

Its time to be shaking off winter things—heavy clothes are irking you—you're itching for a change—hungry for new trappings.

What's on the bill of fare? Is it tempting? Will it whet your appetite?

We can only say, "Come and see!" The Clothes table is spread in our College Room—the bell has rung—already a hungry bunch of varsity men have been served to their jubilant satisfaction.

Yes, we'll admit it—we didn't know what college clothes were 'til this season—we didn't know what it was all about—but see our College Room this week—you'll see a dazzling array of light colored, fantastic, novelty weaves in the popularized 3-button collegiate coat.

Maybe you didn't get a D. B. Blue last season—if so you'll rave over these new novelty blue patterns—diamond weaves, wide herringbones, and smart diagonals in single or double breasters.

And best of all they're here—not "coming next week"—but right here ready to put on your back.

What's the price? You'll be surprised—not Ritz Carlton figures—just honest to goodness "Central Hotel" prices.
